

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2015

Married at First Sight Chapter 2015-Serenity knew that this matter was very important to her aunt, and her mood would also be affected.

She thoughtfully said: "Auntie, please be quiet, Elisa and I will go for a walk."

Mrs. Stone nodded, and said to her daughter: "Elisa, you can go out with Serenity to play, don't worry about Mom, Mom is fine, what storms have you not gone through in Mom's life?"

She was really a member of the Farrell family, she was the daughter of the previous head of the family, her parents and family members were all killed by the second aunt, and it will take a long time for her to collect evidence to bring the second aunt to justice, but the matter had passed Decades later, could evidence still be found?

Mrs. Stone told herself, calm down first, calm down, wait for the investigation to be clear and confirm that she was a member of the Farrell family before making a long-term plan.

"Auntie, Elisa and I went out." Serenity got up and motioned for Elisa to go out with her.

Elisa looked at her mother worriedly.

"Elisa, don't worry about Mom." Mrs. Stone comforted her daughter again and reassured her.

Elisa thought that her mother had always been strong and independent, and it was normal for her to be greatly touched by this incident. After all, it was related to her mother's background, but it could not overwhelm her.

If the mother really bears a bloody feud, the mother will also find a way to avenge her parents and family.

As children, they just needed to stand firmly on the mother's side.

Elisa: "Mom, Serenity and I are just taking a walk in the yard, call us if you need anything."

Mrs. Stone smiled, "Understood, you go out to play and let Mom be quiet."

Elisa and Serenity went out.

As soon as she left the main house, Elisa took out her mobile phone and called her father.

Shee still complained to Serenity: “My dad has become obsessed with fishing recently. He often goes out early in the morning and comes back in the evening, sometimes at night, and doesn’t accompany my mother.”

Mr. Stone quickly answered his daughter’s call. He asked softly on the phone: “What’s wrong with Elisa? Dad is fishing. Don’t say too loudly. If you scare the fish away, you won’t take the bait. I told your mother that the fish caught today will be taken home and grilled for her tonight.”

Eliza: “Dad, if you want to eat grilled fish, you can just buy a few catties of fresh fish and come back. Can Dad catch a person’s fish after fishing for a whole day? Dad, something happened to my mother. Stop fishing and come back to accompany me mom.”

Mr. Stone: “What happened to your mother? Did she twist her foot again? It was all a trick to match you and Andrew.”

The daughter already knew the truth, and Mr. Stone also told all the tricks his wife used some time ago.

“No, it has something to do with my mother’s life experience. Anyway, it’s a big deal. My mother is very depressed, and she doesn’t want me and Serenity to accompany her. It’s the most suitable time for you to come back to accompany my mother. Dad, you go fishing recently, go out for a whole day, and don’t accompany my mother.”

When Mr. Stone heard that it was related to his wife’s background, he asked puzzledly: “Your mother is an orphan, so what’s the problem with her background?”

His wife was almost sixty years old, not to mention that his parents and family members had passed away, even if there were still relatives alive, he was probably already old. Who remembers who his wife was?

Besides, his wife also said that there was only one younger sister, and everyone else is dead. After decades of searching for his sister-in-law, only two nieces were found in the end. The last relative who was closest to his wife by blood was his sister-in-law.

But his sister-in-law died more than ten years ago.

Mr. Stone really couldn’t figure out what else was wrong with his wife’s background.

Recommended Novels