

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2076

Married at First Sight Chapter 2076-And if Kevin drank too much and got drunk, Hayden's parents would definitely ask her to take him back to the hotel.

Donald: "Dad didn't drink much. It's rare for Kevin to eat here. He also personally cooked so many delicious barbecues. Dad accompanied him for two drinks, but not too much. How about you accompany him for two drinks?"

Hayden said coldly, "I don't drink at night."

Kevin smiled at her, "Hayden, you actually don't want me to drink so many bars. I'm sorry to say that, but I'll just use Uncle Queen as an example. Don't worry, I won't hurt my stomach."

Hayden: "Don't call me Hayden!"

"Hayden!" Mrs. Queen called her daughter seriously, "Your name is Hayden, what's wrong with Kevin calling you like that?"

"Mom, he can call me Mr. Queen. The name, Hayden is only called by my family, I'm just not used to him calling me like that." Hayden said rather helplessly, "I don't even know what ecstasy soup he poured on Dad and Mom. You treat him like your own. You picked me up."

Mrs. Queen said angrily and funnyly: "Yes yes yes, we picked you up, and Kevin is our own, okay, if Kevin is our own, parents don't have to worry that their hair will turn gray."

Hayden immediately stopped talking.

She knew that her parents were worrying about her life.

Moreover, the parents obviously took a fancy to Kevin. Although the parents didn't know that Grandma York chose Kevin as his husband, since Kevin made his choice, the elders in the family would support him, and they got it from his father. After the truth that she was a daughter, her parents let go and treated Kevin as a prospective son-in-law.

No matter how many rumors there were about her and Kevin outside, the parents didn't care, and tried their best to create opportunities for her and Kevin to be alone, hoping that she could accept Kevin's pursuit.

While her parents were not paying attention, Hayden gave Kevin a hard look.

Kevin immediately put down his wine glass and stopped eating barbecue.

“Kevin, why don’t you eat?” Seeing this, Donald asked him with concern, looked at his daughter again, and said, “Don’t worry about Hayden, let’s eat and drink ours, come here, cheers, we two, we will never stop getting drunk tonight “

“Uncle Queen, Hayden stared at me. I dare not drink with you again.” Kevin looked afraid that Hayden would scold him.

Hayden, who was drinking soup, almost choked on Kevin’s words.

She suddenly raised her head and stared at Kevin.

Just glaring at him, he actually complained to her father in front of her.

“Hayden, what you stare at Kevin is because dad told him to eat and drink here. If you want to stare, just stare at your dad.” Donald said to his daughter, “What about you? you are still staring at Kevin, Kevin, leave her alone, the two of us will drink until we are drunk, and we will stay here for one night and have lunch tomorrow.”

“Dad.” Hayden said solemnly: “What are the rumors outside? If you still keep him at our house overnight, I’ll be ashamed.”

If Kevin stayed at her house and people found out, they didn’t know how it would spread.

After a while, everyone’s discussion was not whether she would be taken down by Kevin, but whether she would attack or suffer?

Donald: “The rumors are not new now. If you felt ashamed, you would have lost your face long ago. Now that you have lost your face, what are you going to do with it?”

Recommended Novels