

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2095

Married at First Sight Chapter 2095-Said, Liberty greeted his son: "Sonny, let's go, say goodbye to Dad."

"Liberty, this weekend, Sonny doesn't have to go to kindergarten, and Sonny stays with his father in the hospital for two days, and we can send Sonny to you tomorrow night, is that okay?" Mr. Brown asked Liberty for his opinion.

Mr. Brown wanted to keep his grandson. He didn't speak much all the time, but Sonny and Duncan's overly intimate actions made Mr. Brown feel a sense of crisis.

He's worried that Duncan would become the stepdad of his grandson. Looking at the intimacy between the two of them, if Duncan became Sonny's stepdad, the relationship between father and son must be very good. At that time, his son, the father, would be forgotten by Sonny.

If the ex-daughter-in-law couldn't be chased back, she couldn't be chased back. That's because their family bullied Liberty and hurt Liberty's heart, but the grandson was the flesh and blood of their Brown family, and he was the only grandson. Their Brown family is estranged.

Liberty said: "Uncle, we have to ask Sonny what he means. If Sonny is willing to stay, I have no objection."

Mr. Brown asked his grandson, "Sonny, can you stay with your dad in the hospital? Let mother and Uncle Duncan leave."

Sonny refused without even thinking about it, and he said honestly: "Grandpa, I'm going to play at my aunt's house, and my aunt called me in the morning and told me to go to her house to play after seeing my father."

Mr. Brown coaxed him: "You can go to your aunt's house anytime, but your father is not in good health now. He has been lying in the hospital for so long and is very boring. He just needs someone to accompany him. You are his son, stay here. Come down and stay with him, okay?"

"Aren't grandparents and aunts accompanying my father?" Sonny asked back puzzledly.

There was so many people with his Dad. If Dad was not accompanied by anyone, he would stay with Dad, but Dad was accompanied by so many people.

Mr. Brown choked.

Hank: "Dad, I don't need Sonny to accompany me, let him go back with Liberty. Sonny, Dad is fine, you go to your aunt's house to play, come back and tell Dad what fun things there are in your aunt's house."

Sonny nodded and said: "When I come back, I will ask my mother to bring me to see my father, and tell my father that my aunt's house is very interesting. My aunt's house is very big and there are many interesting places."

Wildridge Manor had a big children's amusement park.

Every time Sonny went to Wildridge Manor, he would not want to go home, and his uncle's family was very nice, and he liked him very much.

Sonny: "Dad, my aunt's house also has a lot of delicious food. When I come back, I will bring some delicious food for Dad to try."

Sonny didn't have a deep relationship with his father. He had always been taken by his mother and aunt. When his parents were still living together, his father went to work every day. Sometimes he didn't see his father for a long time.

How deep was the relationship?

But he was willing to share with his father if he brought something good back.

Hank smiled, "Okay, Dad will wait for Sonny to bring back delicious food for Dad."

"Heal your wounds well, let's go first." Liberty said some polite words, took her son's little hand, and walked out of the ward with Duncan.

The Brown family followed.

Mr. Brown and Mrs. Brown were reluctant to part with their grandson.

Chelsea wanted Liberty to invite her family to dinner, so she stopped Liberty and said, "Liberty, let's have a meal together."

"Sister Chelsea, we will go another day. For now, I will send Sonny to Wildridge Manor first."

In fact, Liberty didn't want to have dinner with Chelsea.

Chelsea: "That's it, let's do it another day. You send Sonny to Wildridge Manor, can you take Lucas with you, Lucas and Sonny play together, and they also have companions."

Recommended Novels

