

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2107

Married at First Sight Chapter 2107-When Mrs. Stone, and Elisa were talking, Julian remained silent.

After the mother and daughter stopped discussing who would take over the Farrell family in the future, Julian got up and said goodbye again: "I won't disturb everyone, let's go first. Please have dinner some other day when you are free."

Mrs. Stone asked her son to send Julian out.

Clive got up and saw them off.

Julian did not stop him.

Out of the main house, Clive asked Julian: "Julian, you don't mean that to my sister, how long will you continue to act? Who asked you to play the leading role?"

Clive wanted to know who it was, he could invite Julian to star in the play.

Julian: "It's hard to say, I don't want to say it, it's embarrassing."

Clive: "..."

Julian made a bet with Andrew, lost the bet, and had to help Andrew unconditionally.

Andrew's condition was that before Remy and Elisa get engaged, Julian must make a promise to "pursue" Elisa.

Didn't Mrs. Stone think Remy was far away?

Julian was close enough, he was also from Wiltspoon.

But did Mrs. Stone dare to let her daughter marry Julian?

Obviously, Mrs. Stone didn't dare.

With Julian as a comparison, Mrs. Stone found Remy much more pleasing to the eye.

Julian: "Mr. Stone, I heard that your mother has other people's ideas, and wants to match your sister with the person she likes. Do you have such a plan?"

Clive: "...There is such a thing? I don't even know."

His mother could really make a fuss.

At this time, it was appropriate for the mother to investigate the matter of her life experience slowly, so that the mother will not have so much time to toss about the younger sister and Remy.

“Whether there is or not, Mr. Stone, please tell your mother. If she introduces a boyfriend to Ms. Stone again, I will find him and tell him that Ms. Stone is my girlfriend. Who dares to rob women with me?”

Clive: “...Julian, you will hurt my sister like that.”

“It’s not that I want to hurt your sister; it’s that your mother doesn’t want your sister to have a better life. I just don’t understand. Remy is also the young master of a wealthy family with hundreds of billions of dollars, and his family is much stronger than your Stone family. Your sister is not popular in the circle of high society in Wiltspoon, although most people are jealous of her. She has been obsessed with Zachary for many years, everyone knows this, and anyone who is with her will worry about being compared with Zachary by her.

Who likes to be compared with Zachary all the time? Comparison, not to mention that the person who is comparing is still Zachary.

I’m not afraid of your anger, I think your sister’s marriage is difficult, and finally there is a man who doesn’t care about her past, and her personality is also compatible, and he is tolerant of her. Beloved, you know how to cherish; you should quickly pack up your sister and send it to Remy’s house, and urge Remy to marry her; that’s the serious thing.”

“Do you think it’s far away? How far? Compared to those who marry abroad, Annenburg is very close, okay? Besides, Remy has been working in Wiltspoon for a long time, and he also has real estate here. After marriage, the young couple must live in Wiltspoon.

That’s a normal thing, and you don’t live in Annenburg for a long time.”

Clive smiled embarrassingly, unable to speak. He made a gesture of invitation to Julian, and invited Julian to get into the car.

Before getting into the car, Julian did not forget to tell: “Don’t let my father know that I have been here, otherwise if I marry your sister back home, she will be a widow for the rest of her life.”

Clive: “You are even more afraid that Patriarch Bucham will know about this.”

“Oh, Grandma York tricked me.” Julian sighed again.

Recommended Novels

