I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2050-“But I don’t want to die! I still have a lot of things to do.” Lorraine shook her head.

“Then we’ll have to do this ourselves, sorry!”

After that, the four sisters attacked Lorraine at the same time.

The teachers were attacking their disciple at the same time, sparing no effort to kill her.

They might have been the only ones who would do this.

At this moment, Lorraine suddenly displayed an incomparably fierce energy.

Only Saints had this.

As Lorraine herself said, she did not want to die yet.

However, her four teachers wanted her to die.

That being the case, she could only go against her teachers.

Lorraine would not stand a chance if Eira and her sisters had recovered.

At this moment, the four were weak, so the result of this battle was very unpredictable.

Therefore, Lorraine chose the right time for the showdown.

Inside the Iridescent Sect.

Nova was anxiously waiting for David’s arrival.

Not long ago, she got news from David saying that he would come to investigate the forbidden area.

The forbidden area of the sect that was always hidden in the dark was finally coming to light.

At this moment, Nova was very nervous.

As an ancient sect, there were no other Saint in the Iridescent Sect other than the four reputable elders.

This was not reasonable and not healthy.

The others all figured the disciples of the sect were not talented or hard-working enough.

Only Nova, who had looked up various information about the sect, knew the reason.

A lot of Saints had emerged since the establishment of the sect.

However, those people would either go into the forbidden area to train in seclusion before their breakthrough and never come out, or get summoned by the reputable elders after they broke through and then never come out upon entering the forbidden area.

In short, everything was pointing to the forbidden area.

There were too many secrets buried there.

Now, the secret was about to be revealed.

At this moment...

Boom boom boom!

A series of loud bangs interrupted Nova's meditation.

'What happened?'

In a flash, Nova flew into the sky.

She looked in the direction where the loud noise had just occurred.

'Is that the forbidden area?'

Soon, countless figures appeared in the sky.

Obviously, they also heard the noise just now.

A group of core members quickly came to Nova's side.

"Lady Dream, what's going on? Why are there loud noises coming from the forbidden area?"

"Yeah! We all heard it. Did something happen in the forbidden area?"

"Only the four reputable elders and Lorraine, the head of this year's seven high priestesses, are in there right? What could have happened?"

“Did someone trespass into the forbidden area?”

“No way! Who is so bold to do so?”

“Why not? The treasure hidden in the ice cavern was forcibly taken away not long ago and the four reputable elders couldn’t even do anything. Therefore, it is not surprising that someone trespassed into the forbidden area.”

Everyone expressed their opinions one after another.

Nova’s heart skipped a beat.

‘Could it be that David has broken into the forbidden area and is fighting the reputable elders?’

‘No way.’

‘According to the time, he should still be on his way.’

‘Anyway, I’ll go check it out.’

Nova shouted, “All the seniors of the sect, follow me to the forbidden area. Everyone else, go back now.”

After speaking, she took the lead and rushed to the forbidden area quickly.

The rest of the seniors hurriedly followed.
