I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2176-At the same time, they indirectly mentioned that we were capable of catching this little girl, but they did not do that because she was cute and they liked her very much.

Of course, they were just being polite.

As businessmen, they would not just stop pursuing their stolen treasure because the thief was cute.

They just did not dare to do so because they were scared of Pebbles' background.

Now, they were still rejoicing in their hearts.

Fortunately, they did not abuse this little girl at the beginning, otherwise, they might have lost their lives.

After all, David's strength was the reason why the victims of the theft started thanking the thief.

'Thank you for your generosity. Pebbles is still young and ignorant, so she has caused you a lot of trouble. I would like to apologize to everyone here again. I, David Lidell, have seen everyone's actions, remembered them, and accepted them. If you need anything in the future, you can come to me, and I will not say no as long as it's within my power.'

Despite knowing that David was just being modest, his words made the people present feel at ease.

As expected of a powerful person, he was born extraordinary and had very strong strength, but he was not arrogant at all.

Nor did he try to oppress others with his strength.

If David refused to pay them back, they could not do anything to him.

David strength was clear, so what could they do?

Wouldn't they be courting death if they decided to cause trouble for David?

Except for a few curses in my heart, there was nothing else they could do.

They did not even dare to show it.

“Master David, you are too kind. It is our honor that Princess Pebbles chose our things, don’t you think so?”

“Exactly! There are so many business owners on the trading street. Why didn’t she steal from others but ours? I think Princess Pebbles must be very fond of us!”

“Princess Pebbles’ has such good eyes that she only takes the good things. Haha!”

The atmosphere was very harmonious.

After a few words of politeness, everyone said goodbye and left.

Although they did not make any money, it was still pretty good to be able to recover their losses.

With that, Pebbles’ affair was settled.

Now, it was Beanie’s turn.

She still had not sold the Silver Flood Dragon’s corpse yet.

The purpose of coming to Treasure Pavilion was to sell the Silver Flood Dragon.

However, they did not expect to run into Pebbles and to be delayed.

“Ms. Nacht, my business is over. Don’t you want to make a deal with Mr. Rivers?” David looked at Beanie.

After David said that, Beanie said to Thor, “Mr. Rivers, I have something to sell you this time.”

“What do you want to sell? My reputation on the trading street is known to all, and I will definitely give you a reasonable price. You will not suffer a loss,” Thor patted his chest and promised.

He could also tell that the two of them were not on the same team.

Otherwise, judging from David’s performance just now, would he still need to sell anything if he could casually spend 500 billion L Dollars to pay off other people’s debts?

Even if he wanted to sell, Thor might not be able to afford it.

“I also heard about your character, Mr. Rivers and I believe you so that’s why I made a special trip to find you. This time, I brought a corpse of a ferocious beast and wanted to sell it to you.”

‘The corpse of a beast? Is it mutilated or whole?’ Thor asked.

A beast’s corpse, even in Sole, was a relatively rare treasure.

Its value was generally in the billions.

The price would be determined by its condition.

If it was kept intact, it could easily be sold for tens of billions.

The meat of the beasts could be eaten and the bones of beasts could be used to make soup, which was of great benefit to the body.

They could quickly increase one’s strength and enhance one’s soul power.

The beasts’ hides could also be crafted into defensive clothing.

It could be said that the whole body was useful.

Of course, the most valuable was the Beast Crystal, but that was too rare
