I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2216-He was also the current mayor of Sole.

Moreover, David was so young, so one could only imagine how terrifying the force behind him was.

Conway made a habitual mistake.

Since entering The Spirit Cage, he had been relying on the influence of the Macee family and even though he could not rule the place, he was not too far behind from doing that.

That was why he had always been arrogant.

He figured that there would be no one powerful in Sole, and there would be no one powerful coming to this remote second-tier city.

In the end, he unexpectedly encountered this extremely small probability. He was so unlucky.

David tightened his grip again under the desperate eyes of Conway and the horrified eyes of the men around him.

Crack!

The sound of Conway's neck breaking could be heard.

Conway, who was still struggling violently, stared at him and suddenly lost his strength and turned limp.

David then tossed his body aside and it landed more than ten meters away with a thud.

The place was quiet.

All the men in black looked at the scene before them in disbelief.

'The young master died just like that?

'How could we explain this to the Macee family?

'And how would we face the wrath of the Macee family?'

After he did that, David clapped his hands as if disgusted at getting his hands dirty after killing the Macee family's direct descendant.

The little girl Pebbles was always in David's arms. Yet, she did not have the slightest fear after watching David kill someone.

It seemed that this trivial matter was not enough to attract her attention.

The leader of the men in black rushed to Conway's body, more than ten meters away, to check him.

After confirming that Conway was dead, he collapsed on the ground and muttered to himself, "It's over, it's over! Everything is over. Master Conway is dead, Master Conway is dead!"

When they heard that, the rest of the men in black suddenly collapsed like deflated balloons.

When David saw how these people acted, he realized that they were afraid of the punishment of the Macee family and that was why they were like this. So he had no intention of taking any more action.

Firstly, he would dirty his hands.

Secondly, if too many people died around the house, it would not be good and it would be very troublesome to move.

So, he looked at the men in black who were still lying on the ground around him and said, "You are all under the instigation of others, so tonight I will only teach you a lesson. I will not take your life but I hope you will be able to behave yourself in the future. Don't take the side of the evil-doer, otherwise, I will never forgive you so easily next time."

The men did not appreciate David's generosity.

If Conway was still alive, they would be very grateful to David, but now that he was dead, even if David let them go, they would not be able to escape the punishment of the Macee family.

David ignored the men. He turned and walked to Beanie and Evie with Pebbles in his arms.

When he turned again, he saw that everyone was still in place. They had not budged at all, so he emitted a strong sense of hostility and said, "I'll give you ten seconds to take your master and get the hell out of here or I'll kill you."

This woke everyone up.

Taking Conway's body with them, the men in black staggered away from the front yard.

No one was fearless in the face of death.

Even if they would be punished by the Macee family when they went back, it would be better than dying here.

In less than ten seconds, all the men in black disappeared.

All that remained were the bodies of the Nacht family's elite guards.

Beanie stood up and ordered, "Find a place and bury the corpses. I will pass the news back and make good compensation to their families. I promise they will have no worries for the rest of their lives."

"Yes, milady."

Several elite guards of the Nacht family came out from the side door and began to take care of the corpses of their companions.

They split into two teams.

The first team would guard the first half of the night and the other would guard the second half of the night respectively.

Right now, it was the middle of the night and some of them were sleeping. When they heard the commotion and rushed out, they saw Master David showing his supernatural power to kill someone. Hence, they did not dare to interrupt him.
