

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1481

“Mister Wolf, you’ve already promised me that you’d lend us the treasure, since all of us are begging you for it now, you might as well just lend it to us!” Yuri pleaded after a moment’s hesitation.

According to their previous agreement, Leon was supposed to lend the Luminous Pearl to the Thompsons if he failed to treat Roanne’s condition, but now, since Elder Swire was already here to take care of her, there was no longer any need for Leon to do so, lest something terrible happens during the process!

After all, Elder Swire was the best doctor in town, and surely he was far better than Leon, who was not even a proper doctor!

Because of this, Yuri was far more inclined to believe in Elder Swire’s capabilities!

“That’s right! Mister Wolf, it would be as easy as that to lend the Thompsons your treasure. Why do you to be so stubborn,” Raphael piped up.

have

“Alright, alright! since none of you believe me, I’ll show you right now that the Luminous Pearl doesn’t harness any Light Energy at all.” Leon had no choice but to take out the Luminous Pearl and channel his spiritual energy into it.

“Swoosh-”

The Spiritual Pearl floated into mid-air when it sensed Leon’s pure energy. Then, without warning, a powerful burst of energy erupted from within, emitting a ray of light so blinding that it illuminated the entire room!

“What a powerful surge of energy!”

Angus, Yuri, and the rest could not help gasping in awe at the Spiritual Pearl’s powerful display. However, as powerful as the energy contained within, none of them could feel the warmth or heat that was characteristic of Light Energy. Instead, the energy that emitted from the Spiritual Pearl felt more calming, like the spring breeze!

“Mister Thompson, I’ve already told you that the Luminous Pearl doesn’t harness any Light Energy at all. Do you all believe me now?” Leon asked.

“Yes, this doesn’t seem like Light Energy,” They were all a little disappointed by this, especially Angus and Vivian. They were both hopeful that the treasure Leon brought over would be able to cure their daughter, but now, after witnessing this, the glimmer of hope that ignited within them utterly dissipated!

“Don’t worry, Missus! Although this Luminous Pearl of mine is no treasure, I have another way of helping Miss Thompson—” Leon piped up, intending to convince Angus and Vivian to trust in his capabilities.

However, before he could even finish his sentence, Elder Swire interrupted, “Mister Thompson, the true energy contained within this Luminous Pearl is powerful and uninterrupted. Although this pearl does not harness Light Energy, it can’t be too far off. Don’t worry, with the help of the Luminous Pearl, I have about seventy percent certainty that I can cure Miss Thompson’s condition!”

“What? Do you mean it, Elder Swire? Can you really cure Roanne’s disease?” Angus and Yuri were astounded to hear this. Expressions of delight crossed their faces as hope ignited within them once more.

As for Leon’s statement, none of them took notice of him at all.

“Yes, I do! This Luminous Pearl is a rare treasure that contains highly purified true energy. Hence, its effects surely won’t be too far off from using a treasure that harnesses Light Energy! With such powerful energy in combination with my Pressure Point Treatment, I’m sure I can unblock Miss Thompson’s internal circulation and cure her for good.” Elder Swire declared confidently.

“This is splendid! Please, go ahead, Elder Swire!” Angus was overjoyed to hear this and quickly egged Elder Swire on.

“No, you can’t do that!” Leon objected.

“Why not? Are you questioning my expertise, young man?” Elder Swire furrowed his brows, glancing at Leon with a displeased look.

“Elder Swire, your method will indeed be effective against Third Degree Blocks, but unfortunately, Miss Thompson’s condition is not just that of a simple Third Degree Block. She is a rare entity of the Darkness Complex, and if you go ahead and unblock her internal circulation, it will release a powerful surge of Dark Energy that might overload her system, and cause terrible consequences,” Leon explained solemnly.

“What Darkness Complex are you talking about? I have no idea what you’re going on about!” Elder Swire scoffed at this. Although he was one of the best doctors in the field, the Darkness Complex was not a disease at all and thus had nothing to do with the medical field.

Besides, Darkness Complex in itself was a rare entity, and it did not come as a surprise to Leon that Elder Swire never heard of it!

“It’s okay if you haven’t heard of it, but I’m warning you, Miss Thompson’s condition is very peculiar. Years and years of purified Dark Energy have gotten stuck within her body, and if you insist on releasing it, it’ll be fatal,” Leon added.

“Are you accusing me of being an ignorant and negligent doctor that will kill my patients?” Elder Swire was amused to hear this.

“That’s not what I’m suggesting, but if you don’t listen to me, you’ll be no different from those kinds of doctors at all!” Leon replied.

“Well, well! Since you don’t believe in my capabilities, Mister Thompson, I shall get out of your hair! Please go ahead and seek advice from another medical practitioner!” Elder Swire was outraged by this and immediately turned to leave.

“No, please don’t! Elder Swire, you can’t leave, not before treating my daughter!” Angus was shocked by this and quickly stopped Elder Swire from leaving. Then, he turned to shoot Leon a murderous glare and snarled, “Hey, you punk, first you claimed you’d be able to cure my daughter, and now you’re accusing Elder Swire of being ignorant and angered him. What on earth are you trying to do?”

“I’m not trying to do anything. I’m just telling the truth,” Leon protested with a frustrated look. The only reason he volunteered to help Roanne was that Yuri helped him at the Black Market, and he felt that he owed him one. Not only that but with his medical expertise, there was no way he could sit by and watch someone die without helping!

However, Leon never thought that Angus would question his capabilities and even refuse to listen to him!

As mild-mannered as Leon was, he could not help beginning to be annoyed at this!

“Shut up! I’m warning you, you punk—if you continue to stop Elder Swire from treating Roanne, I will make you pay for this!” Angus snarled, a glimmer of malice flashing through his eyes as he channeled his true energy.

It was clear that he meant business!

It was clear that he meant business!

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1483

“You” Leon was utterly infuriated by this. He was so kind as to help Roanne, but Angus was not only ungrateful for his help, he even threatened him time and time again!

Leon was utterly disappointed at getting treated this way.

“Well, since none of you believe me, I won’t force you to change your minds! Give me back the treasure, and I’ll leave right this instant!” Leon snapped, trying to stifle his rage as he pulled the Luminous Pearl back.

“No! You can leave, but the treasure has to stay!” Angus scoffed as he reached out, unleashing a powerful surge of energy straight toward Leon.

“That’s incredible!” Leon gasped when he sensed Angus’s power. He was no match for Angus at all, and before he could even react, Angus’s energy smacked him squarely in the middle of his chest.

The color drained from Leon’s face as he staggered backward, a strange sensation rising in his chest. Finally, something leaped into his throat, and he spat out a mouthful of bright red blood!

Thankfully, Angus was just trying to get the treasure from him and did not intend to hurt him at all. Otherwise, he would have suffered an even more disastrous fate by now!

“What are you doing, Angus? How can you treat Mister Wolf like that when he’s helping us out of kindness? Vivian was astounded by this and could not help reprimanding her husband as she stepped forward to help Leon up.

“Don’t be so naïve, Vivian! This man has tried to stop Elder Swire from helping Roanne again and again, so there’s no way he’s acting out of kindness! If it weren’t for the fact that we need his help with the treasure, I would’ve killed him by now!” Angus snapped coldly.

“You!” Vivian shot her husband a murderous glare.

However, she could not help agreeing with Angus about one thing—now that Leon agreed to lend them the treasure, she, too, hoped that Elder Swire would be able to cure Roanne’s illness once and for all!

Therefore, she had no choice but to swallow her words in consideration of this.

“I can’t believe it! You Thompsons are all ungrateful twats!” Leon was irate at this, but he knew there was nothing he could do. With his limited power, he could only sense energies as far up as the Initial Emperor State, and Angus was so powerful that he could not even sense the true extent of his power!

It was safe to say that he would be no match against Angus at all unless he utilized another one of his Potential Energy Forces!

However, the Potential Energy Forces were too valuable, and considering that he and the Thompsons were not enemies, he was not willing to waste another one of his Potential Energy Forces on them!

This was not realistic at all!

“Please calm down, Mister Wolf. Don’t worry, once Elder Swire cures Roanne with the treasure, we promise we’ll return it to you safe and sound,” Yuri reassured him.

“Alright, alright! seeing that you did me a favor at the Black Market just now, I’ll lend it to you just this once! However, all I want to say is that if your insistence does indeed kill Miss Thompson, you can’t blame me for not warning you!” Leon scoffed. He knew full well that since Roanne was afflicted with the Darkness Complex, using the Luminous Pearl to cure her would undoubtedly unleash all the purified Dark Energy within her, causing her to combust!

As much as he wanted to stop this from happening, Angus refused to listen and even forcefully took his treasure away from him!

There was nothing Leon could do!

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1484

Angus took no notice of Leon’s warning at all and instead turned to gaze at Elder Swire with an apologetic look. “Elder Swire, we Thompsons didn’t mean to offend you. It was that punk who kept trying to interrupt you, and he in no way is affiliated with us. Please do forgive us for this confusion!”

“Alright then!” Elder Swire finally began to relax at this.

“Elder Swire, time is running out, please save our daughter!” Angus pleaded.

“I will!” Elder Swire nodded, then strode over to the bed and started pressing his fingers on Roanne’s pressure points.

There were 12 main channels of internal circulation within the human body, which were the Three Dark Channels of the Arm, the Three Light Channels of the Arm, the Three Dark Channels of the Leg, and finally, the Three Light Channels of the Leg. Each of these channels were interlinked with the other and drained a major organ respectively.

The three internal channels that were blocked in Roanne’s case were the Supreme Channel, the Secondary Channel, and the Liver Channel. Out of the three, most of the Dark Energy was concentrated within the Supreme Channel, whereas the Liver Channel contained the last.

After some contemplation, Elder Swire decided to start with the Liver Channel first.

The Liver Channel was located on the inner aspect of the shoulders and arms, with nine points, beginning from the Celestial Point down to the Mid-Digit Point, interconnected to form a channel.

Elder Swire snatched the floating Spiritual Pearl out of mid-air, then placed it around Roanne’s shoulder, positioning it so that it hovered about 30 centimeters away from Roanne’s body.

Then, he placed his finger firmly against her skin, right on her pressure points.

With that, the immense energy from the Spiritual Pearl began to surge through Elder Swire’s fingers and flow right into Roanne’s body, coursing through her channels and unblocking all the Dark Energy that collected there.

“It’s no wonder Elder Swire is regarded as the best doctor in town! Unfortunately, his knowledge is yet to be fully extensive,” Leon could not help sighing at this.

With his expertise, it was not hard for Leon to tell that Elder Swire was certainly an experienced doctor, better than those he saw back in Springfield City—the way he conducted his pressure point treatment was flawless and his technique immaculate!

Unfortunately, Elder Swire was not familiar with the peculiarities of the Darkness Complex, and this method of healing would not only fail to cure Roanne, but it might also even kill her!

Just as Leon lamented over this great loss, Elder Swire finally managed to unblock Roanne’s Liver Channel with the help of the Spiritual Pearl.

“Finally!” Elder Swire removed his fingers from her pressure points.

“How’s my daughter now, Elder Swire?” Angus could not help asking in worry.

“Don’t be impatient, Mister Thompson! Three channels have been blocked within Miss Thompson’s body. I just managed to unblock the first one, and once I do the same for the next two, she will be cured!” Elder Swire replied, smiling.

“This is splendid! Please, go on!” Angus perked up in excitement at this. After witnessing how easily Elder Swire managed to accomplish that, he was certain that it would not take long for him to do the same for the remaining two channels!

Angus immediately grew even more confident that Elder Swire was going to succeed, but he was not the only one excited about this—Vivian and Yuri were all gazing hopefully at Elder Swire.

However, what happened next shocked them all to the core!

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1485

All of a sudden, Roanne's eyelids flew open as a flush of redness surged into her cheeks. Then, she bent over, spat out two mouthfuls of blood, and passed out within seconds.

"Roanne, what's going on?" Angus and Vivian were utterly shocked by this.

Vivian immediately lunged toward the bed and grabbed hold of her daughter, crying out Roanne's name over and over, but there was no response from her at all!

Not only that but although Roanne also passed out a few minutes ago, her condition was stable beforehand.

Now, however, her eyes were clamped tightly shut, and her breathing was gradually becoming labored as though she were in grave danger!

Even an idiot could tell that her condition deteriorated and was now in a critical state!

"What's going on, Elder Swire? Why did my daughter vomit blood all of a sudden, and become so weak?" Angus' eyes were bloodshot as he turned to shoot Elder Swire a stern look.

"I don't know," Elder Swire felt as though he was struck by lightning. He already unblocked one of Roanne's internal channels, and logically speaking, she should be getting better by now, yet not was there no sign of improvement, she even seemed to have deteriorated and was now in grave danger!

This was out of Elder Swire's expectations, and he had no idea what was happening at all!

"How can you say you don't know when you were the one who treated her?" Angus snarled, wanting nothing more than to see Elder Swire alive right on the spot, but considering that they needed Elder Swire's help to save Roanne, he finally decided to stay calm.

"Elder Swire, you were the one who caused this! I don't care what you do, you need to rescue my daughter right this instant! If anything bad happens to her, I'll make you pay for this!" Angus bellowed, his voice dripping with malice.

"I-"
"Elder Swire's felt his scalp crawl. His heart sank at the realization that he did not know how to save Roanne. He did not even know the root cause of Roanne's condition, much less why her illness deteriorated so quickly, so how was he supposed to save her?"

"Could Mister Wolf have been right? Is Roanne afflicted with the Darkness Complex," Yuri and Raphael were hit with a sudden realization.

Leon already warned them since the start of Roanne's peculiar condition, but because Elder Swire denied this, all of them changed their minds and believed Elder Swire instead!

However, now that this happened, they could not help but realize how wrong they were—Leon told the truth all along!

At the thought of this, Yuri quickly turned to Leon and asked, "Mister Wolf, what's happening here? Why did Roanne's condition go south so quickly?"

“I’ve already told you this before—

Miss Thompson has a condition known as the Darkness Complex, and all the Dark Energy has been trapped within her for many years now. Therefore, we can’t unblock her channels willy-nilly. Now that Elder Swire has unblocked her Liver Channel, all the Dark Energy is coursing through the channel right into her heart,” Leon sighed.

The Liver Channel led into the Pericardial Channel, which was the main channel of the outer layer of the heart the pericardium.

Initially, the Dark Energy within Roanne’s body was maintained at equilibrium, and she would not be in any immediate danger so long as the Dark Energy did not surpass the threshold.

However, now that the Liver Channel was unblocked, all the Dark Energy was surging right into her heart, and its consequences would be dire!

“I can’t believe it. It turns out Miss Thompson does have the Darkness Complex,” Elder Swire was stunned to hear this. He finally realized that Leon warned him all along!

However, he was not the only person to realize his mistake—Angus, Vivian, and the rest finally discovered just how wrong they were to ignore Leon’s warnings!

Angus was the most remorseful out of all of them; At first, he refused to believe because that he was not a licensed medical doctor, but now, he finally realized just how experienced Leon was—even more so than Elder Swire—and how dreadfully he underestimated Leon!

“Mister Wolf, I am truly sorry for what I have done. I should never have questioned your medical expertise. Now that Roanne is in a critical state, please do help her,” Angus said with an anguished look.

Leon tried to help Roanne out of kindness, but not only did he fail to appreciate that, he even doubted Leon and tried to attack him!

However, no matter how humiliated he was, he had to plead with Leon for help out of consideration of his daughter's condition!

“Mister Thompson, I'm sorry but if you allowed me to treat Miss Thompson just now, I would've been able to cure her, at a seventy percent certainty, but now that the Dark Energy has entered her heart, there's no way I can turn this around. I'm sorry but it's time to get your affairs in order,” Leon sighed.

“What?” Angus, Vivian, and Yuri felt as though they were struck by lightning.

All of them thought that Leon would have a way to save Roanne, considering he was far more experienced than Elder Swire was, but now, after hearing Leon's statement, they finally realized how serious this was!

Leon single-handedly declared Roanne dead, and one could only imagine the shock at hearing that!

“Angus, this is all your fault! Mister Wolf already warned us not to unblock Roanne's internal channels, but you refused to listen. If Roanne dies just like this, I'll never be able to forgive you for this,” Vivian wailed, slumped against her daughter's body as she burst into tears.

“How could this be?” The color drained from Angus's face. He staggered backward, his legs suddenly turning weak, and almost fell to the ground.

He knew that Vivian was right—they stood a chance of curing Roanne, but his naivety and stubbornness cost his daughter's life!

Not even he could forgive himself for this fatal mistake!

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1487

“Well, Mister

Thompson, since you're done with the treasure, I'll be off now!” Leon reached out and grabbed the Spiritual Pearl out of the air, then turned and strode out the door without a second glance.

Not only did Angus question his capabilities, but he even threatened him time and time again. Therefore, Leon was not fond of this man at all, and considering the Dark Energy already infiltrated Roanne's heart, there was no point in him staying any longer..

“No! you can't leave, Mister Wolf!” Yuri was the first to break out of his stupor and quickly chased after Leon. “Is there anything else I can help you with, Mister Thompson?” Leon asked quizzically.

“Mister Wolf, please, I beg you—save my sister,” Yuri pleaded.

“Mister Thompson, it's not that I don't want to, but now that the Dark Energy has invaded her heart, there's nothing else I can do. I'm sorry to say this, but you'll have to seek help elsewhere,” Leon said, shaking his head.

Although he brought Iris and Damian back from the brink of death, Roanne, unlike them, was too far gone to do that.

The heart was the most vulnerable organ of the human body and now that the Dark Energy seeped into it, there was nothing he could do to save her, no matter how experienced he was.

“Thud-”

Before Leon could even finish his sentence, Vivian got onto her knees.

“What are you doing, Missus Thompson? Please, get up!” Leon was stunned to see this. He quickly reached out to help Vivian up, but she was far too strong, and no matter how hard he tried, he could not seem to pull her back on her feet.

“Mister Wolf, if you’re not willing to help, Roanne will be dead within minutes. Please, I beg you to find a way to help her, even if there’s only one in a million chance,” Vivian pleaded, sobbing. Her voice was etched with dismay and sorrow, and tears did not stop spilling from her eyes.

“Missus, I can understand how you feel, but there’s truly nothing to be done,” Leon sighed. His heart could not help sinking at this sight.

As determined as he was that he could not help, he still felt immense sadness at the sight of Vivian’s distress, but he knew it was hopeless.

“Thud!”

The next moment, even Angus got on his knees.

“Mister Wolf, it was all my fault that I offended you. I beg for your forgiveness. Please have mercy on me, and save my daughter before it’s too late. If you’re willing to help us, we will forever be indebted to you no matter the outcome. We’ll forever be grateful for your kindness and mercy,” He said with a pleading look.

If Leon agreed to help them, there was a sliver of hope for Roanne, but if Leon refused to help, Angus knew that there was no way Roanne could survive this!

Therefore, he wanted to beg Leon to help just this once, even if it meant there was only a one-in-a-million chance of Roanne pulling through!

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1488

“Mister Wolf, please, help us,” Yuri, too, got on his knees after both his parents.

“There’s no other way,” Leon let out a bitter smile and was about to turn the three of them down when all of a sudden, a lightbulb went off in his head.

However, after some hesitation, he decided to swallow his words.

“Did you think of another solution, Mister Wolf?” Yuri perked up, a sliver of hope igniting in his eyes when he sensed Leon’s hesitation.

Even Angus and Vivian were staring at him with expectant looks, hoping to hear the answer they wanted. Leon could not bear to disappoint them once more. He let out a sigh and replied, “Well, there’s one way to do this, but it’s too difficult—not realistic at all.”

“What is it?”

“Mister Wolf, please tell us.”

The three of them perked up as expressions of excitement crossed their faces.

“Well, truth be told, Miss Thompson’s condition is a little special. I’m guessing that the Dark Energy within her has yet to fully invade her heart, so we still have a sliver of hope,” Leon explained.

He initially thought there was no way to save Roanne now that the Dark Energy entered her internal circulation, but now, Leon suddenly recalled that only her Liver Channel was unblocked—her Supreme Channel was still clogged!

The Supreme Channel was directly linked to the pericardium, whereas the Liver Channel communicated with the Pericardial Channel wrapped outside the pericardium.

If this were an ordinary person, death was an inevitable consequence should Dark Energy invade their Pericardial Channel and subsequently their heart. However, Roanne's case was different; her Supreme Channel was still blocked, and thus the Dark Energy still needed time before it reached her pericardium and heart.

This meant that they still had a fighting chance to save Roanne before it was too late!

“Unfortunately, Miss Thompson's case is urgent, and if we want to get rid of all the Dark Energy collected outside her heart, we need to use a special kind of herb that harnesses Light Energy. It's called the Sunlit Herb. If you can find a Sunlit Herb within the next hour, I might be able to save Miss Thompson and even cure her Third Degree Block. This is the only way,” Leon added.

He knew full well that herbs like these were hard to come by, much less those that specifically harnessed Light Energy like the Sunlit Herb.

No matter how powerful the Thompsons were, there was no way they would be able to find one within the next hour unless a miracle happened!

“Mister Wolf, we've never heard of the Sunlit Herb before, and I'm afraid we can't find it so soon, especially within an hour. Is there another way, for example by using another medicinal herb like one that has grown for or over five centuries?” Angus asked.

Although it was almost impossible for them to find the Sunlit Herb, it would not take long for the Thompsons to get their hands on another herb considering their power and influence!

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1489

“Um,” Leon fell silent as he contemplated this.

He knew that the Sunlit Herb was one of the rarest among the medicinal herbs and that there was no way the Thompsons would be able to find it in time. However, Angus' query reminded him that there was still the possibility of using another herb in replacement of the Sunlit Herb.

“I guess that's our best shot!” Leon decided after some thought.

“Will this work, Mister Wolf?” Angus could not help asking, his expression delighted.

“Well, a herb that's around five centuries old isn't going to work, but I have about three-quarters left of a thousand-year-old Ganoderma. If we use it in replacement of the Sunlit Herb coupled with the Light Convergence Circle, it just might work,” Leon explained.

Herbs that were thousands of years old had the same properties as elite medicinal herbs, and the Ganoderma also possessed Light Energy conserving effects. Coupled with the formation of a Light Convergence Circle, there was a chance that they could save Roanne with this!

The family's hearts sank when they heard Leon saying a five-century-old herb was not going to work, but Leon's next statement ignited the hope within them once more!

“This is great! Thank you, Mister Wolf,” The three of them thanked him profusely.

“Mister Thompson, please don’t get too excited just yet. Although this might work, the chances aren’t as good as using a Sunlit Herb, I promise I’ll do the best I can, but there’s no guarantee that I might be able to save Miss Thompson,” Leon said solemnly.

“It’s okay. As long as you try your best, it doesn’t matter what the outcome is. we Thompsons will forever be indebted to you for your help,” Angus, Vivian, and Yuri said.

“Alright. Let’s not waste time now. I’ll first try to preserve as much of Miss Thompson’s heart as I can!” Leon nodded and strode over to the bed.

Then, he placed his fingers on a few pressure points around Roanne’s chest, thereby securing her heart.

Although Roanne’s breath was still thready and rapid, she was still breathing, and this was far better compared to Iris and Damian’s condition before!

With Leon’s medical expertise and the fact that he managed to preserve her heart just in time, he was certain that Roanne would be safe and sound for the next hour or so.

Then, he started preparing the necessary herbs and formation of the Light Convergence Circle.

Since he kept the thousand-year-old Ganoderma at the villa, he decided to call Iris for help, considering it would be too time-consuming for him to travel back to the villa to retrieve it.

However, Iris was already on the way to the Scammells at that point, and the only person at home was Snow.

Leon quickly dialed Snow's number and asked her to bring the Ganoderma over as soon as possible.

Besides that, he needed 36 jadeites for the formation of the Light Convergence Circle, and he assigned Raphael to be in charge of this.

Raphael owned an antique store, so this was naturally an easy task for him, and he only needed to make a few phone calls.

Half an hour later, Snow arrived with the Ganoderma, and Raphael's men arrived with the 36 jadeites as requested.

They were more than ready!

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1490

Leon walked into the backyard, found a spot where the Light Energy was most concentrated, and arranged the 36 jadeites into a Light Convergence Circle.

At this point, it was noon, when the sun shone the brightest, and this would allow the Light Convergence Circle to work its full potential!

After setting up the Light Convergence Circle, Leon grabbed hold of an unconscious Roanne and strode into the center of the circle, then sat down with his legs crossed.

Angus, Vivian, and the rest were given instructions to remain outside the circle, watching, and were not allowed to step into the circle no matter what!

Meanwhile, Leon remained seated in the center and took out the jadeite tablet he used to bring everywhere he went, then placed it at the core to activate the Light Convergence Circle.

The Light Energy surrounding them quickly concentrated to the center as though tugged by an invisible force, and solidified into beams of blinding energy, surging into the Light Convergence Circle and stirring up thick clouds of fog.

Soon, the fog was so thick that they could barely make out Leon and Roanne's silhouettes in the center, as though they were miles and miles away.

This was certainly an amazing sight!

"Miss Thompson, everything has been set up in optimal condition. Now, it's up to you whether you can pull and through this or not! Don't worry, if you pull through this, I will do everything in my power to cure you rid you of your pain, so that you can live a normal and happy life," Leon reassured her, knowing that she was still clinging to life, and tried to spark her will to survive.

With that, he took out the Ganoderma, used his true energy to crush it into powder, then fed it to Roanne.

Roanne was afflicted with the rare Darkness Complex, but because of her concomitant Third Degree Block, the Dark Energy within her grew stagnant. The only way to be rid of all this energy was to neutralize it with Light Energy, which was why Leon prepared the Light Convergence Circle!

Besides this, the Ganoderma would allow the Dark Energy to be diluted, as well as unblock the two remaining channels in Roanne's body.

Light and darkness were two opposing forces, but would always come to a balance!

Leon applied firm pressure on several pressure points around Roanne's chest and abdomen. This was a special technique, called the Eternity Com pression Method, which long since gotten lost in translation. The Eternity Compression Method would restore the equilibrium between light and darkness, and unblock all the Twelve Channels, effectively curing Roanne of her illness!

All the Light Energy contained within the Light Convergence Circle surged toward Roanne's body and formed the silhouette of a dragon before finally flowing from Leon's fingers into her body. A surge of warmth spread right through Roanne's body as the energy quickly neutralized all the stagnant Dark Energy that remained within her for so long.

This was the core of the Eternity Compression Method—the Supreme Channel was the mother of both Light and Dark and encompassed both movement and stillness. Like a dragon, it would ebb and flow with the air, ridding one of all the stagnancy within!
