The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 165

Ariel said with great difficulty before she grabbed a pad from her bag and got up to leave. Yet, another wave of pain washed over her, and she stumbled before she started to fall.

Thankfully, Leon reacted quickly. He grabbed her waist and pulled Ariel into his arms.

"Is your illness acting up again?" Leon frowned, quickly guessing what happened.

"I'm fine, I just need to bear with it..."

"Let me go..." The dense smell of a man entered her nose, and Ariel's face reddened. After that, she struggled half-heartedly, but could not pry Leon's hands away.

"Nonsense! How could you just bear with this? You should be treated!" Leon's expression darkened as he forcefully picked Ariel up. Ariel gasped as they headed to the sofa.

"W-what are you doing? L-let me go!" Ariel's face reddened, and her heart started beating erratically.
