

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1731-1740

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1731

"What? So you added blood sage and motherworts inside!" Leon was shocked. After that, he pinched up a bit of the Deadly Veratrum poison on his body to observe it, quickly seeing that there was added blood sage and motherworts.

Veratrum poison had Veratrum inside, it was something that both reacted against and enhanced the sage.

With the blood sage working with the Veratrum and against it, it can quickly trigger the poison within the Veratrum poison!

As for the motherwort, it was quite a rare and valuable spiritual herb. It was also a dark and cold herb.

If used in medicine, it was an amazing herb that could save the lives of many!

However, when applied to poison, the motherwort was able to increase the poisonous properties of the Veratrum poison tenfold, causing the blood to choke up the body, becoming fatal!

"How did you know I added motherwort and blood sage?" Crowley was shocked.

The Libertons were medical suppliers, so he knew many of his products like the back of his hand!

Ever since he obtained the recipe for the Veratrum poison, he researched it carefully for two years, and only found out not too long ago that adding blood sage and motherworts could greatly increase the effectiveness of the Veratrum poison, causing it to be a fatal one!

On top of that, since two additional ingredients were added to make it so potent, he called it the Deadly Veratrum poison!

In the end, the Deadly Veratrum poison was something he made by enhancing Veratrum poison. He only created it not too long ago, and it was his first time using it. He could not figure out how Leon managed to figure out he added motherwort and blood sage instantly!

It far exceeded his expectations!

"Brat, I don't care how you found out! Now that you've already been hit by the poison, there's no cure for you! Just quietly wait for death!" Crowley said in a cold and sinister voice, feeling incredibly happy!

Motherworts were a very rare and valuable herb. It was something highly sought after, and the Libertons only managed to obtain it half a year ago after much effort!

Since it was so valuable, and he failed a few times during his research, he only managed to make two bags of the Deadly Veratrum poison!

It was precisely because he had very little of it, on top of the fact that he assumed that he would easily be able to get rid of Leon and the Scammells, that he did not use it against Leon for so long!

On top of that, poison was taboo in the martial world. It was something many of the righteous ancient martial arts families regarded as despicable and sinister!

Anyone who used poison against others could easily attract the animosity of the other ancient martial arts.

families.

Even the Dragon Corps restricted its usage!

So, the Deadly Veratrum poison was just a trump card he held that he did not dare to use so easily!

It was because he was backed into a corner that he used the Deadly Veratrum poison against Leon out of desperation!

As long as he could get rid of Leon, then the Scammells were nothing to be afraid of!

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1732

"Leo, are you alright?"

Iris and Cynthia were shocked to hear that Leon was poisoned. After that, they quickly rushed over with Benedict and the rest, wanting to check on Leon.

"Iris, don't touch him. Leon has quite a lot of poison on his body, you shouldn't touch him," Gilbert said in a hurry, worried that Iris and Cynthia would accidentally get poisoned by Leon a panic.

"Mister Young, it's fine. The motherwort is an incredibly cold herb. Under the sunlight, it'll stop working in a minute or two. This powder is no longer poisonous, don't worry," Loen explained simply.

The Deadly Veratrum poison was able to achieve its fatal effect mainly thanks to the motherwort.

As long as the motherwort was no longer effective, it was no longer a big problem.

"That's good!"

Gilbert, Benedict, and the others breathed a sigh of relief.

However, they could not help but worry about the fact that Leon was poisoned, and did not know what to do.

Iris and Cynthia in particular were about to cry, "Leon, h-how are you right now? Is there no cure for the Deadly Veratrum poison?"

"I'm fine! Don't worry, an insignificant poison like this won't do anything to me! You don't have to worry at all!" Leon consoled with a smile. However, he could not help but feel like the situation was serious!

Even though he already sealed the circulation to his heart and around his shoulder, the motherwort was still slowly dispersing the poison into his body!

If he did not treat it in time, then the poison would penetrate his organs in three to five hours!

If that happened, then nothing could save him!

With that in mind, he leaned over and sneakily used the Ghost Point technique. He hit the pressure points around his shoulder, trying to divert the poison to his Expulsion Point and guide it out of his body.

Of course, he knew that Crowley and his men had their eyes on him. He would not be able to do it so calmly.

He deliberately tried to hide his actions to prevent any notice!

At the same time, Fergus' injuries got better. After that he and Wade, along with the experts from the Libertons, stood behind Crowley again.

They faced Patrick and Leon, and both sides looked incredibly imposing!

"Brat, you're still being stubborn in the face of death! I don't mind telling you, but both the Veratrum poison and the Deadly Veratrum poisons do not have any antidotes! Even I can't cure them, so I wonder where you got the courage to say all of that!" Crowley mocked without any reservation, not noticing what Leon was doing at all. However, Leon was already poisoned. As long as he fought or used his energy, the poison would spread even further. It was their best chance to get rid of Leon! After that, he waved his hand and issued the order to attack. They needed to take the chance to get rid of Leon and the Scammells to prevent any future troubles!

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1733

"Who said that there is no cure for the Veratrum poison and the Deadly Veratrum poison? Others might not be able to cure it, but it's incredibly easy for me to do that!" Leon said calmly.

He was at an incredibly important point in reversing the poison. He just needed to stall for as much time as possible!

"Brat, you sure can brag! Who do you think you are, to be able to cure the Veratrum poison?!" Crowley laughed in an exaggerated manner.

The Veratrum poison was ancient, and it was amazing because there was no cure for it!

An insignificant young man like Leon wanting to cure the poison was just completely delusional!

"You'll know very soon if I'm bragging or not! Uncle, come over and let that old dog see if I have the ability to cure it or not!" Leon sneered before motioning for Damian to walk over.

"Damian's legs have been healed? H—how is this possible?!" Seeing Damian walk over without any problems, Crowley was shocked. His jaw almost dropped to the ground!

Damian's legs slowly got crippled after getting poisoned by the Veratrum poisons, he knew about that!

Half a month ago, Damian was confined to a wheelchair.

Yet, he never expected Damian's legs to have already been healed in just that short amount of time!

That meant the Veratrum poison in Damian's body was cured.

It was obvious how shocked he was!

"There's nothing impossible about it! Old dog, I bet you never expected me to be lucky enough to meet Leon! Let me tell you, Leon's an amazing doctor. No one can compare to him when it comes to medicine. He can even bring back the dead! Others might not be able to cure your poison, but it's not difficult for him at all!" Damian said with a sneer.

"What? That's impossible!" Crowley was completely shocked to hear that!

He never expected that someone as young as Leon was actually a master doctor, and even could cure Veratrum poison!

Veratrum poison was amazing because there was no cure for it. Even he did not know how to cure it despite being the one to administer the poison!

Yet, Leon was able to easily cure it!

"Old dog, have you realized that I wasn't just bragging now?! The Deadly Veratrum poison's attributes are more or less the same as the Veratrum poison, I was easily able to cure the Veratrum poison, so how could Deadly Veratrum poison do anything to me?!" Leon said with a cold smile on his face.

"That-

Crowley was speechless. He was thoroughly stunned. He lost all his earlier pride and bluster!

"Leon, does that mean you're already fine now?"

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1734

"Crowley, he's just trying to scare you! The poison in his body hasn't been cured at all. Don't fall for it!" Fergus suddenly said at that moment.

"What do you mean?" Crowley was taken aback before he turned to look at Fergus.

"Just think about it! If the poison in his body is gone, why would he be standing there and wasting so much time talking to us?!" Fergus said.

"That's right, uncle is right! Dad, the Deadly Veratrum poison is so much more poisonous than Veratrum poison. Even if he's able to cure Veratrum poison, he might not be able to cure Deadly Veratrum poison! On top of that, it's not that easy to cure poison. He hasn't done anything, so how could he cure himself so quickly?!" Wade agreed hurriedly.

"Yes, you're right!" Crowley looked like he just woke up from a dream.

"That's right! Brat, you were just trying to trick me! Everyone, attack! Get rid of them!" Crowley realized something. After that, he wasted no time issuing the order to attack.

"Yes!"

Under Crowley's orders, the experts of the Libertons prepared to attack!

"This is bad!"

Patrick, Benedict, and the others had a sudden change in expression.

Hearing what Fergus and Wade said, they realized as well that Leon was probably not being entirely truthful!

If there were no surprises, the poison in Leon's body was probably not cured yet.

Leon did not have the time to do it!

Other than that, they were only able to stand up to the Libertons just now mostly thanks to Leon's skills, injuring both Fergus and Crowley!

However, with Leon already poisoned and their weaker forces, there was no way they would be able to stand up to the assault from the Libertons!

In other words, they were like fish on the chopping block!

Suddenly, they were no longer just worried about Leon. All of them felt their hearts sink hopelessly!

At that moment, Leon suddenly clutched his chest and spat out a mouthful of black blood!

After his expulsion, most of the poison was already flushed out of his body by Ghost Point, dispersing into the air!

As for some of the remaining poison, he used his spiritual energy to push it out. The black blood was the remaining poison in his body!

With that, the poison in his body was completely cured, and his body was healthy again.

"Brat, you were curing yourself in secret!"

Crowley's expression changed dramatically at that sight, finally understanding that Leon stalled for time to cure himself!

However, he did not know if Leon managed to completely cure himself or not!

"Haha, you're right. I was curing myself! However, it's already too late for you to realize that!"

Leon laughed as he stood up imperiously, looking at a completely different person from earlier!

"Leon, has the poison in your body been completely cured?"

Feeling the change in Leon's body, Benedict, Patrick, and the others looked happy.

The feeling of despair in their hearts was quickly replaced with hope!

"Yes, it's all cured!" Leon said with a nod.

"That's great!"

Patrick, Benedict, and the others were ecstatic. They breathed a sigh of relief.

"Despicable!"

In contrast to the happiness from the other side, Crowley, Wade, and the others felt their hearts sink.

They witnessed Leon's skills just now. He had an intermediate Emperor State defensive treasure. No one on their side was able to face him!

They planned on taking the chance to eliminate Leon and the Scammells while Leon was injured.

Yet, none of them ever expected that Leon somehow had the skills to quickly cure himself of the Deadly Veratrum poison at the most important moment!

It was a complete miracle!

It was obvious how they felt at that moment!

"Old dog, you dared to use such a sinister trick as poisoning me. You're completely despicable! It's time for us to settle the score!" Leon looked at Crowley with a sharp gaze as he said coldly.

"Brat, don't be so arrogant! We failed to kill you with the poison, but that's just because you got lucky! You won't be so lucky after this!" Crowley bit back.

“What a joke! If you think you can then come on and try. I want to see what the Libertons can do today!” Leon smiled coldly as he looked at Crowley in disdain.

“Alright, you asked for it! Attack! Kill this guy no matter what!” Crowley waved and motioned for his men to attack.

Even though Leon was skilled and had an amazing defensive treasure, they still had the numbers advantage!

When it came to numbers, they were far in the majority!

It was hard to tell who would win in the end!

With Crowley’s order, the experts from the Libertons started to launch all their attacks right at Leon.

“Leon, we’ll help you!” Patrick waved and prepared to send the Scammells over to help Leon deal with the Libertons!

“No need! Grandfather, help me protect Iris and the others. Just leave all of them to me!” Leon said.

He had the Mirror of Sovereign with him. There was no way anyone from the Libertons could break through his defenses.

It was impossible for him to lose. He did not need any help.

Furthermore, after the battle just now, over half of the experts from the Scammells sustained some injuries.

It was better for them to stay back and keep Iris, Cynthia, and the others safe so the Libertons would not be able to take advantage!

alright then,” Patrick hesitated for a moment before he agreed. However, he, Benedict, and the others looked worried.

After all, the Libertons had around forty to fifty men on their side. Leon wanting to deal with so many himself would not be easy!

There were quite concerned that Leon would not be able to win!

However, with things as they were, they were forced to put their hopes on Leon!

There was no other choice!

“Get lost! I’ll kill anyone who gets in my way!” Without the need to worry about anything else, Leon let out a cold shout as he charged forward, going straight for the Libertons.

“You ignorant buffoon! No matter how powerful your treasure is, it’s just an accessory! You plan on going against us with a single treasure. How idiotic!” Crowley let out a sinister laugh, and there was a glint in his eyes.

He knew that most treasures were limited in use. Most treasures could only be used three times at most!

Earlier, he struck Leon once. If there were no surprises, the treasure on Leon’s body would be able to last two more times at most!

As long as his family’s experts could use up those two times, Leon’s true abilities were only at the Semi Emperor State. It would be very easy for the Libertons to get rid of him!

Of course, it was not just him. Fergus and Wade thought that way as well!

None of them thought that Leon’s treasure would be able to protect Leon an unlimited number of times.

That would not make sense!

However, before they could even finish the thought, something that shocked them happened!

After several intense clashes, Leon decided to ignore defense, since he had the Mirror of Sovereign. He focused on attacking everywhere.

Like a thunderous war god, he struck out at the Libertons, and no one seemed to be a match for him!

In just a moment, around seven or eight of the experts were sent to the ground, losing the ability to fight!

They thought that Leon's defensive artifact would have three uses at most!

Yet, even after Leon suffered several blows, he did not seem injured at all!

It completely went against their knowledge of treasures!

It was obvious how shocked they were!

"Dad, what do we do now? This guy's treasure is just too strange. It seems limitless in use! If this continues, we'll lose!" Wade said frantically, his heart completely sank.

Leon's Emperor State treasure was able to defend against attacks at the intermediate Emperor State and below. On top of that, it was limitless in use. There did not seem to be a way to defeat him!

The experts from the Libertons could not even get through Leon's defenses. It was pointless no matter how many men they had!

"Libertons, listen here. Retreat!" Crowley immediately decided to retreat.

With his order, the Libertons started to quickly run back to Crowley with looks of fear on their faces.

Taking the chance, Leon pursued his opponents, taking down a few more before he stopped.

"Old dog, it's your turn now! Prepare to die!" Leon sneered as he pointed at Crowley.

After that, he shot forward, rearing his fist with immense force as he started to charge toward Crowley.

"Brat, don't be so pleased with yourself! Let me show you the might of our family! Everyone, work together against him!" Crowley shouted coldly, unleashing his true energy.

Right

after that, Fergus and Wade, alongside the other experts, started to bring out their true energy. All of the energy condensed into an incredibly powerful attack and shot right at Leon!

With Crowley at the intermediate Emperor State and Fergus and the initial Emperor State, the power of the attack condensed by all the Libertons was at least at the advanced Emperor State. It was not far away from a peak Emperor State attack!

It was already their final option!

If that attack was not able to do anything to Leon, then the Libertons would just have to wait for their fate!

“What a strong attack!”

“Leon, fall back!”

Looking at that, Benedict, Patrick, and the others were shocked. They hurriedly shouted out to Leon.

“Not good.” Leon’s expression changed.

He already felt the immense power behind that attack. It was at least an attack at the advanced Emperor State, or even stronger. It was not something the Mirror of Sovereign could take on!

He did not dare to delay things for a single moment as he rolled aside.

At the same time, there was a massive explosion. There was a crater about half a meter deep right where Leon sent, and dust was flying all over the place!

Thankfully, Leon avoided the attack in time, barely managing to save himself from being struck!

However, his chest was still hit by the shockwaves. His face and body covered in dirt as well.

It made him look to be in a bad state!

“Very good!”

Seeing Leon in that state, Crowley and the Libertons were immediately incredibly spirited. All of them smiled!

Leon’s abilities were just too surprising. He even had an Emperor State treasure to protect him.

Earlier, they suffered under Leon every time, so they were already incredibly frustrated!

However, the tides seem to have turned. The Libertons finally managed to get Leon in a bad state!

It was obvious how happy they were at that moment!

“Brat, take another attack!” Crowley laughed coldly as he unleashed his true energy again.

Fergus and the others did the same thing as well, condensing a second attack to hit Leon!

“Despicable!”

Leon had a dark look on his face, but there was nothing he could do.

Right after that, he rolled on the ground, avoiding the attack from the Libertons before he quickly rushed at Crowley and the others.

As long as he could get close, then his opponents would not get to work together.

Even though the attack was incredibly strong, they still had to gather their true energy together, so it was not a very quick attack.

With Leon dodging, it was hard for them to hit Leon, so they stared as Leon got closer.

The moment Leon got to them, then they would be the ones suffering!

“This guy is so hard to deal with! Everyone, start to target the Scammells. Let’s see how he dodges that.”

Crowley had an idea at the most important moment and decided to switch his aim to Patrick, Iris, and the ideas, using them against Leon!

Boom!

The next moment, the Libertons condensed an incredibly strong attack and shot it at Patrick, Iris and the

without a moment of hesitation!

“Despicable!”

Leon was furious when he saw that. Fire almost came out of his eyes.

He knew that the attack from Crowley and the others was very strong. It was not an attack Patrick and the Scammells could defend against!

Furthermore, there was no way Benedict, Iris, and the others would be able to avoid an attack like this!

If Crowley and the others managed to land that attack, then the results would be disastrous!

With that in mind, he did not hesitate at all to rush over, using his Mirror of Sovereign to block the attack.

“Leon, no!”

Iris and Cynthia felt like they were struck by lightning when they saw Leon using his own body to block that incredibly strong attack. They paled and almost cried.

Benedict, Patrick, and the others were also horrified. They could only stare as Leon rushed to face that attack, but they could do nothing about it! [1]

Bang! Leon was sent flying six meters back after a loud crash, falling toward the Scammells and slamming onto the ground.

When he felt it, Leon spat out two mouthfuls of blood. There was intense pain in his chest, and at least two or three ribs were broken. 1

However, it was fortunate that the defensive capabilities of the Mirror of Sovereign were very strong. It could not only guarantee that Leon was able to block an attack that was a level higher than his strength, but even if it exceeded that, the mirror was able to hold back a large part of the attack.

With the protection of the mirror, he was not too heavily injured.

That was already incredibly fortunate!

“Leon, how are you? Are you alright?”

Iris and the other girls were in complete panic as they hurried over to help Leon up.

The others were the same as well. They walked forward and looked at Leon with worry, clearly concerned about Leon’s condition. (1

“I’m fine, I just suffered some internal injuries. It’s nothing too bad,” Leon forced out a smile as he spoke, wanting to make sure they did not worry.

“That’s good!”

All of them let out sighs of relief.

“We’ve finally broken through his defense! This is great!”

As opposed to how downcast the Scammells and the others were, the Libertons looked incredibly excited. They started to laugh in happiness!

“Leon, has the poison in your body been completely cured?”

Feeling the change in Leon’s body, Benedict, Patrick, and the others looked happy.

With Leon dodging, it was hard for them to hit Leon, so they stared as Leon got closer.

The moment Leon got to them, then they would be the ones suffering!

“This guy is so hard to deal with! Everyone, start to target the Scammells. Let’s see how he dodges that.”

Crowley had an idea at the most important moment and decided to switch his aim to Patrick, Iris, and the ideas, using them against Leon!

Boom!

The next moment, the Libertons condensed an incredibly strong attack and shot it at Patrick, Iris and the

without a moment of hesitation!

“Despicable!”

Leon was furious when he saw that. Fire almost came out of his eyes.

He knew that the attack from Crowley and the others was very strong. It was not an attack Patrick and the Scammells could defend against!

Furthermore, there was no way Benedict, Iris, and the others would be able to avoid an attack like this!

If Crowley and the others managed to land that attack, then the results would be disastrous!

With that in mind, he did not hesitate at all to rush over, using his Mirror of Sovereign to block the attack.

“Leon, no!”

Iris and Cynthia felt like they were struck by lightning when they saw Leon using his own body to block that incredibly strong attack. They paled and almost cried.

Benedict, Patrick, and the others were also horrified. They could only stare as Leon rushed to face that attack, but they could do nothing about it!

Bang! Leon was sent flying six meters back after a loud crash, falling toward the Scammells and slamming onto the ground.

When he felt it, Leon spat out two mouthfuls of blood. There was intense pain in his chest, and at least two or three ribs were broken. 1

However, it was fortunate that the defensive capabilities of the Mirror of Sovereign were very strong. It could not only guarantee that Leon was able to block an attack that was a level higher than his strength, but even n if it exceeded that, the mirror was able to hold back a large part of the attack.

With the protection of the mirror, he was not too heavily injured.

That was already incredibly fortunate!

“Leon, h–how are you? Are you alright?”

Iris and the other girls were in complete panic as they hurried over to help Leon up.

The others were the same as well. They walked forward and looked at Leon with worry, clearly concerned about Leon’s condition. (1

“I’m fine, I just suffered some internal injuries. It’s nothing too bad,” Leon forced out a smile as he spoke, wanting to make sure they did not worry.

“That’s good!”

All of them let out sighs of relief.

“We’ve finally broken through his defense! This is great!”

As opposed to how downcast the Scammells and the others were, the Libertons looked incredibly excited. They started to laugh in happiness!

Chapter 1/38

They suffered so much from Leon from the start, but were not able to even get through Leon’s defenses!

It started to make them feel a sense of hopelessness!

However, after all their hard work with their joint attacks, Leon was finally injured!

It meant that

Leon's treasure was only at the intermediate Emperor State. It was no longer able to stop their attack!

As long as they kept at it, they would be able to defeat Leon and turn the tables!

It was obvious how happy and excited they were!

“Everyone, continue! Get rid of this brat! I'll make sure to destroy him. Otherwise, I won't be able to get rid of this hatred!” Crowley laughed.

After that, he and the Libertons started to give it their all, preparing to unleash their strongest attack to deal with Leon in one blow!

The Scammells did not have much power, only Leon was difficult to deal with!

As long as they got rid of Leon, Patrick, and the Scammells were not worth being worried about!

“No good! Leon, let's gather up our true energy as well. We'll work together against the Libertons' attack!” Patrick's expression changed dramatically when he saw that they were once again gathering up their power to attack. He hurriedly suggested a plan.

“No, it's useless! We have too few on our side. Even if we do that, we won't be able to stand up to their attack, “Leon shook his head, rejecting Patrick's proposal.

“That-”

Patrick was speechless.

He knew that Leon was right. There was too big of a difference in strength between both sides.

If they tried to use the same technique, it would be suicide!

“It’s fine! We shouldn’t fight when we’re at a disadvantage! I think we should hurry up and retreat while they’re still gathering up their attack!” Patrick said decisively.

Before that, he thought about protecting Leon and retreating, because he was worried that his forces would not be able to stand up to the Libertons!

Sure enough, he was right!

The Libertons found a way to break through Leon’s protective treasure. If they did not retreat, then death awaited them and Leon!

“That’s right!”

“We should hurry and retreat!”

Benedict, George, and the others said in a hurry.

Crowley and the others needed time to gather their attack, it was not very quick.

As long as they retreated in time, or attacked while they retreated, they still had some hope of getting out!

It was better than waiting there like sitting ducks!

“There’s no need! Grandfather, you don’t have to worry. The Libertons won’t be able to do anything to me! I'll go get rid of them right now!" Leon said coldly as he stepped forward, looking at the Libertons with murderous intent.

"What?"

Everyone was shocked to hear that, unable to believe their ears.

All of them knew that the defensive treasure with Leon was only at the intermediate Emperor State.

Furthermore, they witnessed Leon being injured by the Libertons in one blow just now!

If there were no surprises, Leon would not be able to defeat them without the treasure!

Yet, Leon seemed to have gone crazy. He knew he was no match for them, but was still saying he would defeat them!

Was that not suicide?!

They could not understand where Leon got the courage to say that!

"What an arrogant brat!"

"Even staring death in the face, you're still being stubborn!"

Crowley and the others were immediately angered by Leon's words.

"Old dog, cut the crap! Show me what you have! I'll make sure you feel true hopelessness right now!" Leon said coldly.

He was worried that the Libertons working together to attack would end up injuring Iris and the others, so he did not attack by himself.

Instead, he stood in front of the others alone with his back completely straight, staring down the Libertons.

It was as if he had the aura of a thousand men around him as a sharp and murderous aura rose to the skies!

It was a chilling sight to behold!

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1740

“Alright, you asked for this! Since you want to die so much, we’ll grant you your wish! Go ahead and die!” Crowley said furiously.

Right after that, the Libertons finished gathering the energy for their attack. They quickly launched it forward, and it shot at Leon with imperious might.

“You don’t know your place!” Leon sneered, and the Cuff of Doom appeared in his hand.

After that, he waved and unleashed its might. An incredibly powerful force started to shoot out at the Libertons’ attack!

“Crap, Leon was too reckless this time.”

“We’re done for!”

Patrick, Benedict, and the others looked unhappy.

The Scammells in particular all failed to notice that Leon held the Cuff of Doom since Leon stained it gold!

All they knew was that Leon was practically asking to die with this attack!

Suddenly, their hearts collectively sank!

The Libertons were completely different. All of them sneered as they looked at Leon like he was a dead man!

Their attack this time was even stronger than the one that hurt Leon before. It even exceeded the advanced Emperor State, and was practically on the level of the peak Emperor State!

It would be able to handle Leon easily!

They did not think that Leon could stand up to such a strong attack at all!

However, before they could even smile, something that shocked everyone present save for Leon happened!

Bang!

With a thunderous explosion, the power of the Cuff of Doom clashed with the Libertons' attack!

After Leon's offerings, the Cuff of Doom's spiritual energy already reached the peak of Emperor State. It was also unrivaled at that level!

It was already not far away from the Semi Almighty State!

An attack that strong was not something the Libertons could handle!

Right after that, the Cuff of Doom's power immediately broke through the Libertons' attack, and the remaining power rushed right at the Libertons!

Since Fergus and Crowley were at the helm, they were sent flying, as if they dealt a heavy blow.

After that, all of them spat out mouthfuls of blood. They were all sprawled out on the ground.

As for the experts that were toward the back, they were in a slightly better condition.

All of them paled, having been struck back a few steps by the force.

“H–how is this possible?!”

Benedict, Patrick, and the others were stunned by the sight.

All of their jaws dropped. They could not believe their eyes!

They thought that Leon would not be able to turn the tables. They felt like there was no way he would be able to stand up against the collective attack from the Libertons!

Yet, Not only did Leon manage to do that, he even injured his opponents!

He alone was enough to send Crowley and thirty to forty experts from the Libertons flying!

Was that not unbelievable?!

If they did not witness it for themselves, they would never have believed that it happened!
