

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1741

“I—Impossible! This can't be happening!”

Crowley, Fergus, and the others clutched their chests in pain as they looked at Leon in complete shock and disbelief.

With a few of them working together, the attack was incredibly strong. It was almost at the peak of Emperor

State!

It should have been incredibly easy to get rid of Leon with that attack!

However, they could not understand what happened. They injured Leon by working together just now, so why did the situation suddenly change? They were the ones to be injured instead!

It was just unbelievable!

They found themselves suddenly deep in shock. It was hard for them to accept such a cruel truth!

“Alright, that's amazing! Leon, you're just amazing!”

“This is a miracle!”

When Patrick, Benedict, and the others went wild when they recovered from their shock. They were incredibly excited.

It seemed that the situation was all over for them!

Yet, Leon managed to completely turn the tables by himself. It was a miracle!

It immediately caused their emotions to surge!

Only then did they understand that Leon told the truth when he said he would eliminate the Libertons. He did not run his mouth!

They underestimated Leon, and looked down on Leon too much!

“How did this happen?”

As opposed to how happy and excited the side of the Scammells were, the Libertons looked incredibly ashen!

That collaborative attack was the final trump card for the Libertons!

Their most powerful attack did nothing against Leon. What waited for them was death!

Crowley, Fergus, and Wade faced the attack from the Cuff of Doom head—on just now. Many of their bones broke. They even lost the strength to struggle!

At that moment, they could not help but fall into complete darkness and despair!

“It’s time for us to settle the score!” Leon said coldly as he walked toward Crowley, Fergus, and Wade.

Every step he took was like a hammer right onto their hearts!

Don’t come closer!” The three of them said fearfully, struggling to get up.

However, they were just too heavily injured. They did not even have the strength to stand up!

“What do you think? Since ancient times, we’ve never involved innocent kin in conflicts. The Libertons have gone against righteousness, and have employed evil and despicable methods! I’ll send the three of you to hell. You’ll be joining Willie!” Leon said coldly with a murderous look in his eyes.

“No!”

The three of them were completely frightened.

Even ants treasured their lives, let alone humans!

Furthermore, the Libertons were rich and powerful. They still had many moments of luxury to enjoy. They naturally did not want to die!

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1742

“Leon, forget about it! Life is something to be treasured. You should just cripple their power. Spare their lives.”

Patrick hurried over when he saw that Leon was prepared to kill the three of them.

The Scammells had deep grudges against the Libertons, and Damian even almost died thanks to Crowley poisoning him.

He hated Crowley to the core, and wanted nothing more than to kill Crowley!

However, he was still apprehensive thanks to the Dragon Corps.

The Dragon Corps maintained law and order in the martial world. It rarely interfered with any personal grudges, but they were very against taking any lives!

It was one thing for Leon to kill Willie just now.

An insignificant piece of trash like Willie could be somewhat ignored. The Dragon Corps would not force themselves into the matter.

However, If Leon decided to slaughter the others, then it would be different.

It could very well end up alerting the Dragon Corps. It would not be good for Leon!

“That-”

Leon hesitated for a moment.

He was part of the Platinum Dragon Guard, and the three Libertons did so much evil. Even if he killed the three of them, the Dragon Corps would probably not press the matter.

However, he was not usually someone that ruthless. He did not have the habit of killing others.

If he killed the three Libertons like that, it might end up harming his character.

“Old dog, I guess you’re lucky today! Because life is precious, I’ll spare your lives!”

Leon scoffed before he sent out a few kicks, landing right at the Energy Points of the three Libertons, crippling their power.

“Ah!”

The three of them let out cries of agony. They looked like deflated balloons as they slumped on the ground. It was as if they suddenly aged a few decades.

Of course, Leon only crippled their strength this time and did not kill them. It was already quite merciful.

It was better to be alive than to have a good death. The fact that they were able to survive was already something to be thankful for!

“Leon, he might still have some poison with him. I’ll go check so he won’t harm anyone in the future!” As Patrick said that, he checked Crowley’s body and quickly found the last bag of Deadly Veratrum poison, and even the recipe.

It was the recipe for the Deadly Veratrum poison!

Without the recipe, as well as the fact that Motherwort was so incredibly rare and valuable, Crowley would never have the ability to use it for evil ever again!

“Leon, these aren’t of any use for the Scammells. You should take them,” Patrick handed the bag of Deadly Veratrum poison and the recipe to Leon.

“Yes, alright,” Leon talked about it and accepted it.

In the martial world, using poison was an incredibly despicable method that could very well earn you the animosity of the ancient martial arts families.

He did not plan on harming anyone with that poison.

However, the Deadly Veratrum poison was very potent. It was practically incurable!

If he met any of the evildoers from the Criminal list in the future, he could use it to attack them!

That was one more trump card in his hand!

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1743

At that moment, Damian quickly led the experts from the Scammells over, capturing the experts from the Libertons.

Even though those experts were not heavily injured, Crowley, Fergus, and Wade already had their strength taken away. On top of that, Leon was just too strong, so the battle was already decided.

All of them looked incredibly distraught. No one dared to fight back in case they risked angering Leon and the Scammells!

“Leon, what do we do with these Libertons?” Damian asked.

“For what happened this time, the direct descendants and the elders of the Libertons were the main culprits. Cripple their strength and exile them from the Southern Region! As for the others, give them three days to sell their assets and leave the Southern Region. They're never to return!” Leon said coldly.

Blame should be assigned to those who deserved it.

He knew that most of the experts were just following orders. The Libertons were just a regular ancient martial arts family. They were not some cult of evil.

He merely punished the ones at fault and did not punish everyone too harshly.

It was already incredibly merciful!

“What?”

The experts were all stunned to hear that. They could not believe their ears.

They thought that they would not be able to avoid the fate of having their strength crippled and being kicked out of the Southern Region.

They never expected Leon to be so generous, even allowing them to sell their assets!

It was already an incredible gift!

Suddenly, they felt incredibly emotional!

The next moment, all the experts from the Libertons started to kneel in front of Leon one by one. It made for an impressive sight!

“Thank you, Mister Wolf, for showing us mercy.”

The Libertons all thanked him emotionally.

It was not just them, even Crowley, Fergus and Wade had complicated emotions.

Even though they already hated Leon to the bone for killing Willie, Leon acted in an upright manner, not hurting any innocents. His generosity and demeanor left them quite impressed.

At that moment, they even started to regret going after Leon for the sake of Cyntion Group.

Otherwise, Willie would not have died, and the Libertons would not have fallen so far!

However, it was already too late for any of those regrets!

“Leon, just leave the rest to me and Damian. You were injured just now, go back and rest,” Patrick said with concern.

They quickly walked over.

“Leon, they say that people can change in the blink of an eye, and I guess it’s true! We’ve only parted ways for a month or two, but you’ve already become so strong! It looks like I was right about you!” Benedict lamented with pride and appreciation.

When he first got to know Leon, Leon was only a poor and insignificant man in Springfield City.

After that, with the help of the Shears, Leon established Cynthion Group, and slowly got stronger step by step!

At this point, Leon did not only become the king of Springfield City, he even just toppled an ancient martial arts family in the Southern Region by himself. His skills were unfathomable!

He could not help but be shocked at Leon’s growth!

Of course, it was not just him, the other elders were as well.

Elder Young in particular worked with Gilbert to forcibly split Iris and Leon apart due to a misunderstanding. The Youngs were almost destroyed because of it!

Thankfully, fate was kind. Leon loved Iris deeply, and ended up getting back together with Iris in the end, saving the Youngs!

He was quite thankful that he realized things in time. Otherwise, he would not only have ruined Iris’ happiness, but he would have missed out on such an excellent son-in-law as well!

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1744

“Elder Shear, you’re too kind. I’m just a bit luckier than most!” Leon smiled humbly at Benedict’s praise.

After that, he called for everyone, “Alright, the matter is already settled. Let’s all go home.”

“Wait.”

At that moment, Iris suddenly walked to Patrick. She said with some hesitation, “Grandfather, my paternal grandfather, and my dad have come to the Southern Region to see you.”

As for Gilbert, he was still too embarrassed to see Patrick after what happened with his wife, Priscilla. His head was lowered the whole time, and he did not dare to meet Patrick’s gaze.

“Why are you in the Southern Region?! You’re not welcome here!” Patrick shouted angrily, looking at Gilbert with fire in his eyes.

He pinned the blame for his daughter’s early death all on Gilbert. There was naturally no way he would regard Gilbert kindly at all!

“Elder Scammell, please calm down. The Youngs have been at fault for Priscilla’s early death. This time, I brought Gilbert here to apologize,” Elder Young said sincerely.

Even though Priscilla's illness was not caused by the Youngs, Priscilla still married into their family. They were still somewhat responsible for not taking care of her properly.

"Stupid child, quickly, kneel and apologize to Elder Scammell. Get his forgiveness," Elder Young kicked Gilbert's leg at that.

Gilbert immediately knelt in front of Elder Scammell.

"Father-in-law, I was at fault for Priscilla. I failed to take care of her. Please forgive me," Gilbert apologized.

11

"Impossible! Gilbert, you don't have to act so fake. I don't care about you! It's already over between the Scammells and the Youngs. Don't appear in front of me anymore. I don't want to see you ever again!" Patrick shouted angrily.

In truth, he knew that his daughter was just unfortunate with her health and that Gilbert was not entirely responsible for it.

However, Gilbert never came to the family to apologize after his daughter's death and never brought Iris over before.

Gilbert's avoidance and his lack of responsibility was the real reason he was angry!

Almost twenty years passed since the incident, and his anger for Gilbert festered more and more. There was no way he would forgive Gilbert that easily!

“Elder Scammell, Gilbert is at fault for this. Please, just give him a chance to make up for it for Iris’s sake!” Elder Young hurriedly pleaded sincerely, hoping to resolve things between the Scammells and the Youngs.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1745

“Elder Young, you don’t have to speak up for him! A true man has certain ways he should act! If it wasn’t for Iris, I would have properly taught him a lesson today for the sake of my departed daughter! In the end, the matter is already in the past. My daughter’s life was short, and I don’t want to blame him or the Youngs for that. However, I won’t forgive him for being so cowardly and irresponsible!” Patrick said coldly.

After that, he turned around and ignored Elder Young and Gilbert, angrily walking toward Damian and the rest of the Scammells.

“Elder Scammell!” Elder Young opened his mouth but did not know what to say. All he could do was watch as Patrick angrily walked away.

“Dad, he’s not willing to forgive me. What do we do now?” Gilbert said.

“What else can we do? From tomorrow onwards, kneel in front of the Scammell household and repent until Elder Scammell is willing to forgive you!” Elder Young said.

He knew that Gilbert was at fault for it, and was completely irresponsible!

As long as Gilbert was more sincere and was willing to show his regret, then he felt like Patrick would probably forgive Gilbert for Iris’s sake.

“What? But, what do I do if he refuses to forgive me?” Gilbert’s expression soured at that.

“That won’t happen! As long as you’re sincere enough, I’ll have Iris and Leon put in a few good words for you. Once Elder Young’s anger cools down, he’ll probably not make things too hard for you. In the end, you’re the one who’s at fault here. You have to do your best and try whether or not you obtain their forgiveness in the end!” Elder Young said coldly.

After that, Leon and the others went back home while Patrick and the Scammells stayed back to deal with things.

In the next few days, since the Scammells and the Libertons had both been medical suppliers, most of the Liberton assets were sold to the Scammells.

The Scammells managed to get quite a few valuable materials from the warehouses of the Libertons.

They handed the more valuable ones to Leon. On top of the materials that Benedict brought from Springfield City, the materials were more than enough to fulfill Cynthion Group’s needs!

After getting enough materials, Leon used the one to two-hundred-year materials to make tens of thousands of first and second-grade Energy Nurturing Pills.

After that, they started to sell it through both the branch companies under Cynthion Group, temporarily solving the supply issue.

As for the materials that were above three hundred years and five hundred years, Leon stored them for a rainy day, planning on using them for the second sales drive of Cynthion Group.

On the other hand, Leon used a third of the Angel Fruit in the next few days to help repair Elder Young's crippled Energy Point, recovering Elder Young's power.

As for Ruth's leg, she quickly started to recover under Leon's expert care. She would probably completely recover soon.

Other than that, Gilbert knelt in front of the Scammell household for three days to express his sincerity under Elder Young's instruction.

On top of that, Iris and Leon put in many good words for Gilbert, causing Patrick and the others to calm down much more.

After that, for Leon and Iris' sake, Patrick forced himself to forgive Gilbert, but he was still not very kind to Gilbert.

Nonetheless, Gilbert was already satisfied with forgiveness. He did not dare to ask for more.

With that, the problem that accumulated between the two families for so many years was finally settled.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1746

During the morning, since Elder Young already regained his strength and Gilbert already gained the forgiveness of the Scammells, both of them accomplished their goals.

The two of them, alongside Benedict and the others, bid their farewells to Leon before getting ready to leave the Southern Region and go back to Springfield City.

In the courtyard and the villa, Leon, Iris, and the others were all present, alongside those from Springfield City as well. Everyone was saying their final goodbyes.

Iris, Cynthia, and the other girls all had reddened eyes at the fact that their elders were leaving. They felt a bit reluctant and sad to part.

“Ruth, it’s just too dangerous staying in the Southern Region. Why don’t you come back with me to Springfield City?” George said after some hesitation.

Even though he hoped that Ruth would be able to stay by Leon’s side to learn and train so she could lead the Collins to greater heights in the future, Willie breaking Ruth’s leg gave him quite a shock.

He realized that the Southern Region was full of impressive figures. The various ancient martial arts families around here made the place much more dangerous than Springfield City!

For the sake of Ruth’s safety, he could not help but want to bring Ruth back.

After that, before she could even say anything, Leon stepped forward to speak.

“Elder Collins is right! Ruth, you’re already almost at the Semi-Overlord State. You aren’t far from reaching the Overlord State! I feel like you can go back to Springfield City with Elder Collins. There’s no reason to stay here and suffer with us,” Leon hurriedly agreed.

Initially, George and he reached an agreement to help Ruth get to the Overlord State within three years. That was the main reason why he was willing to bring Ruth with him to the Southern Region.

Ruth was already almost at the Overlord State, and he taught Ruth the other half of the Mysterious Maiden Method.

As long as Ruth worked hard and trained, she would be able to get to the Overlord State before too long!

Then, he would have fulfilled his promise to George!

“No, I’m not going back! Stupid Leon, are you trying to chase me away because you don’t like me?” Ruth glared at Leon angrily as she said.

“It’s not that!”

Leon’s face darkened before he said, “I just don’t want a princess like you to suffer in the Southern Region with me.”

“Oh? Is that so? Then why aren’t you asking Cynthia and Iris to leave? Why does it have to be me?!” Ruth said in annoyance.

“That-”

Leon found himself a bit speechless.

Iris was his girlfriend, so she naturally needed to be by his side.

As for Cynthia, there was no way she would be willing to go back!

“Iris and Cynthia are different! How about this, why don’t I have Snow go back with you to Springfield City?” Leon said after some thought.

“What?” Snow did not expect to get pulled into this, and she felt incredibly annoyed.

“Leon, are you trying to kick me out with Ruth because you find me to be an annoyance?” Snow immediately glared at Leon.

“I’m not trying to chase you away, I’m just doing this for your sake!” Leon said. He wanted to explain things, but Ruth interrupted him before he could even start.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1747

“I don’t care if you’re doing this for our sake! In the end, if we’re going to leave, then we’ll all leave together. If you and Iris aren’t going back to Springfield City, then I definitely won’t!” Ruth said with a firm expression.

Leon had that amazing Spiritual Pearl that could greatly increase the speed of a martial artist’s training

With her incredible talent in martial arts and her fanatic love for training, there was no way she would leave

Leon’s side!

Furthermore, after being with each other for so long, she already felt very close to Iris, Leon, and the others. She already got used to living there, and she did not want to leave.

“Why would you do that?” Leon sighed at Ruth’s resolve, but there was nothing she could do.

“Ruth, are you not coming back to Springfield City with me?” George asked again.

“Yes, I don’t want to go back for now! Grandfather, I know you’re just worried about my safety here. Don’t worry, Leon is very strong. With him protecting us, we’ll all be fine!” Ruth consoled.

“Alright then!” George hesitated for a moment but agreed in the end.

After what happened with the Libertons, he already witnessed Leon’s immense skills. It would not be too hard for Leon to protect Ruth and the others.

He felt like Ruth’s leg being broken by Willie must have just been an accident.

There was no need for him to force Ruth back for something so minor.

Since Ruth did not want to leave, he would respect Ruth’s choice.

“Snow, what about you? Are you planning on staying in the Southern Region, or will you come back with me?”

At that moment, Vincent suddenly asked.

“I don’t want to go back either!” Snow shook her head and said.

She knew that her father was quite worried about her getting married in recent times. If she went back to Springfield City with him, she would be constantly pestered to get married!

Rather than being subjected to that, she decided to stay in the Southern Region instead. At least, she would be able to spare herself some nagging.

“It’s not like you can stay in the Southern Region, but you need to hurry up and find a boyfriend,” Vincent immediately saw through Snow’s thoughts. He was prepared to continue nagging, but he suddenly seemed to think about something.

After that, he turned to look at Leon and asked with some expectation, “Mister Wolf, I asked you to help Snow find a boyfriend before. Has there been any interest for her?”

“Yes, there has! The heir of the Thompsons, Yuri, seems to be-”

Leon wanted to continue talking about Yuri when he suddenly felt an incredibly cold wave of murderous intent coming from behind him!

He turned back and immediately met Snow’s ice-cold gaze. There was an incredibly threatening look on her!

He could not help but shudder and swallow his words!

“Seems to be what? Mister Wolf, why aren’t you continuing?” Vincent said in confusion.

“Oh, it’s nothing. I just wanted to say that there are a lot of excellent young men in the Southern Region, but Snow’s beauty is not something any one normal can match up to! If there’s the chance, I’ll do my best to help her find an amazing boyfriend,” Leon said with a dry laugh.

“Alright then, I’ll have to trouble you for that,” Vincent nodded, not noticing anything odd about Leon.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1748

“Alright, it’s getting late, we should take our leave! Leon, we’ll leave Cynthia and the others to you. I hope you’ll pay some more attention to them when you’re free. Make sure to protect them properly,” Benedict did not forget a few parting words.

“Yes, we’ll leave Snow and Ruth to you,” Vincent and George agreed.

“Yes, Elder Shear, don’t worry. I’ll protect them well!” Leon promised seriously, but he could not help but feel some pressure.

After Charlie tried to manipulate the second line of the Scammells, he found out that the Southern Boss had his eyes on Cynthia Group and the Energy Nurturing Pills.

With the power and influence of the Southern Boss, he was Leon's biggest enemy!

Earlier, he asked Snow and Ruth to go back to Springfield City because he wanted to protect the two of them. He did not want them to end up getting dragged into this.

However, Snow and Ruth seemed adamant against leaving, so there was nothing he could do!

Of course, he was still part of the Platinum Dragon Guard now, so he was not someone to be trifled with!

If it was just the Southern Boss, it was still not enough to scare him!

Since Snow and Ruth did not want to leave, then it was fine. He would not force them.

After that, Benedict and the others drove off under the gazes of Leon, Iris, and the others.

"Iris, I have something to give all of you," Leon suddenly thought of something once they had left. After that, he took out four intricately made little boxes and gave them to the four girls.

The small boxes were only the size of a thumb. The material seemed nothing like wood or metal. It had a small little hole the size of a needle in front.

"Leon, what is this?" Iris and the others were incredibly curious at the sight of the boxes.

“This is a mechanical box. Two needles inside each box have had Deadly Veratrum poison applied to them. They are fatal if they stab anyone,” Leon explained.

After obtaining the Deadly Veratrum poison and the recipe from Crowley, he felt like it was not realistic to mass produce the poison since motherwort was so rare! Furthermore, there was only one bag of Deadly Veratrum poison. It would not be that useful if he could only use it once!

To make sure it was as useful as possible, he had a sudden thought. He used a special method to dissolve the poison into liquid, coating them over dozens of needles!

Those needles became incredibly terrifying hidden weapons!

Compared to the Deadly Veratrum poison’s original application, the needles were much more amazing!

However, the only thing that was lacking was the fact that the Deadly Veratrum poison was more powerful.

As long as anyone smelled it, they would be poisoned. So it could kill without any signs!

Meanwhile, the needles needed to hit the enemy for it to be fatal!

Both had their merits!

“What? So there are poisonous needles inside!” Iris and the others were shocked to hear that.

They knew how potent and poisonous the Deadly Veratrum poison was. No one expected that Leon would put it into a hidden weapon.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1749

Chapter 1749

“I’ve made these for the sake of your protection. If you meet any danger, you can use the needles against your enemies,” Leon said, handing them to the girls.

The powerful invited more enemies. Since Cynthion Group’s Energy Nurturing Pills were incredibly well known and important, they would easily invite the attention of others!

Since he was strong and had many trump cards, he was not afraid of any one else!

However, the four girls were his greatest weakness!

With the poison needles to protect them, he would be able to relax.

“Leon, we’re just too weak. We’ve been burdens for you,” Iris and the others were very touched.

For the sake of their safety, Leon forced carved out the Potential Energy Forces for them before preparing the poison needles for them as well!

All of them saw what Leon did for them, and know that Leon was working hard for them!

Ruth and Snow in particular finally understood that Leon wanted them t

leave for Springfield City because he was worried about their safety. He did not try to chase them away!

They misunderstood Leon's intentions.

"Iris, we're all family here! There are no burdens. Honestly, I'm the one who has made things hard for all of you," Leon sighed and said.

He knew very well that most of the problems were aimed at him and Cynthion Group. The girls were pulled into it because of their relationship with him.

However, life was never meant to be smooth. If he wanted to grow and develop, then he would encounter many difficulties on the way!

The only thing he could do was to get as strong as possible as quickly as he could. That way, he would be able to protect his friends and family!

"Please, who's part of your family?!"

"Dream on!"

"Iris and Cynthia might be family to you, but we aren't--"

Snow and Ruth's faces reddened at that, as they spat back at Leon.

"I just misspoke!" Leon laughed dryly, realizing what he said.

"Alright, it's getting late. Let's head to the company," Iris changed the topic.

The past few days, Iris, Leon, and the others did not get many chances to go to the company since Elder Young and the others were around. On top of that, Leon was busy making pills.

Since everything was already done, they decided to put their attention on work!

After that, Leon, Iris, and Snow drove over to Elegante while Cynthia and Ruth went to Cynthion Group. The division of work was clear.

At Elegante, Leon, Iris, and Snow met Roanne the moment they entered the company.

Since Leon and the others were not frequenting the company the past few days, Roanne dealt with most of the company matters.

Even though Roanne was not versed in business, Elegante was just established in the Southern Region. They did not officially start a business just yet.

The main goal of the company at that moment was manufacturing cosmetics for stock. They did not have any important clients or business meetings.

Roanne was focused on keeping operations going and collecting data. So, she was able to manage things.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1750

Chapter 1750

“Leon, Iris, Snow, you’re all here!” Roanne happily ran over when she saw the three of them.

“Roanne, it must have been hard for you the past few days, “Leon said with a smile.

“It wasn’t. I didn’t do much. It’s just that, I was bored because all of you haven’t been around,” Roanne said with a cheeky smile.

After they exchanged some pleasantries, Iris could not help but ask, “Roanne, what’s been going on with the production of the cosmetics?”

“Oh, the production has been going quite smoothly. The targets you and Leon set earlier have almost all been reached,” Roanne said simply. She then picked up a production report and handed it to Iris.

“Oh, alright,” Iris had a pleased smile on her face after she flipped through it.

“Leon, we’re ready for everything! Now that the cosmetics have already been produced, we just need to hurry up and find a distributor to work with. We have to break into the market in the Southern Region,” Iris said after some thought.

There were two ways a cosmetics company like Elegante did business.

The first was to work with a large distributor, like what they did with the Wicks in Springfield City. That was the main method of driving sales.

The other was working with some smaller merchants, including commissioned sales or online sales. They could sell their products through online platforms. That was the secondary way of marketing their products.

Both ways could exist together, and there was no conflict!

If Elegante wanted to quickly break into the Southern Region’s market, they needed to quickly find a suitable distributor to work with them. Then, the company would be able to easily meet its sales targets!

However, most of the time, the major families were in control of such channels.

She and Leon were not in the Southern Region for that long, so they did not have any foundations or power.

It would not be easy for them to work with a large distributor!

“Yes, that’s right,” Leon nodded. After that, he was about to say something. However, Roanne interrupted him before he could.

“Iris, you don’t have to worry! It’s about the sales, my father’s already made arrangements!” Roanne said. with a smile.

“What? Roanne, are you serious?” Leon and Iris were both shocked to hear that.

“Yes, I’m serious! The largest distributors in the Southern Region are the Hughes. My father’s already talked to them. They agreed to work with us,” Roanne explained everything.

Since she was one of the shareholders of Elegante, Angus was always interested in Elegante’s operations.

Considering how Elegante needed to break into the Southern Region’s market, Angus already used his connections to make arrangements.

It was just that Leon and Iris were not in the company the past few days, so the collaboration stalled.

Since Leon and Iris were back, they could head to the Hughes Group to sign the contract at any moment!

“That’s great!” Leon and Iris were ecstatic.

Leon in particular asked Angus to invest in Elegante precisely because he wanted to make use of the connections the Thompsons had!

Sure enough, Angus did not disappoint him!

Before he even needed to say anything, Angus already paved the way for Elegante!
