

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1858-1873

Chapter 1858

Leon did not bother with the long-faced man's mockery. He turned to Lacey and said calmly, "Miss, please lie down. I'll treat you!"

"I-"

Lacey was a bit hesitant and guilty as well.

She knew that her burns were not related to Elegante at all!

Yet, she was helping Leon trick Elegante. Not only was Leon not blaming her for that, but he was also generous enough to agree to treat her!

Suddenly, she found herself feeling incredibly conflicted. She did not know how to face Leon!

"Mister Wolf, you're not a doctor. You don't know medicine! You should just admit defeat now. Stop struggling needlessly! It would just make things worse for you!" the man laughed.

"Who told you I don't know medicine?!" Leon said coldly.

"What? You know medicine?" The long-faced man was shocked to hear that.

It was not just him, the other customers were as well.

It was obvious that not a single one of them expected the chairman of a cosmetics company to know medicine!

"So what if you do? You probably just know a little bit! With your meager skills, there's no way you'd be able to cure Lacey's scars!" The long-faced man laughed after he recovered from his surprise, not being phased at all.

After all, Leon was not an actual doctor. There was no way Leon's skills would be that great!

Furthermore, with Lacey's condition, even actual doctors would not be able to do anything!

“Don’t look down on others so much! I haven’t even started, how do you know I won’t be able to treat her?!”

Leon scoffed.

“You are stubborn! Since you insist on humiliating yourself, I’ll grant you your wish!”

The long-faced man’s face darkened as he said to Lacey, “Lacey, go let him treat you. Let’s see if he can heal your scars!”

“Yes!”

Lacey had no other choice at that point. She was forced to walk to Leon, lowering her head and not daring to meet Leon’s gaze.

Right after that, she quickly lay down in front of Leon.

After that, Leon wasted no time. He took out over a dozen Beauty pills, turning them into powder and rubbing them on Lacey’s scars.

The Beauty pills were one of Cynthion Group’s pills. At the same time, it was made with various valuable herbs. It had a miraculous effect on skin beauty!

Even though they were normal pills that could not help martial artists like the Energy Nurturing Pills, it was still an amazing product for normal folk. It was something women loved in Springfield City.

He used the Beauty pills to treat Lacey’s scars. After that, he started to use the Eternity Compression Method, quickly using his spiritual energy around Lacey’s scars.

Lacey’s scars were caused by burns. The dead skin stopped her circulation and caused the horrifying marks!

However, after so many years of recovering, there were already new cells beneath the scars, which meant that Lacey had a chance!

The Eternity Compression Method was perfect for enhancing all of that.

As long as Leon managed to stimulate the new cells, it would greatly bolster the effects of the Beauty pills.

The scars on Lacey’s face would fall off, and the marks would disappear!

Chapter 1859

"I can't believe Mister Wolf is working with her pressure points like that. He looks like a professional!"

"Everyone, do you think he will be able to cure that woman's scars?"

"I don't know, but she looks like she's already disfigured. It's just a horrifying situation!"

"Even if she went to the best hospital in the Southern Region, she would probably need at least a month or two to heal!"

"It's impossible for Mister Wolf to cure her so quickly!"

Everyone started to talk when they saw that Leon was treating Lacey without any hesitation.

It was obvious that, since Leon was not a professional doctor, they did not think that Leon would be able to cure the scars on Lacey's face!

There was also no way he would be able to cure her so quickly!

It did not sound possible at all!

"That's right! If he's trying to cure such a severe problem with just a few pressure points, he must be dreaming!" the long-faced man said coldly. He was already sure that Leon was just putting on an act, struggling pointlessly!

Before he could even say anything else, something that shocked him and everyone else happened!

"I'm done!"

Leon pulled back and slowly stepped back from Lacey.

Lacey had nothing to do with him, and came with the long-faced man to frame Elegante!

There was no way he would have tried to cure Lacey so carefully and spent so much effort!

He just casually treated her and took away most of the scars and the marks. He recovered most of her looks.

After a long time, with the cells slowly repairing themselves, Lacey's face would recover by itself.

It was because of that, that his treatment was so quick!

"What? You're already done? Did I mishear you?" The long-faced man was shocked. He could not believe his ears.

Of course, he was not the only one who was shocked, the other customers were as well.

They exchanged looks of surprise with each other. None of them could tell if Leon was serious!

"Mister Wolf, what kind of joke is this?! You just pressed a few points, and you're already done? Do you think we're three-year-old kids that you can just fool?!" The long-faced man laughed mockingly after he recovered. He looked at Leon like he was looking at dirt.

"That's right! It's just been about ten minutes. How could you be done?!"

"Mister Wolf, it's not funny at all!"

The other customers started to shake their heads at Leon as well.

Since Lacey still had the Beauty pills on her face, they could not see her.

However, they were certain that, even if Leon was incredibly skilled, there was no way Leon could treat Lacey's scars that easily!

Leon ignored the questioning from everyone else. He looked at Lacey and said calmly, "Miss, you can get rid of the dust on your face now!"

"Oh, okay," Lacey stood up with uncertainty.

Just like everyone else, she did not think Leon cured her face at all!

It was impossible!

However, she still wiped off the Beauty pills from her face.

At that moment, the scars fell with the dust. The marks on her face completely disappeared, and a beautiful face was revealed underneath.

Chapter 1860

“H—how is this possible?!”

The long-faced man and everyone else were stunned when they saw Lacey’s face. They rubbed their eyes in disbelief!

They never would have believed that Leon, who was not even a professional doctor, actually cured Lacey’s face. He only took a few minutes at that!

It was just unbelievable!

If they did not witness it for themselves, they would never have believed it!

The long-faced man in particular knew very well how bad Lacey’s face was.

He could not understand how Leon managed to treat Lacey, and could not accept it either!

“What happened to my face?”

Seeing the strange looks on everyone’s faces, Lacey touched her face.

When she felt the smoothness under her fingers, her heart skipped a beat. She could not help but have a crazy thought in her mind.

Could the scars on her face be cured?

However, she quickly discarded the thought the moment she thought about it.

She knew her condition very well. Leon was not even a doctor, and he did not even spend that much time. There was no way he could cure the scars on her face!

She wondered if everyone was so shocked because Leon made her condition much worse!

“Here!”

Just as her thoughts wandered, Iris took out a mirror and handed it to her, “Look at it yourself!”

“Oh!”

Iris took the mirror and looked. When she saw the beautiful face reflected at her, her eyes widened. She felt like she was struck by lightning, and was completely shocked!

Her hand trembled, and the mirror fell to the ground.

Thankfully, Iris' mirror was not cheap. It would not break that easily.

Right after that, she picked up her mirror again to look at her face.

She saw that the scars and marks on her face completely disappeared. All that was left were some faint marks.

The marks were just pinkish new skin.

It did not affect her looks at all and even gave her a sense of maturity.

That did not affect her at all, and it would recover slowly after this.

"This is amazing! The scars on my face are cured!" Lacey was ecstatic. Tears started to flow from her eyes as she started to cry in happiness.

Beauty was something every woman wanted, and she was no exception.

After her looks were ruined, she saw so many doctors before, but none of them able to cure her!

So, she already lost all hope!

She never would have dreamed that Leon would be able to cure her scars and restore her looks!

It was obvious how happy and emotional she was!

"Wow, Mister Wolf's medical skills are just too amazing!"

"He just pushed a few points, and he managed to cure such serious scars!"

"Isn't that unbelievable?!"

At that moment, everyone finally recovered from their shock.

They started to look at Leon in complete disbelief.

Everyone was in an uproar!

All of them saw the scars and marks on Lacey's face just now. Even if she was sent to the best hospital in the Southern Region, she would have probably needed a month or two to recover!

Yet, at that moment, Leon managed to pull off a miracle. He used a few short minutes to cure the scars and marks on Lacey's face!

It was an absolute miracle!

Suddenly, all of them were deeply shocked by Leon's amazing medical ability!

Chapter 1861

Just as everyone was feeling shocked, Lacey did not even think about it as she knelt in front of Leon.

"Mister Wolf, thank you. Thank you for curing the scars on my face," Lacey constantly thanked Leon. She did not know what else to say other than that.

Due to her disfigured face, for the past few years, she would always attract looks wherever she went.

It was a huge impact on her mental state!

She used to have a cheerful and easygoing personality, but she slowly became self-loathing and depressed.

Furthermore, her husband started to slowly distance himself from her because he could not bear all the looks and discussions directed at them. In recent months, they were already nearing the point of getting a divorce!

Yet, at that moment, she seemed to have gained a new lease on life. Leon miraculously cured her scars!

She would not only manage to regain her looks and confidence, but she would also be able to repair her broken family as well!

She believed that, as long as her husband saw that her looks were back, he would get back together with her!

It was precisely because of that, that she was filled with gratitude for Leon at that moment. It was impossible to describe how thankful she was!

“Miss, I’m sure you know that Elegante was being framed! If you want to thank me, then please tell me who’s the one instructing you to harm our company. Help us prove our innocence!” Leon quickly took the chance to say.

Since Lacey worked with the long-faced man to frame Elegante, he did not like Lacey at all.

However, looking at how Lacey seemed so thankful and sincere, his impression of Lacey got a bit better.

If Lacey was willing to reveal the truth, then it would make up for all his effort in curing her scar!

Of course, he already knew that the mastermind behind everything was probably Joel. He wanted Lacey to reveal the truth so Elegante could prove their innocence!

“I-”

Lacey paled. She had a conflicted expression in her eyes and was not sure what to say.

After all, the Hiltons were one of the major families in the Southern Region. They were very rich and powerful.

She could not afford to offend them!

If she ‘betrayed’ Joel in public like that, nothing good would be waiting for her!

“Miss, think about it! Leon just cured the scars on your face. You owe him. If you continue to help someone against Elegante, will your conscience be able to take it?!” Iris said with a fire in her eyes. Her cold gaze was incredibly sharp as if she could see right through anyone’s heart!

“I-”

Lacey’s face reddened.

She knew that Iris was right, she needed to repay Leon!

Leon cured her scars, if she betrayed Leon like that and continued to help someone against Elegante, it would make her such a wretched person!

Of course, the Hiltons were too powerful for her to offend as well.

After that, she quickly thought of a way to handle it!

“Mister Wolf, I’m sorry. The scars on my face were from a burn wound years ago. It was not caused by Elegante’s products. However, I didn’t try to frame your company intentionally. Someone instructed me to do so,” Lacey said guiltily.

Chapter 1862

“What?”

“So what Mister Wolf said before was true. The scars on her face were burn marks. They had nothing to do with Elegante’s cosmetics!”

“We’ve wrongly blamed them!”

Hearing Lacey reveal the truth, everyone was shocked.

They thought that Lacey and the long-faced man were victims!

So, they were sympathetic, and quite a few of them were on the side of the sibling pair. They ended up forcing Leon and Elegante to take responsibility for the matter!

However, they finally understood that they were used by the long-faced man!

They almost ended up being accomplices in destroying Elegante!

If Leon’s medical skills were not so amazing, Elegante might have ended up having to shut down!

With that in mind, they were all incredibly frustrated. All of them looked at the long-faced man and Lacey with looks of rage!

“Who ordered you to trap our company?!” Leon asked Lacey in a serious voice.

“I—it was him!” Lacey pointed at the long-faced man.

“What? I—

I never did that! Lacey, your scars were a result of using Elegante’s cosmetics. They aren’t burn marked! Don’t speak nonsense!” The long-faced man’s expression changed dramatically as he hurriedly tried to deny the matter.

He knew very well that their plan to frame Elegante failed. However, as long as Lacey insisted that Elegante were responsible for her scars, there was nothing Leon would be able to do about it.

However, he did not know what went wrong with Lacey’s head at that moment. She was accusing him.

instead!

That caught him completely off guard.

“I’m not speaking nonsense! Mister Wolf, he’s not my brother. I never knew him before t his! A few days ago, he suddenly came to find me. He wanted me to help frame Elegante and promised me a sum of money after it was done. I was blind to greed and agreed to it,” Lacey mentioned everything briefly.

In truth, she knew that Joel was behind the long-faced man.

However, Joel was just too powerful. She did not dare to offend Joel in public like this, so she was forced to hand the long-faced man over instead.

As for Joel, if she had the chance, she would tell Leon in private.

That way, she repaid her debt to Leon, and helped Elegante!

“You-”

The long-faced man was furious!

However, everything Lacey said was true. There was nothing he could do to refute it.

“So this guy was behind it all!”

“He acted as Lacey’s brother and deliberately framed Elegante. He even instigated us to pressure Elegante with him. We almost ended up harming Elegante Group!”

“He is despicable!”

Everyone was furious to hear all of that. They clenched their teeth as they looked at the long-faced man with anger and hatred.

“I-I did no such thing! This has nothing to do with me!”

Looking at all the anger being directed at him, the long-faced man felt the need to retreat.

Leon had already cured Lacey’s scars, and Lacey had betrayed him.

Joel’s plan against Leon already completely failed. There was no need for him to remain there at all!

So, he immediately made the decision. He started to step backward, preparing to flee.

Chapter 1863

"You're trying to run? It won't be that easy!" Leon immediately saw through the longfaced man's plans.

He sneered as he sent out a wave of incredibly strong spiritual energy with just a wave. It shot right at the long-faced man.

"No!" The man shouted out.

Leon was just too strong. Before he could even react, he was sent flying by Leon, rolling on the ground a few times before he landed face-first. He looked incredibly pathetic.

"Serves him right!"

"Mister Wolf is so strong!"

The crowd started to cheer when they saw the man being struck down by Leon.

"Capture him!" Leon ordered the guards.

"Yes." The guards acknowledged it and immediately ran forward to capture the longfaced man.

"I'm done for!" The long-faced man had an ashen look on his face as his mood sank to rock bottom.

He knew that they already lost, and knew that Leon was incredibly strong. Leon was not someone he could defeat.

So, he allowed himself to be captured without fighting back. He let the guards tie him up and did not struggle or fight back.

"Leon, this matter isn't that simple!" Iris whispered to Leon.

Just like Leon, Iris guessed that the person behind everything was probably Joel!

Lacey merely offered up the long-faced man. She naturally had some reservations!

"Yes, I know! However, this is probably already her limit!" Leon said with a nod.

He knew very well that the Hiltons were a major force in the Southern Region. They were not a family regular folk could afford to offend!

Lacey was worried about the power of the Hiltons and did not dare to offer up Joel in public.

That was normal, he could perfectly understand it!

Furthermore, Lacey already showed her regret and betrayed the long-faced man. She proved Elegante's innocence.

That was already enough!

His bad impression of Lacey decreased by quite a lot!

It was because of that, that he only had his men capture the long-faced man.

"Mister Wolf, thank you for understanding. Thank you for curing the scars on my face as well," Lacey smiled gratefully. She knelt on the ground and thanked Leon sincerely.

"You can stand up! I hope you'll change your ways in the future. Don't do such evil things anymore!" Leon said calmly.

"Yes, I won't do it anymore!" Lacey said before she got up.

"Mister Wolf, your medical skills are just so amazing! You're like a divine doctor!"

"That's right, no wonder the cosmetics from Elegante are all so good. With Mister Wolfs medical skills, the cosmetics he produced are naturally not going to be ordinary."

At that moment, the customers all walked forward and started to praise Leon and Elegante.

The consumers' rights department said that Elegante's products far exceeded the industry standards.

They wondered how Elegante's products were so effective while still being so affordable!

They finally understood that Leon probably managed to develop those cosmetics with his medical skills. It was no surprise that the effects would be good!

At that moment, all of them were fully on Elegante's side!

"Everyone, you're too kind! Elegante's cosmetics were developed by me. I can guarantee you that there are no restricted materials in our cosmetics at all. Please use them without any worry! As for what happened this time. It was an accident. We'll definitely look into the matter and give an explanation soon," Leon said with a smile.

Chapter 1864

"Yes, we believe that Elegante is innocent!" "However, Mister Wolf, a lot of us have had a lot of skin issues due to the problematic cosmetics."

"Can you help us treat it?"

Every one of the customers started to express their trust and support of Elegante, and all of them were frantically trying to get Leon to help treat them.

After what happened with the reporter and the long-faced man, anyone would be able to tell that Elegante was sabotaged by someone else. The problems with the cosmetics had nothing to do with Elegante!

They were naturally no longer angry with Elegante!

However, they all witnessed Leon's amazing medical skills, and they hoped that Leon would be able to treat their symptoms to prevent any potential complications!

"Everyone, please calm down! When it comes to your skin problems, they should all go away within five days at most if you use our brightening cream! I'll give all of you two bottles for free. I hope you'll continue to support our company," Leon announced.

There was a lot of media present. He decided to give out the cream to everyone both to solve their problems and to take the chance to promote Elegante, leaving a good reputation for the company!

"Mister Wolf, thank you!"

"You're so kind, Mister Wolf."

Everyone found out that the brightening cream could help with their symptoms, and Leon was giving it to them for free.

They were all quite happy and relieved at the same time.

After that, Leon ordered the company's executives and a few guards to bring over a few dozen boxes of the brightening cream to give out to everyone.

With that, Elegante managed to get out of a difficult spot.

At the private club, Joel already ordered the people in charge to prepare the celebrations after he saw the long-faced man force Leon to agree to treat Lacey.

"Haha, Leon's such an idiot. I can't believe he fell for it so easily! It doesn't matter if he'll be able to cure Lacey's face now. Elegante will suffer huge losses, and they'll be done for!" Joel immediately started to laugh happily.

He knew very well that the scars on Lacey's face were very severe. She was practically disfigured!

Even if Leon sent Lacey to the best hospital in the Southern Region, her hopes of being cured were minuscule.

Even if Lacey ended up being cured, it would take at least a month or two!

If it took such a long time, he would just need to do some things in the dark and continue steering any conversations. Elegante's name and reputation would completely crumble!

It was practically a death sentence.

The moment Leon was forced to agree to treat Lacey, Elegante was already done for!

There were no other possibilities!

"Mister Hiltons, your plan is just amazing!"

Gordon and Seth were all smiles as well. They showered Joel with praise.

They felt the same as Joel.

The matter was already settled. No matter how strong Leon was, there was no way he would salvage the situation unless a miracle happened!

Chapter 1865

"Come, let's have a toast to our incoming victory! Once Leon admits defeat, we'll properly have some fun and celebrate!" Joel said to Seth and Gordon. He looked like he was in incredibly high spirits!

Right after that, the three of them laughed and raised their glasses, planning on toasting in celebration!

However, it did not last for long.

Before the three of them could even celebrate properly, something that shocked them happened at the next moment!

Leon did not send Lacey to the hospital to be treated, but did it himself!

Even more unbelievable was the fact that Leon somehow managed to cure the scars on Lacey's face!

It was a miracle!

After that, Lacey's statement completely turned the situation around!

The long-faced man did not only end up completely failing, he was captured alongside the reporter as well!

It meant that Joel's carefully and meticulously crafted plan completely failed!

"That-"

Looking at that, Joel, Seth, and Gordon were both stunned!

The three of them were just so happy and excited, but they suddenly turned quiet. The whole place was so silent one could hear a pin drop!

After a long time, Joel was the first to react. His whole face was completely red, and he almost spat out blood!

He thought that he would be able to easily get rid of Leon and Elegante this time. He even bragged so much in front of Seth and Gordon!

Yet, at that moment, it was as if he was slapped in the face by reality!

The plans he had so carefully crafted were all easily foiled by Leon!

He completely lost!

It was obvious how angry he was at that moment!

"Despicable! How could this happen?! T-this is impossible!" Joel shouted angrily. Even his eyes reddened in anger.

After that, he pushed forward, and the celebration banquet on the table was sent flying, smashing into the ground!

“Joel, calm down! Losses are a natural part of the battle! None of us expected Leon to be such a skilled doctor. He was just lucky to be able to get through this! In the end, that guy has some skills and wit, and he’s so lucky as well. He manages to get out of so many sticky situations! In the future, we need to be even more careful when dealing with him!” Seth consoled.

He already hated Leon to the core. He was very unhappy that Joel failed to get rid of Leon and Elegante as well, but there was nothing they could do.

“Yes, you’re right! However, it won’t be so easy for him to escape danger!” Joel said after a deep breath. There was a sharp glint in his eyes as he regained his calm.

“What? Mister Hiltons, do you still have something else up your sleeve?” Gordon was shocked to hear that.

It was not just him, Seth looked at Joel hopefully as well, silently wondering if Joel still had some other amazing trump card!

“No!” Joel shook his head.

This time, he spent so much effort dealing with Leon, he did not hold back at all!

“Then what do you mean?” The two of them exchanged an uncertain look.

Chapter 1866

“The two of you just haven’t realized it. Leon was too arrogant this time. He let everyone into the company to look at their company secrets! It’s just too stupid! I’d already arranged for my men to record all of the manufacturing processes and materials. With that, it’ll be easy for the Hiltons Group to manufacture Elegante’s products,” Joel sneered, briefly talking about the situation.

The Hiltons Group was at the helm of the cosmetics business. There was no room to doubt their professionals!

They already managed to obtain many of Elegante’s business secrets!

As long as they took a good look at it and did some experiments, it would not be too hard to make products that were just as good as Elegante’s!

That was not all, with the influence of the Hiltons in the business world, Joel would be able to push his product once they got cosmetics that were just as effective.

Elegante was just a small company from a place like Springfield City. There was no way they would be able to face the Hiltons Group!

Then, all of the benefits would fall to their company!

“So that’s it!”

“Joel, Leon might be very lucky, but you’re still the more skilled one in the end!”

Both Seth and Gordon realized something. They shot Joel a huge thumbs up. Joel was still able to get something even in defeat.

That was just so smart of him. He was one of the most excellent young men in the Southern Region!

“Of course! The celebrations will end here tonight! I have to go back and hurry up and recreate Elegante’s recipes. There’s no room for the delay!” Joel smiled coldly.

After that, Joel, Seth, and Gordon were no longer in any mood to continue celebrating. All of them left the place.

At the same time, many of the rich elite in the Southern Region saw Leon’s skills through live broadcasts from the media. He used his amazing medical skills to treat

Lacey!

It immediately made huge waves in the Southern Region!

At that moment, a lot of them finally realized why Elegante's cosmetics seemed to absurdly effective!

Leon's amazing medical skills easily made him capable of creating cosmetics that could trample over any international brand.

That was just obvious!

Elegante did not only manage to wash away the smear on their name but their name and brand suddenly soared!

Their name in the Southern Region and the business world was suddenly at the level of a celebrity company!

Elegante's cosmetics were suddenly even more well-loved and sought after by the rich elite than many international brands!

That was the moment Elegante started to rapidly grow into a major force in the Southern Region.

At Elegante Group, after the customers obtained their brightening creams, they happily left.

The authorities and media left the place as well.

Very quickly, only Leon, Iris, and the others were left there. The company's executives and security guards were there too.

Chapter 1867

"Alright, the matter is now resolved! Everyone, go back to your posts!" Leon waved, motioning for everyone to disperse.

"Mister Wolf, what do we do with those two troublemakers?" Mason stepped forward to say, obviously referring to the reporter and long-faced man.

The two of them were already captured by Mason and the guards and were temporarily at the security office.

"Bring the two of them to my office! I have some questions to ask them!" Leon ordered.

"Yes!" Mason answered before leaving the place.

Right after that, Leon was just about to return to his office when Iris handed him a piece of paper.

"Leon, Lacey handed me this piece of paper. She asked me to give it to you," Iris said simply.

"Oh? Is that so?"

Leon had thought and seemed to understand something. After that, he opened up the piece of paper.

On it were words written with lipstick – Heir of the Hiltons!

"Despicable! Joel was the one behind all of this!" Leon was furious. His expression was incredibly dark.

Even though he already guessed that Joel was probably the mastermind behind everything, he was still furious to find out that it was true!

He thought that he had nothing against the Hiltons, but Joel constantly tried to sabotage him for the sake of business gains!

If Joel faced him head-on without any schemes or tricks, Leon would not have said anything!

Yet, Joel was just too despicable and cunning.

Whether it was him trying to force a hostile takeover of Elegante or framing Elegante this time. Joel employed some shameless methods!

He was crossing the line!

Even if Leon was never one to throw his temper around, he was still deeply angered by Joel!

“Leon, what do we do next?” Iris asked.

“Come, I’ll go see Joel’s minions first! Let’s see if we can learn anything from that!”

Leon said before he tossed the piece of paper into the rubbish bin.

After that, he, Iris, and Roanne walked back to his office.

Before too long, a knock on the door was heard. Mason and the guards brought the reporter and the long-faced man over.

“Mister Wolf, I’ve brought these two over,” Mason reported respectfully.

“Yes,” Leon nodded. After that, he planned on questioning them a bit but was interrupted by the reporter before he could even start.

“Mister Wolf, you’re breaking the law by confining us like this! I’m warning you, you better let the two of us go, or you’ll suffer the consequences,” The reporter immediately started to act arrogantly.

“Despicable! You dared to cause trouble in our company, but you’re still acting like this?! Do you want to die?!” Mason was furious to hear that.

After that, he did not hesitate to kick the reporter.

“Both of you, kneel!”

Mason quickly kicked the reporter and the long-faced man in the back of the leg.

The two of them immediately knelt in front of Leon after the jolt of pain.

“Just wait! I’m a reporter. Once I get out, I’ll expose your evil ways!” The reporter had a dark look on his face.

However, with Mason’s fierce temperament, neither he nor the long-faced man dared to stand up after kneeling.

Chapter 1868

“I’m going to give both of you another chance right now! As long as you tell me who the mastermind behind this is, including everything you know about the situation, I’ll consider letting the two of you go!” Leon coldly said to the reporter and the long-faced man.

Even though he already knew that Joel was the person behind all of it, Elegante Group’s products still went through the Hughes Group for distribution and the Zelter Group as well. After that, it went to the various malls and high-end cosmetics stores in the region!

All of that had nothing to do with the Hiltons at all!

It would not have been that easy for Joel to sabotage large amounts of Elegante’s products without anyone knowing!

It was precisely because of that, that he wanted to get some useful information from the reporter and the long-faced man.

He needed to find out if Joel had any accomplices!

“There are no other people behind this! The two of us just acted this way because we were harmed by Elegante's products," The two of them denied it. With Joel's position and the Hiltons' power, there was no way the two of them would sell Joel off!

As for Gordon's involvement, the two of them knew nothing about it at all.

"What stubborn idiots! The two of you didn't even need to say anything for me to know that the one behind all of this is Joel Hiltons! Let me ask you again. Other than, him, who else is helping him?" Leon coldly asked.

"What?" The two of them were stunned to hear that. They never expected Leon to already know the truth.

However, they thought about it for a moment. Elegante and the Hiltons Group were direct competitors.

It was no surprise that Leon managed to guess that Joel was behind the matter!

"We don't know anything! Don't even think about getting anything out of us!" The reporter and the long-faced man remained stubborn.

"Very well! The two of you asked for this! I already gave you a chance. Since you're not going to treasure it, then don't blame me!" Leon was incredibly frustrated.

"W-what are you trying to do?" The reporter and the long-faced man's hearts stopped. They suddenly had an uneasy feeling.

"Mason, break one of their legs each! Let's see if their mouths are more stubborn than their bones"! Leon said coldly.

"Yes"! Mason answered.

After that, he motioned for the guards to drag the reporter and the longfaced man up, preparing to strike.

"What?"

Chapter 1869

"I don't know if the Hiltons will let me off or not, but I don't plan on letting either of you off! Attack!" Leon said coldly.

With his order, Mason did not hesitate to kick their legs viciously!

The sound of bone cracking could be heard, and the reporter and longfaced man both let out cries of agony.

They were in so much pain their faces paled. They started to break out in cold sweat, and almost fainted on the spot.

"You!"

"Brat, how dare you?! Just wait. The Hiltons will destroy your company eventually.

You'll have nothing else to your name,' The long-faced man held back the pain in his leg as he looked at Leon angrily, wanting to rip Leon apart.

It was obvious that his status as a part of the Hiltons were completely ignored by Leon!

He did not think that Leon and a small company like Elegante would be able to go against the Hiltons!

It was impossible!

"Are the Hiltons really that impressive? They're nothing!"

At that moment, there was suddenly a cold laugh before Leon could even say anything.

Right after that, the door to the office was opened, and Yuri walked in imperiously with a few guards with him.

“Who dares to look down on the Hiltons! You sure talk!”

The long-faced man was furious. He turned around and immediately swallowed back his words with widened eyes when he saw Yuri.

“M-mister Thompson!” Both the long-faced man and the reporter were shocked.

Yuri stood at the top of the younger generation of the Southern Region. He was incredibly well-known, and would regularly represent the Thompsons an important matters.

The two of them immediately recognized the young man!

However, they could not figure out why Yuri would suddenly appear here!

“Mister Thompson, why are you here?” Leon greeted Yuri, a bit surprised at Yuri’s sudden appearance.

“Oh, I saw that Elegante’s products had some problems on the news, so I hurried over to look at the situation,” Yuri explained.

The moment he found out that something happened with Elegante, he immediately rushed over.

Other than that, he already saw through the news that Leon managed to handle everything alone!

That calmed him down much more!

Of course, Leon’s medical skills were amazing. He even cured his sister’s disease before.

Leon curing Lacey’s scars to turn the tides did not surprise Yuri at all!

“So that’s it!” Leon realized.

“That-”

The long-faced man and the reporter were dumbfounded when they saw how close Leon and Yuri seemed to be. Yuri even seemed to regard Leon with respect!

They thought that Elegante was just an insignificant company and that Leon was completely useless!

They were not bothered by Leon at all!

Yet, the two of them finally understood that things were not as simple as they thought!

Leon and Elegante were related to the Thompsons, the leader of the Southern Region!

Suddenly, the two of them were completely shocked. Their hearts were frozen solid at that moment.

Chapter 1870

“Mister Wolf, what exactly happened? Who dared to smear and slander Elegante?” Yuri asked seriously.

“Joel Hiltons is the man behind it all! However, I still haven’t managed to find out if he had any accomplices,” Leon explained simply.

“How dare the Hiltons?! They are going too far!” Yuri was furious to hear that.

Even though Elegante belonged to Leon, the Thompsons still had a share in it. His sister, Roanne, was one of the shareholders of the company!

There was no way the THompsons would just stand by and watch something as big as this happen!

Not only that, he already heard from Roanne about how Joel instructed Seth to forcibly buy Elegante.

However, since Joel did not get anything from that, and the matter was already in the past, he was not bothered to confront Joel!

Yet, Joel did not relent at all and got even worse. He tried to use such a despicable method to harm Elegante!

There was no way Yuri could just swallow that!

“Mister Wolf, leave this to me! I’ll go over to Hiltons Group and settle the score with Joel right now!” Yuri said coldly.

“Yes, alright then. I’ll leave this matter to you,” Leon said after some thought.

There was no way Leon could just swallow Joel constantly trying to sabotage Elegante either!

However, he was still too weak, and he did not have enough power or influence in the Southern Region to face the Hiltons just yet!

Since Yuri wanted to help settle the matter, it was better for him to let Yuri deal with Joel!

“Also, these two are Joel’s henchmen. Bring them back to him!” Leon pointed at the two men.

“Yes. Men, take them away!” Yuri coldly ordered a few of the guards from the Thompsons.

“Yes!” the men acknowledged the order before dragging the long-faced man and the reporter away.

“No!”

The long-faced man and the reporter had ashen looks on their faces.

They thought that Leon was just someone completely insignificant, so they were not afraid of Leon at all, since they had Joel and the Hiltons behind them!

Yet, they found out that Leon and the Thompsons were on quite friendly terms, and Yuri was even planning on dealing with the matter.

Chapter 1871

“Hughes Group? That shouldn’t be!” Leon was shocked when he flipped through the pages of the data report. It was clear that he never once imagined that the root of the problem would turn out to be the Hughes Group’s production line!

Besides, Darius was good friends with Yuri, and because the Thompsons were the ones who helped Elegante Group establish this connection with Hughes Group in the first place, there was no reason for Darius to sabotage them at all!

Not only that, but the Hughes, like the Hiltons, was one of the most powerful families in the Southern region, and their influences were on par with each other. There was no reason to explain how Joel could have talked Darius into this!

In conclusion, there was no logical explanation as to why Darius would help Joel sabotage Elegante Group at all!

“Could this have anything to do with Gordon, Leon?” Snow said rather hesitantly when she sensed Leon’s puzzlement. Gordon was her exboyfriend, and thus she was familiar with his personality. From what she remembered, he was always the one to hold grudges, and considering that Leon injured him the last time they met to protect her, she could not help wondering if Gordon did this to take revenge on Leon for this!

“Him? Well, I can’t say it’s impossible!” Leon was suddenly reminded of his unpleasant encounter with Gordon. Considering Gordon's influence over Hughes Group, it would not be difficult for him to pull some strings and tamper with Elegante Group's products. Gordon certainly had the motive and the capability of pulling this off!

However, this was just his and Snow's hypothesis.

After all, Elegante Group's products would eventually trickle into the major retail outlets and department stores after going through Hughes Group's distribution, so there was no telling whether Gordon was truly the culprit behind this, or whether something else went wrong somewhere down the line.

"Never mind. I'll call Mister Hughes right now and tell him about this! We'll see what he says!" Leon finally decided. Since he did not have any concrete evidence about Gordon's involvement in this, he could not yet be certain about anything.

There was nothing he could do except notify Darius about this and let him handle it! Knowing that Hughes Group probably had a copy of the same data records, he was certain that Darius could find a clue or two about this!

However, Gordon was the Hughes' son-in-law, and according to the connection, there was no doubt that things would turn complicated should Gordon indeed turn out to be the mastermind behind all this.

However, no matter the outcome, Leon knew it was the right thing to do to notify Darius about this!

With that, he took a photo of the data report and sent it to Darius.

Then, he called Darius on the phone and explained everything to him.

By this time, Darius already found out what happened through the various news outlets, but he never once imagined that the problem would turn out to be in Hughes Group's alley!

With that, he promised Leon up and down that he would pour everything into investigating this to come up with a solution for Elegante Group!

After having a solemn conversation, the two men hung up the phone.

Chapter 1872

The General Manager's office of Hughes Group.

Darius' expression darkened after he hung up the phone.

Immediately, he called the director of the Product Supply Department and ordered him to print out a copy of the data report and meet him in his office.

After some time, someone knocked on his door. A man in his mid-fifties pushed the door open and strode into the room.

This man was none other than the director of Hughes Group's Product Supply Department, Mister Craig.

"Mister Hughes, sir, this is the data report you wanted," Mister Craig muttered as he handed the documents to Darius.

Darius took the documents from him, flipped through them, then glanced at the data report that Leon sent him.

After verifying, he soon discovered that the root of the problem lay within Hughes Group's Distribution Department?

"Rats! Who could've done this?" Darius was outraged by this and immediately leaped out of his chair. He initially thought that the problem rose in some other portion of the chain of distribution and was thus unrelated to Hughes Group at all.

He never once dreamed that someone in the Distribution Department could have tampered with this!

One could only imagine his rage at this!

“Mister Craig, notify everyone in the Product Supply and Distribution Departments to gather every last data report they have and meet me in the conference room. I’m calling an emergency meeting! I’m going to leave no stone unturned!” Darius ordered, trying to stifle his rage as best he could.

Although by now, he figured out that the problem lay in the Distribution Department, he still had no idea who was behind this, and thus he needed to investigate thoroughly!

“Yes, sir!” Mister Craig chirruped in response and left the room.

A few minutes later, all the employees of the Product Supply and Distribution Departments gathered in the conference room, including Gordon, who was the director in charge of the Distribution Department!

He just arrived at the office not long ago and barely sat down when he was summoned to an urgent meeting.

Since he was the one who tampered with the products in the first place, he obviously anticipated that Darius would call this meeting as soon as he found out. Thankfully, he prepared for this scenario beforehand and arranged for a scapegoat to take the blame, so he was not at all worried that Darius would find out it was him all along!

As Gordon anticipated, after some thorough investigation, Darius managed to narrow his suspicion down to one of the managers of the Distribution Department.

This said manager was prepared for this moment and thus took sick leave a few days ago. In the meantime, he got his hands on the hefty reward that Gordon promised him, and fled the city!

Darius almost exploded in rage when he discovered this, but knowing that there was nothing more he could do, he had no choice but to relent.

“Meeting dismissed! Everyone can leave now, save for Gordon!” Darius ordered, gesturing for everyone to return to their duties.

The crowd dissipated, and soon the only people who remained in the room were him and Gordon.

“Darius, why did you want to see me in private?” Gordon asked, trying to stay as calm as he could, but he still could not help feeling a little nervous. He wondered if Darius somehow pieced together the truth.

“What do you think? Now that everyone has left the room, I shall ask you one last time—who was the one who tampered with Elegante Group’s products?” Darius asked coldly.

Although the outcome of his investigation revealed that it was the manager who did so, he could not help feeling a little suspicious, especially after realizing how seamlessly this man pulled off the whole thing and escaped before anyone noticed! Darius was not an idiot—it was clear to him that things were not as simple as they appeared to be!

Chapter 1873

“Um, Darius, didn’t we already establish that the manager was the culprit behind all this?” Gordon replied rather sheepishly.

“Don’t try to fool me! I want to know the truth! Tell me, honestly, if you were the one behind this, or were you even involved in this at all, even just a little?’ Darius fixated his steely gaze on Gordon’s face, his stare so intense that Gordon could not help shuddering.

Darius knew full well that as the director of the department, Gordon was the only one who possessed full authority, and that there was no way a manager could have pulled off such an impressive feat by tampering with all of Elegante Group’s products without anyone noticing!

Even if he did so, there was no way he would be able to escape Gordon’s hawklike eyes!

Darius was certain that Gordon was at least involved in this somehow and likely received some advantage out of this!

All in all, there was no way that Gordon was not responsible for any of this!

“It wasn’t me!” Gordon protested as calmly as he could. There was no way he could admit the truth to Darius!

“Alright then! I can’t believe how stupid you are to continue clinging to your lies even at a time like this!” Darius snickered. He deliberately dismissed everyone instead of confronting him in front of his employees to save Gordon’s face.

After all, Gordon was his brother-in-law, and he was hoping that by giving Gordon a chance, he would come clean with the truth!

Even if Gordon was the culprit behind all this, he would still find a way to go easy on Gordon’s punishment, considering that they were relatives by marriage!

However, Gordon still refused to admit it, and as angry as he was, he could not help feeling disappointed in him!

“I’m telling the truth, Darius! This had nothing to do with me at all. Please trust me. I’m innocent,” Gordon tried to continue lying his way out of this.

“Shut up! Do you think I’m a three-year-old child?’ Darius erupted when he heard this, and with a swipe of his arm, a surge of powerful energy barreled straight toward Gordon!

“Thud!”

Gordon did not see this coming at all and could not dodge in time. His entire body was thrown backward against the conference table, letting out a deafening slam as he crumpled onto the ground.

Thankfully, Darius was just trying to let out his anger and did not mean to hurt Gordon at all.
