Chapter 1001

“You’re not too bad after all!” Leon sighed a breath of relief, only to tense again when Ruth picked up the flask containing the Pure Energy Pills.

“The Pure Energy Pills? Those work like wonders!” Her eyes lit up when she saw the pills.

She knew how rare they were because it cost her grandfather a small fortune to obtain one.

Surprised by the discovery that Leon was in possession of multiple Pure Energy Pills, she felt as though she won the lottery.

Leon’s heart sank at the grin on her face.

Chapter 1002

The true energy in her energy core began to react and surged. Feeling that she was close to a breakthrough, she said, “Leon, I’m going to focus on my energy now! Don’t disturb me!”

Ruth was overjoyed as she did not expect to reach the next power level simply after taking one Pure Energy Pill. Not daring to delay, she sat on the ground and began to practice the Mysterious Maiden Method in hope to reach the next level.

“Who exactly is the one disturbing the other?!” Leon gritted out angrily.

If Ruth did not barge into his room, he would have been asleep a long time ago and would not be left tossing with rage in his bed.

She ignored him and focused on her internal circulation, as she pushed the boundaries of her power with the help of the Pure Energy Pill.

"You're at a much higher level than I am and you have the nerves to question if I'm human? You're the monster who defeated a Semi-Overlord like Jackson Lowe! You're the one who's not human!" She poked her tongue out at him.

"I-" Leon was instantly rendered speechless.

He only managed to defeat Jackson because of the Dragon Pill. In truth, he was only at the Intermediate Supreme State and Ruth, who just reached the Advanced Supreme State, already became stronger than he was.

“Whatever! I don’t have time to argue with an exhibitionist!” She threw the blanket away and moved Leon’s body to begin searching underneath his body and around the bed. Still, she did not manage to find anything.

“That’s enough, Ruth!” He roared, coming close to the edge of losing his temper.

However, before he had the chance to do so, he was stunned by what Ruth said next.

“Leon, remove your pants!” She said hesitantly.

“What?!” Leon felt as though he was struck by lightning. “Have you gone mad? You’re a woman and you are asking a man to remove his pants? Don’t you have any shame?” He studied her in disbelief.

"Uncle Gilbert, it's not what you think," Leon hastily attempted to explain himself, but was interrupted by Gilbert right away.

"Forget it. We all saw what happened. There's no way you can talk your way out of this!" Gilbert shouted and turned to look at Iris with frustration. "Iris, I told you a long time ago that you shouldn't trust him, but you just won't listen. Well? Have you finally seen him for who he truly is?"

"Leon, you disappoint me!" Iris shot Leon a sorrowful look and headed outside.

"Iris, don't go. Let me explain," Concerned, Leon got up to run after Iris, but was too weak to get out of bed.

Like Louisa mentioned, Iris did not place her trust in Leon, causing them to be parted from one another and she would be a fool to repeat the same mistake all over again since they were finally together again.

She instantly sobered and turned to stare at Ruth intently. "Ruth, were you telling the truth?"

"Well," Ruth looked away and stuttered guiltily.

"Iris, the truth is right before you, so why bother lying to yourself? Leon is not a good man. Just break up with him! I think Anson is a better match for you!" Gilbert said.

He preferred Anson as his son-in-law all along and desperately wished that Iris could leave Leon and be with Anson, so that he could return to the Youngs using the Collins' influence.

Since Iris and Gilbert both left, Louisa followed them into the living room. "tris, let me help you with that soup!"

Once the three lett, Anson and Ruth were the only ones left in the yard.

"Ruth, I asked for your help to break Leon and Iris up. How is it going?" Anson walked over hastily and asked.

"Here's the thing. Ruth wanted the other half of the Mysterious Maiden Method and she," Leon explained the situation briefly.

"I see!" Iris exclaimed after listening to his explanation.

Once she knew that it was all just a misunderstanding, the wariness in her heart vanished.

"Iris, I'm telling the truth. Will you believe me?" He asked sheepishly, not knowing if she would choose to believe him.

"Yeah. I believe you!" She beamed at him.

"Who told you we are sleeping on the same bed? Dream on! I'm sleeping on the bed and you are sleeping on the ground." She said smugly.

"I see. You scared me for a moment there." He sighed a breath of relief, before coming to a realization. "Hang on. Why should I sleep on the ground? What kind of sick joke is that?"

"Who's joking? Are you going to make a frail woman like me sleep on the floor?" Ruth retorted.
