Chapter 1091

“He wouldn’t have to die if only he was modest!”

“There’s a price to challenging the Fields’ authority!”

The crowd sighed and turned to look at Leon as though they were looking at a fool.

Leon reached the Intermediate Overlord State and though he might not be as powerful as Walter, he was young and far more flexible and had better reflexes compared to Walter. If he stalled, Walter might not be able to do anything to him; however, not only had Leon challenged dozens of martial artists from the Fields, he tried to fight Walter with his true energy when he was clearly on the inferior end of such a stand-off.

‘How foolish! If Leon dies at the hands of Elder Fields and Denzel, he asks for it!’ The others thought.

He would have never believed it if he did not see it with his own eyes.

Next to him, Vincent was also shaken.

He did not know that Leon reached the Overlord State and thought that he was on the Peak Supreme State at best.

However, Walter, who was one of the top martial artists in the city, was defeated with ease by Leon before his eyes.

“H- How on earth does Leon manage this?” Ruth, too, gasped in shock.

She thought that Leon was being arrogant, but after seeing how he defeated Walter, she realized that he had the confidence that he would succeed.

Up until that moment, even the best martial artist in the city was in the Intermediate Overlord State and since Leon reached the Advanced Overlord State, he surpassed George, Walter, and Benedict.

Shocked, the others started studying Leon with fear and respect.

Chapter 1094

Under the respectful eyes of others, Leon stood tall as he kept his trembling hand behind his back.

In truth, he only reached the Intermediate Overlord State instead of the Advanced Overlord State as the others were led to believe.

He only managed to defeat Walter because he possessed both spiritual and true energies, with the aid of the Double Attack.

Still, Walter was slightly more powerful than him and though he barely managed to fend off Walter's true energy with his spiritual energy, he took damage to his arm.

Naturally, compared to the state Walter was in, Leon's injury was hardly severe.

“Damn It!” Leon’s expression darkened,

The Fields outnumbered him and since there were a few Semi-Overlords in the group, the combined strength of the Fields was not to be underestimated.

Though Leon was powerful, he did not dare to face such an attack directly.

He gave up on chasing after Walter and backed away, dodging all the attacks from the other Fields, before launching a Double Attack again at the Fields.

The Fields closest to Leon were instantly sent flying off, all suffering severe injuries.

“It’s about time we settle this score between us!” Leon sneered and walked toward Harold; each step he took felt like a hammer slamming against Harold’s heart.

“Leon Wolf, wh- what are you going to do?” He paled and quivered, the arrogance on his face finally vanishing.

“I’ve promised to kill Jacob first, before finishing you as well to avenge Iris and Louisa! I’m a man of my words!” Leon gritted out ferociously.

“What?! You wouldn’t dare!” Sensing the malicious aura oozing off of Leon, Harold gasped in fear.

"No! Harold ordered Jacob to carry out his dirty work and came close to getting Louisa and Iris dead. I will kill him right here and now to seek revenge on their behalf!" Leon said with determination.

Though the Dragon Corps had its rules, he also had his values and rules. Since Harold dared to harm his woman and the people he cared about, Harold must die.

Daisy spat resentfully.

Back when Leon first started dating Iris, she could already tell that he was a potential threat to her and Harold, so she manipulated Albert and Gilbert into breaking the two apart.

Unfortunately, Iris risked her own life to get Leon back and with his help, Daisy and Harold eventually lost the battle.

It was hardly an exaggeration to say that the Youngs only managed to succeed because of Leon, and Gilbert had nothing to do with their victory.

Leon withdrew from his thoughts and turned to look at Vincent. "Uncle Vincent, I'll leave them to you! Please look into their background and punish anyone who has done unspeakable deeds! As for the ones who are innocent, please let them go!"

"Sure. I'll go now, then!" Vincent nodded, before leaving with his men and the Lowes.

Once they left, Melvin, the elders, and members of the Youngs kneeled before Albert.

"Heed my words, Youngs, I hereby announce that Melvin and all his descendants are to be denounced from the family. They will surrender the right to ever call themselves Youngs from now on! Any member who supported them can choose to go with them. I won't stop any of you!" Albert announced through the sorrow that overwhelmed him.

After a series of events, he realized that the Youngs were rotten from within. He might have been focusing too much on the gain of the family and forgot to emphasize the bond between families, causing the descendants to grow up to be manipulative and calculative.

It was never too late to change and since he now knew the issue of his family, he planned on reconstructing the family. Though that might break the Youngs apart, Albert believed that Leon would lead the Youngs to glory soon.
