The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 22

After dinner, Leon and Iris left the Young household together. They headed to her villa at Dragonbay.

At that moment, the housekeeper already tidied up a room for Leon to stay in.

Lying on the bed, Leon finally had some peace. He planned on properly looking at what he inherited from the ancestor of the Wolfs.

Shutting his eyes, waves of memories that he inherited flowed into his mind.

Among them were various ancient and secret techniques.

There were medical books, secret manuals, and more.

What? There was also a method for dual practicing?

Leon decided to figure out what practitioners were.

Martial artists pursued martial arts. They practiced inner and physical strength.

Sage art practitioners practiced the sage arts. They focused on the spiritual energies of the world.

Comparatively, the sage arts were even deeper and harder to master.

However, after thousands of years, the sage arts were long lost. Even martial artists were incredibly rare.

It seemed like sage arts were quite remarkable. Leon felt like it was something he needed to pick up.
