

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2254

Chapter 2254

"Sir, Leon's a friend of the family. Wouldn't it be a bit inappropriate for us to capture his girlfriend?" The two experts said after they heard that.

"What's inappropriate about it? Don't worry, I'm just 'inviting' Miss Young over as a guess! Once Leon hands over the shares of Elegante, I'll return Miss Young safe and sound!" Yonas said calmly.

His goal for coming over this time was to take Elegante's shares!

Since Leonw was not there, he planned on having Iris tell Leon to quietly hand it over!

However, with Roanne being there, the matter got a lot bigger!

If Roanne ran to Arthur to expose him, then something could possibly happen to his plan of taking Elegante's shares!

That was not something he wanted to happen!

So, he decided to push it forward, planning on forcibly taking Iris away and locking her up in one of his private villas!

Iris was Leon's girlfriend. With Iris in his hands, Leon would give the shares to him!

Other than that, Roanne's relationship with Leon and Iris was special. As long as he captured Iris, Roanne would be caught in a tough spot. She would probably not dare to expose him to Arthur!novelxo

It was the perfect plan!

"But-"

The experts were still hesitant.

Both of them knew that Leon was very close to the family. If they captured Leon's woman and Arthur found out about it, the results would be disastrous!

Yonas was the son of the second line of direct descendants and Arthur's grandson. There was naturally no way Yonas would be afraid of any punishment!

However, the two of them were different. They were merely collateral disciples!

If Arther decided to punish people, they would not be able to escape unscathed.

"There's nothing else to talk about! This is my order, the two of you just need to follow it! If anything happens, I'll bear the full responsibility!" Yonas said coldly.

"Yes."

The two experts were forced to accept it seeing as Yonas already made up his mind.

The two of them were under the second line of direct descendants. There was naturally no way they would dare to defy an order from Yonas!

Right after that, the two of them started to walk right toward Iris!

"Yonas, you're crossing the line here! I'll give my father and your grandfather a call right now and tell them what you've done," Roanne was furious. She pulled out her phone and prepared to give Angus and Arthur a call!

Iris was giving Yonas a piece of sincere advice, but Yonas returned the favor by slapping Iris, and even trying to capture Iris!

It was just too much!

She needed to report Yonas's nasty ways to Arthur so Arthur would punish Yonas!

"Roanne, don't you even try! I'm warning you, if you dare to report this to my grandfather, then don't blame me if anything happens to Iris because of it!" Yonas said coldly. The threat in his voice was incredibly evident.
