

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2261

Chapter 2261

"This is great!"

Fiona, who was just remaining behind, could not help but let out a look of glee when she saw Leon injuring Yonas.

She was instructed by Rodney to make sure to disrupt Leon's relationship with the Thompsons and to make sure there was a conflict between them!

Leon injured Yonas in his anger!

If the Thompsons found out, they would not let the matter rest so easily!

Then, their relationship could very well end up in ruins. They could even become enemies!

It was perfect for her!

"Yonas, are you alright? Are your injuries bad?"

Fiona was secretly happy, but there was a deep look of concern and worry on her face as she hurriedly helped the injured Yonas up!

"Leon, y-you despicable dog. Do you dare to hit me?! Just wait, I won't let you off in the future!" Yonas got up while he clutched his chest. He glared right at Leon, wanting to rip Leon apart!

As the second heir of the Thompsons, he always lived a privileged life. No one ever dared to touch a hair on his body, let alone injure him!

Yet, a lower-class citizen like Leon from a useless place like Springfield City was not only standing against him but even hit him so hard he spat out blood!

It was obvious how angry he was at Leon and how much he hated Leon!

Of course, he did not realize that Leon was already showing him mercy!

Otherwise, with Leon's skills, Leon would have easily been able to exterminate him!

"Yonas, don't be so arrogant! I don't know if you'll let me off or not, but there's no way I'll let you off so easily!" Leon said coldly. After that, he walked forward toward Yonas with murderous intent!

"W-what are you trying to do?"

Yonas felt a chill at Leon's murderous look. He felt uneasy!

"It's very simple! I already told you earlier. I'll cripple the hand you used to slap Iris for justice! I will do what I said!" Leon said coldly. His tone was incredibly firm, leaving no room for doubt!

"What? Y-you dare?!"

Yonas's expression changed dramatically after that.

"You'll know very soon if I do!" Leon said coldly.

As Leon said that, he did not stop at all as he walked toward Yonas!

Every step he took was like a hammer striking at Yonas's soul!

"D-don't come any closer!" Yonas started to panic as he constantly scrambled back!

Earlier, Leon said that he would cripple one of Yonas's arms. Yonas thought that Leon was just bragging, and did not think much about it at all!

However, at that moment, Leon already defeated both Norm and Sully. Yonas finally realized Leon was completely serious and did not brag!

Suddenly he felt a nervous chill! He lost all his arrogance on his face!

"Yonas, karma always strikes back! You used your power as one of the Thompsons to perform despicable acts. It's already insulting the Thompson name! I'll make sure to properly educate you today in place of your family so you don't commit any more evil in the future!" Leon said coldly.

After that, he raised his hand and started to quickly slam down at Yonas's right!

It was obvious that he planned on crippling that arm. It was meant as a form of justice to Iris, and it was also a lesson that Yonas would remember forever!
