

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2265

Chapter 2265

"Yes, Uncle John is right! Leon, let's just leave this matter be!

Roanne realized something after hearing what John said.

In the end, Yonas was already injured by Leon. It would be a bit inappropriate for Leon to continue to attack!

Furthermore, Yonas was quite a petty person, he was someone who would always make sure he got revenge on those who wronged him!

If Leon crippled Yonas's arm, Yonas would probably hold a grudge against Leon. He would not let the matter rest that easily!

Then, if Yonas ended up in conflict with Leon, it would damage the friendly relationship the Thompsons had with Leon and cause various problems between them!

That was not something she wanted to see happen!

"That's right! Leon, you've already taught him a lesson. Let's just stop things here!" Iris said after some thought.

Even though Yonas slapped her, Leon already injured the guy. It was already some justice for her!

Considering the relationship between Leon and the Thompsons, Iris did not want to continue escalating things!

She did not want Leon to end up with a bigger conflict with the Thompsons because of this, and she did not want them to become enemies!

It would be too great of a loss!

"No! I cant just let the matter rest here!" Leon did not hesitate to object.

He was in an equal relationship with the Thompsons. He was not one of their subordinates!

He could ignore Yonas coming in to try and forcibly take their shares, but the moment Yonas touched Iris, Yonas crossed a line!

He was already being very kind to Yonas in consideration of the Thompsons by only wanting to break one of Yonas's arms!

If the Thompsons had any integrity, they would not fault him for it!

In the end, if the Thompsons ended up going against him because of this, he would not be afraid of them!

In the end, he was a man of principles!

No matter who it was, as long as they hurt his women or his relatives, he would not spare them!

That was his core principle and his bottom line!

"But-"

John was still reluctant to give up. He opened his mouth to advise Leon, but before he could finish, he was interrupted by Leon!

"There's nothing else to say! Let me ask you this if Yonas was the one who was slapped, would the Thompsons let it go so easily?!" Leon asked with an intense look in his eyes.

"That-" John was taken aback, finding himself speechless!

Yonas was one of the leaders of the family, he was one of the faces of the family, and represented the family's honor!

If someone slapped Yonas on the face, the Thompsons would make sure they paid a painful and heavy price even if they had to exhaust everything they had!

"Alright, you don't need to answer. I already know what the answer is! Don't do to others what you won't do to yourself! Please, just step aside!" Leon said seriously.

Iris' position in his heart was equal to Yonas's position within the Thompsons!

The Thompsons would never allow anyone to humiliate Yonas, and he would not let anyone bully Iris either!

"No! I can't step aside! Yonas is the direct descendant of our family. I can't let you continue hurting him," John shook his head. His decision was firm!

Leon had Leon's motivations, and he had his position to consider as well!

As one of the Thompsons, protecting the family was his responsibility. He could not stand by and watch as Leon crippled one of Yonas's arms!
