The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 301

"This is between us and the Shear Family has no part in this. It's inappropriate for you to interfere!" Xander's expression darkened.

The Four Major Families steered clear of any conflicts in the gangster world. The Four Tigers were all known for their ruthlessness and Xander had the Northern King's support; while he was wary of the Shear Family's influence, he was not intimidated by Harvey.

"And if I insist on interfering? What can you do about it?" Harvey retorted proudly.

"Why you... Alright, then! Mason, and Leon, you two got lucky today. I'll let you go out of respect for Mister Shear! Let's go!" Xander knew that he could not cross the Shear Family and swallowed his pride, before ordering his two men to back away.

"You want to leave? Did I permit you to do so?" Harvey questioned sharply.

"What else do you want, Mister Shear?" Xander's expression darkened but did not dare to let his anger show.

"Also, who's that Leon kid? He seems pretty close with the Shear siblings. Is he a member of the Shear Family as well?"

While the crowd admired Cynthia's beauty, they grew more curious about Leon's identity and realized that even if he was not a member of the Shear Family, he must be someone important.

Mason felt the same. He only agreed to be Leon's subordinate merely because he appreciated the great favor that Leon did him. He never imagined that not only was Leon a Supreme Master, but he also had a connection with one of the Four Major Families.

Mason felt as though he happened upon a piece of treasure. With Leon at his back, it would be extremely easy for him to recover his territories from Xander.

Excited, Mason grinned from ear to ear, and on the extreme opposite of that, Joseph observed the situation with a dark look on his face.

He planned to find a chance in approaching Louisa but cowered as soon as he realized that Leon came from a powerful background. He thought back to how he narrowly escaped the conflict with Leon and was worried that Leon would come after him, so he took the chance to run when he could.

At the time when Leon successfully produced the alchemical pills, Benefit immediately had an idea of working with him.

Since all the preparation was in place, he decided to invite Leon over for further discussion.

After greeting one another, they all took their seats.

“Leon, about our collaboration on the alchemical pills, I’ve purchased a pharmaceutical firm and I plan to invest 130 million into it. Cynthia will represent the Shear Family in the collaboration with you. This company will focus on selling all forms of medication and we will leave the production of high-end alchemical pills to you...” Benedict said.

Taking the beauty pills would slow aging; the life–prolonging pills and nurturing pills would improve one’s immune system and prolong lifespan; the styptic pills would work wonders for external injuries while the circulation pills would be effective on internal injuries.

“Will these be enough?” Leon asked.

He had plenty more recipes in his mind, but as his power level was too low he could only produce some of the simpler pills and was not capable of producing pills of a higher level just yet.

“These are pretty great, but not enough to capture the public’s eyes...” Benedict scowled.

He knew just how talented Leon was, and was certain that the pills he proposed would work a hundredfold better than other supplements with great demand in the market. However, the pills that Leon proposed had a more prolonged effect and might not be beneficial to bring attention to the company’s name.

“Get past the bottleneck of their training? Mister Wolf, are you saying that I might be able to get past the peak of the Innate State and ascend to the realm of a Supreme Master?” Harvey’s eyes lit up.

There were great gaps in between each level and not only would it take years of hard work to break past those gaps, one would require tremendous talent and luck to succeed.

Harvey stopped at the peak of the Innate State for over two years and it was his dream to reach the realm of a Supreme Master, as only those who succeeded would be referred to as the truly powerful.

“The pills are effective for anyone who hasn’t reached the peak of the realm of a Supreme Master!” Leon “Wow, you aren’t even trying. You don’t sound convincing at all!” Cynthia rolled her eyes at him, but seemed content with his answer.

Just then, they arrived at the gate of the mansion and she waved one of the guards over. “Captain, Leon didn’t drive here so please send him back!”

The guard agreed and drove Leon home.

In the mansion at the Dragonbay Villas, Leon arrived home.

Louisa returned home from school and just finished dinner with Iris.

“You... What are you talking about? I’m not into Iris.” Leon looked away guiltily.

“How stubborn! You have the power and the strength, yet you are willing to be Iris’s secretary and insist on staying here at her place! Why else would you do that if you are not interested in her?” Louisa smirked “Um...” Rendered speechless, Leon realized that he could never win an argument against Louisa.

“Lewd, just tell the truth. Do you like my cousin or not?” Louisa’s lips curled into a smug smile as she continued to tease him.

Leon’s hurt began to hurt. He never imagined being asked the same question twice by Cynthia an hour ago, only to be confronted

Naturally, she knew her cousin well enough to know that if Iris was willing to let a man stay with her for such a long period, it was likely that Iris had feelings for Leon as well. Since the two were interested in one another, Louisa did not mind pulling the strings to match make them and get the chance of learning the ways of martial arts in return.

"I'm not..." Leon was about to deny her assumption that he was a Supreme Master but soon realized that Louisa would not help him with pursuing Iris if she learned the truth.

"Ahem. That's right. I'm a martial artist in the realm of a Supreme Master!" He said proudly, drawn to Louisa's proposal. With her help, he would be able to pursue Iris and dating Iris was his deepest desire at the moment.

However, since he was not an actual martial artist, it would be difficult for him to teach Louisa the ways of martial arts.

She urged,

He simply needed to select a method that was suitable for women and teach Louisa its way. His only concern was that as a sage artist, he might struggle to teach Louisa the ways of martial arts.

"Yay! Lewd, you are the best!" Excited, Louisa threw herself into his arms like a child who was just given candies.

"You..." Leon gaped when he sensed the softness of her chest pressed against his arm.

Louisa was spontaneous and it could be draining to handle her at times, but during the rare moments when she acted like a sweet, innocent girl, they were enough to melt the hearts of countless men.

'She changes mood like changing clothes!' He thought.
