The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 311

However, when she heard footsteps approaching, she knew that most likely her cousin already entered, so she did not dare to act recklessly.

If Iris found out that she was laying with Leon, she would not be able to clear her name no matter what!

Iris entered the bedroom to see Leon alone in bed. Louisa was nowhere to be seen.

"What? Louisa isn't here? The mansion is only that big. If she isn't here, where could she have gone?" Iris was stumped.

"Could she be in the toilet, or perhaps taking a shower?" Leon chuckled dryly. His entire body stiffened. He was so nervous his palms perspired.

"Nope. I checked the toilets upstairs and downstairs. I even went to the balcony and the kitchen to look for her. She isn't there."

Iris furrowed her brow. Her woman's natural keen instinct told her that something was off with Leon, but she could not pinpoint it.

The higher the hopes, the higher the disappointment.

At that moment, she was extremely disappointed in Leon!

It was Louisa who was calmer. She did not know whether to laugh or cry. She said, "Iris, what are you doing? You're pretending like you're in a soap opera. Can you not exaggerate?!"

"Louisa, he did those things to you, yet you can still laugh?" Iris looked at Louisa in disbelief. She knew although Louisa had a rather strange character, she was chaste and pure. She was not a girl that messed around.

At that moment, seeing Louisa and Leon in the same bed, her first reaction was that Louisa was most likely a victim. It was most likely that Leon used despicable ways to force it on Louisa!

"Iris, calm down! Nothing happened between Leon and me... You're overthinking this..."

"But training methods are very precious to every martial artist. Why would Leon agree to teach you without any reason?" Iris was still a little suspicious.

Of course, concentrating energy was not an easy matter. This had much to do with martial arts talent and the level of training method.

The higher the talent and level of training method, the easier it was to concentrate energy.

On the contrary, for those without talent and who have a low level of training method, it would be harder to concentrate energy. Even practicing for three to five months, they might not even be able to go on the path of training!

Seeing how Iris and Louisa were already focused, Leon closed his eyes and tried to search for a training method manual suitable for a man to train.

Since he was not a martial artist, he would not be able to guide Iris and Louisa in training down the road. Thus, he also planned to practice training methods. He would mainly be a sage art practitioner but also practice martial arts on the side. That way, he could guide Iris and Louisa.

However, he did not know if he could practice sage and martial arts at the same time, but for Iris, he had to try it!

Iris was stunned. She knew nothing about training methods. She did not know how great the training method was.

However, she knew Leon's background well. She knew that he was an orphan who had nothing. Leon, knowing martial arts was already way beyond her expectations. She did not think that he was capable of producing any profound training methods!

"Of course, it's great! Previously, I've tried practicing some low-level training methods. I spent a dozen days without concentrating any energy. The Mysterious Maiden Method only used a night to concentrate true energy. Don't you think it's amazing?" Louisa made a face and said.

Back then, it was because the low-level training methods did not come to fruition after a long time, so she gave up halfway and from then onward she looked down on the low-level training methods.

Thankfully, she was lucky enough to meet Leon! Finally, her dreams came true!

“Oh, is that so?” Iris looked at Leon deeply, suspicions rose in her heart.

Leon took the cosmeceuticals he prepared beforehand to give to Cynthia.

“The cosmeceuticals from Elegante?” Cynthia’s eyes sparkled. She was a little surprised.

Recently, the cosmeceuticals from Elegante Group have been all the rage in Springfield City.

“I’ll accept the gift, but you don’t have to thank me. That night, you rescued me. I should be the one tha

"I'm only an amateur. I don't know much," Leon said with a humble smile. The Energy Convergence Circle that he formed was not an ancient divination.

However, they both followed according to the series of the Nine Palaces and Eight Trigrams, so they do have little things in common.

Cynthia looked at Leon deeply. She was overwhelmed and found it hard to calm herself down.

The first time when she saw Leon, she thought that he was a con man. However, later on, not only were Leon's medicine and alchemy skills deeply profound, but he was also brave and heroic. His martial arts were great too.

That was one thing. At Cynthia went forward with a face full of questions.

Although the pills were shiny and round, looking extraordinary, she did not sense the existence of true energy.

“No, these are Spirit Nurturing Pills. I have other uses for it...”

Leon gently explained while taking a white jade bottle and placing all the Spirit Nurturing Pills in them.

The Spirit Nurturing Pills were of no use to martial artists. It was pointless to leave it for the Shears, so h

Leon looked extremely anxious as if he was about to freak out.

The Energy Nurturing Pills gathered the essence of many expensive ingredients. The true energy in them was extremely pure. Usually, it would take time to be slowly refined.

However, the previous pill that Cynthia consumed has yet to be refined, yet she consecutively consumed at dozen pills. That was just seeking death!

“What?” Benedict and the rest were extremely stunned.

Especially, Cynthia, immediately felt the dozen Energy Nurturing Pills converting into true energy, wilding infusing throughout her body.

When things were done in extreme, it would only produce the opposite result!

The true energy was too much. Her body could not handle it at all. Soon, her face was flushing red. Her internal circulation felt as if it was about to explode.

Seeing Cynthia’s situation getting worse, Benedict and Harvey panicked. “Leon, what should we do right now? Please, try and find a way to rescue Cynthia...”

Leon understood the urgency of the situation. He could not waste any time, so he lifted Cynthia and walked toward the core of the Energy Convergence Circle.

Entering the circle, Leon carefully placed Cynthia by the side of the core. He got Cynthia to sit on the grass, then he applied the Six Points of Fate. He applied pressure on the pressure points surrounding Cynthia's chest and abdomen.

The Six Points of Fate, reversing fate!

With Leon's application, the spiritual energy flowed from his palms nonstop into Cynthia's body, blocking the rampage of the dozen flows of true energy, also controlling those flows of true energy, and gradually starting to merge them.

This action was extremely depleting of spiritual energy. Even if he had a constant source of spiritual energy replenishment from the Energy Convergence Circle behind him, the speed of replenishment was too slow. Naturally, it could not compete with the depletion of spiritual energy.

Leon's face started to pale. His body
