The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 32

Donald might have failed to get revenge on Joseph's behalf, but the latter could still get one last chance to vent his anger by chasing Leon out of the company.

To top it off, Leon would lose the company's protection and intervention if he was fired, thus paving the way for Joseph to call the police and have Leon arrested.

"You? Firing me? As if you have the authority!"

Leon glared coldly at Joseph and walked slowly toward him.

"What are you doing? I'm warning you! D-d-don't you dare come any closer..."

Joseph continued to back away and a bad feeling rose faintly from his heart.

"I have this urge to beat you up again because looking at you is pissing me off!" Leon sneered.
