The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 321

"Cynthia! Don't touch him!" Benedict exclaimed and used his arm to stop his granddaughter.

"Grandfather, what are you doing? Didn't you see how badly injured Leon is? We need to send him to the hospital as soon as possible..." Cynthia panicked and stomped her feet anxiously.

Her tears were about to burst out of her eyes.

"It's alright. He's using his energy to recover now! Besides, don't forget how good his medical skills are. I'm sure he has a way to heal himself. There's no need to send him to the hospital," Benedict comforted.

With Leon's excellent skill in practicing medicine, it would be useless for them to send him to the hospital if he could not heal himself.

Cynthia followed her grandfather's sight and looked over. Leon closed his eyes and sat on the grass with his legs crossed. He used his energy to heal his injury.

Seeing that with her own eyes, Cynthia was less worried. Despite that, she continued to gaze and monitor Leon's movement. Her face still looked very worried.

"It's my fault. I'm the one who did this to you. Please, you need to recover... I promise I'll do anything as long as you recover..."

Her eyes turned red. She couldn't contain her tears.

Among the people who were involved in the danger, she knew exactly how dangerous the situation was. Leon risked everything just to save her. That was why he was badly injured. A life for another life. He used his own life.

When she was in danger, Leon also saved her by risking life. She was prompted to be gullible with things like this. She was deeply touched by Leon when he risked his own life.

She was glued to Leon's sharp and distinctive facial features. The passion and affection she never had for anyone slowly appeared in her eyes. He was in the middle of the Energy Convergence Circle. He used the circle to absorb spiritual energy from the surrounding. As he Leon was not alone..

Benedict and Harvey were both dumbfounded too. They exchanged looks with each other. Soon, they understood what was going on.

"Cough, cough..." Benedict pretended to cough after realizing it.

It pulled Cynthia out of her emotional breakdown. Only then did she realize her action was inappropriate. Her cheeks turned rosy as she quickly left Leon's arms. Her head was lowered because she did not dare to make eye contact with him.

Leon thought she was just overjoyed and too impulsive so he did not think too much about it.

"Leon, I'm grateful for you. Not only did you save Cynthia's life, but you also helped her to reach the Intermediate Innate State... The things you did for my family are too much. How can I ever repay you?" Benedict said gratefully.

Both Harvey and Cynthia were very grateful too. Especially Cynthia. Her eyes were shimmering with colors and her heart was falling for someone.

Benedict took out one hundred and eighty Energy Nurturing Pills to pass to Leon.

“I don’t need that many. I already took a bottle of Spirit Nurturing Pill just now. You just need to give me a hundred Energy Nurturing Pills.”

Leon shook his head and only took away a hundred premium Energy Nurturing Pills. If it was in the past, he would leave all the pills to the Shears. Now that he was both a sage and a martial artist, he required the pills.

And so did Iris and Louisa.

“Thank you very much,” Benedict smiled.

The Shears was an ancient martial art family. The premium Energy Nurturing Pill would do many goods for the family. He was grateful that Leon only took away one hundred of them and left the remaining to his family so he did not reject the kind offer.

Leon stayed for dinner because Benedict insisted on treating him to dinner. He "Iris, I'm just kidding with him. Why are you in a hurry to protect him? You're not in a relationship with him anyway," Louisa giggled and started to make fun of Iris.

"Nonsense! I... I'm not protecting him." Iris's cheek became rosy as she felt embarrassed by what Louisa said.

"Oh? I thought you're feeling sorry for him!" Iris continued like a child daring to do great mischief.

"You... You keep on talking rubbish. I don't want to speak with you anymore!" Iris was so shy that she gave Louisa a fierce glare. After that, she took an Energy Nurturing Pill and ate it.

That was not all.

With help from Louisa, his relationship with Iris was becoming closer. They spent much of their time together and their affection for each other grew. The only thing left was the right timing and opportunity.

It was a Saturday. Leon and Iris were not working and Louisa did not need to go to school.

"Iris, since it's Saturday, why don't we go shopping and watch a movie?" Louisa crackled and grabbed Iris's arm.

"That's right. I heard there's a comedy on air that's pretty good. We can go and watch it," Leon quickly agreed with the suggestion.

Back in Sullivan Mansion.

Samuel and Brody were both in the living room.

"Dad, didn't you say you hired some people to deal with Leon? It has been days. Why is there no news yet?" Brody asked anxiously.

“Don’t panic. You need to have patience with everything. I’ve hired The Winged Tiger, Xander Long this time. He’s much more powerful and has more influence than Mason. It’s an easy job for him to go deal with Leon that loser,” Samuel said while brewing a cup of coffee.

Although he never saw how powerful Leon was, he knew for a fact that Xander was a leader in the Gangster World. Xander also had support from the Northern King. No matter how powerful Leon was, he was still just one man. He could never be able to defeat Xander.

“Yes, you’re right.” Brody nodded and felt more assured.

“Dad, I think I know what happened. That kid went to the flea market and bought a jade stone. He was lucky enough to end up with an imperial green jade. After that, he sold it to Elder Shear...” Brody thought about it and quickly told his dad about Leon buying a jadestone.

He thought the transaction between Leon and Benedict was in cash term and they were no longer related. It was in his wildest dream that the Shears would help Leon. It was just too unbelievable!

“So, that’s why!”

Samuel and Xander finally understood how Leon would get to know the Shears. Especially Xander. At first, he thought Leon was from the Shears, so he was slightly scared. Now that he knew Leon had a bit of dumb luck and knew Benedict, his hanging heart was finally able to rest.

After all, cash deal was too common. It could not prove anything. The Shears would also not help Leon all the time just because of a small relationship like that. It was just impractical

"9 million dollars! That's the price I'm looking for. If you can't accept it, then you'll have to get someone else to do the job," Xander said persistently.

"This... Fine!" Samuel hesitated and still nodded his head to agree with the price.

Although 9 million dollars was not a small amount of money, it was nothing to Sullivan Enterprises. As long as Xander could kill Leon on behalf of Samuel and Brody, the money was well spent.

Long, let me remind you something. Leon is quite powerful and not an easy person to kill. But he has just gotten himself a new girlfriend. If you use his girlfriend, it'll be a lot easier..."

Brody hesitated and told Xander about Janice.

"Good. Very good! This is important information. Thank you for providing such valuable information. Don't worry. I'll kill that kid. I promise I won't let you down," Xander laughed.

“If you want to thank me, you need to love her and don’t treat her badly when you successfully make her your girlfriend.”

Louisa smiled and squinted her eyes into the shape of a crescent moon.

The reason why she would continue to help Leon was that she could tell Iris has feelings toward Leon. Besides, she thought Leon was a nice guy and merely matched with Iris. No matter how foolish she was, would never sell her cousin to anyone so easily.

“Don’t worry. I’m afraid I don’t know how to show my love to her to think about how to treat her badly,” Leon guaranteed.

“Remember what you said today. If you dare to bully her, I’ll never forgive you!” Louisa swung her fist to threaten Leon.

Since Leon was about to come to find her, she wished to present the most beautiful side of her to him.

Honestly speaking, she had no idea why she would have that thought in her mind. 'Maybe because all women want to be pretty,' she thought.

Suddenly, her mother walked into her room and looked at her daughter doubtfully.

"Janice, I thought you don't like to wear makeup. Why are you putting makeup on all of a sudden when it is near noon? Are you going out?" her mother asked curiously.

"No. My friend's coming over," she replied with a smile.
