The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 451

"Cynthia, thank you." Leon looked at Cynthia in appreciation.

He was not a rock. Cynthia was doing everything for his sake. It touched him quite a bit.

"Let's go, I'll bring you around the workshop," Cynthia let out a sweet smile as she pulled at Leon's arm and exited the office.

Leon was a bit unused to Cynthia's intimate actions.

However, thinking about how Cynthia was incredibly sincere and straightforward, on top of the fact that Cynthia was doing everything she could to help him, she allowed her to do as she pleased.

Leon's heart was beating rapidly. He was so nervous that his palms were sweating. His heart almost jumped out of his throat.

He was a very normal, hot-blooded man. There was no way he could bear that temptation.

At that moment, he wanted nothing more than to toy with Cynthia's feet with his hands, but his rationality stopped him.

"What's so inappropriate about it? You said you would compensate me. Are you going to go against your own words?" Cynthia said with a red face.

In truth, it was not just Leon who was nervous. She was even more nervous and felt very embarrassed as well. She was even tempted to just give up.

However, for the sake of getting closer to Leon and finding a place in his heart quickly, she clenched her teeth and held firm.

Cynthia kept on making noises.

Leon's mind felt like it was going to explode. He felt like he was about to go crazy.

With the sounds coming from Cynthia and the sensations coming from his hands, he could feel his heart getting incredibly tempted.

Suddenly, he felt incredibly hot-blooded. He was tempted beyond belief.

At that moment, a ring could be heard. Leon immediately snapped back to reality.

That phone call came at just the right time!

Leon immediately put Cynthia's legs on the floor before he answered the phone.

Once Leon was done with the call, Cynthia could not help but ask him curiously, "Leon, who was that?"

"Oh, it's Fane. He needs my help."

Leon gave a brief explanation, "Cynthia, I'll go over to see what he needs. I'll leave the company to you."

The battle naturally ended up falling to Fane and Jacob.

Fane wanted Leon's help to deal with Jacob.

"So that's what's happening!" Leon said in realization. After that, he asked, "Mister Poole, how do you want me to help you?"

"Jacob and I have an agreement. To stop this thing from going too far, we plan on having a friendly match to resolve this conflict."

"We have Xander's territories on the line. Whoever wins the matches will get the territories," Fane explained.

As long as he won, Mason would get all the territories.

If Jacob won instead, then Xander's territories would be returned to the Northern King.

“Mister Wolf, the tournament will be this evening. With you around, we’ll win!” Fane said excitedly. He looked incredibly happy.

After that, Fane talked to Leon about the match. When it was about time, a few of them drove right to the venue.

They were at a resort on the outskirts of the city. It was one of the properties under the Southern King.

For the match, Fane already cleared out the place. They were not doing any business for the moment.

When Fane and Leon arrived, there were already various luxury cars and sports cars around. There were Maybachs, BMWs, Jaguars, and the like. The cars were all more flashy than the last.

It was an incredibly beautiful woman who was about twenty–eight years old. She had a tall and glamorous figure, at had a pair of fashionable shades on.

She wore a full black outfit that hugged her figure, making her devilish figure stand out.

She was Fane’s sister, Snow Poole.

Snow was also one of the four great beauties of Springfield City, ranked in third place. She had an incredibly sexy aura around her, and she had a natural way of attracting looks from everyone. She was the sexiest woman in the eyes of many men.

Her appearance quickly caused a stir in the crowd.

Some of the men quickly looked at her with fiery and obsessed gazes. They wanted nothing more than to make that sexy woman their own.

Even Leon, who was already used to seeing absolutely beautiful women, could not help but feel amazed. He felt like he looked at a woman who was gorgeous and cold!

It caused Leon and Fane to feel a bit awkward.

"Snow, don't speak nonsense. Leon's a Supreme Master! It's just that he keeps a low profile, so not many people have heard of him," Fane hurriedly explained.

"What? He's a Supreme Master? How's that possible?!" Snow was shocked. She quickly looked at Leon again, and was even more sure that Leon was a scammer!

The martial arts circle in Springfield City was not particularly big.

Among the youth, the two most excellent characters were Harvey and Anson.

Leon was young. If he was a Supreme Master, he would be even more famous than both of them. There was no way he would be so unknown!

“That’s right, that’s impossible!” Landry and the others were shocked as well.

Snow said coldly.

At her command, Landry scrambled and motioned for a few men to chase Leon away.

“Hold it! Mister Wolf is a friend I invited here. I won’t allow any disrespect to be shown to him!” Fane said unhappily.

“Fane, you-

” Snow’s face turned cold. Before she could say anything, there was a commotion on the other end. A group of people walked over.

“Jacob’s here!”

Suddenly, everyone looked over. Even Fane and Snow’s expressions turned serious.

Jacob looked as arrogant as ever. His head was held high, and he quickly stood not far away from them.

“Oh, I was wondering who it was. If it isn’t Snow Poole!”

"I think so too! Don't worry, I'll play along till the end!" Jacob sneered.

After that, both sides went back to their camps and started to talk about the match.

The match was very simple. Both sides would send out five participants, one at a time. The winner would continue to stay, while the loser would have to leave. It w out.

Fane had everyone gathered together, "Let me arrange the five who will be participating."

"There's no need. I'll take charge of everything from now on!" Snow said strongly. After that, she quickly made arrangements.

Leon ignored Snow's gaze of disdain and contempt.

From the moment he met Snow, Snow was incredibly unfriendly to him, causing him trouble everywhere

He would have already left if he was not close to Fnae and if he did not already promise to help Fane. There was no reason for him to suffer those looks from Snow!

Not wanting to fight against a woman, he decided to just ignore Snow's gaze.

"Mister Poole, do you want some fruits?" Leon tossed a fruit over to Fane.

"Sure, I have nothing to do anyway."

Fane walked over with a smile, sitting down in front of Leon. The two of them chatted away happily.
