The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 48

"Exactly!"

"Of the many shameless people that I've seen before, I've never seen someone this shameless!"

"Miss Summers is a beautiful woman, and he needs to look in the mirror and understand how unattractive he looks. How can someone like him be worthy of her?"

"I wonder where he got all his confidence!"

The other two patients in the ward were amused by Bowden's brazenness and voiced their support for Lily.

Bowden threw a fit. "I've already laid out the conditions, Aunt Serena. If you don't agree, then you need to pay up the seven thousand dollars immediately or I'll call the police! Don't blame me then if the police arrest you for making off without payment!"

"But..."

Serena and her two children were speechless. Forking out 700 dollars was difficult enough, what more than 7,000 dollars?

Where were they going to get so much money?

For a moment, the three of them were in so much despair that they did not know what to do next.

"It's just seven thousand, right? I'll help you pay for it!" Leon said coldly.
