The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 421

"Pitt!" Theodore spat blood as he was sent flying.

Gordon and the other men, as well as Gilbert who observed the situation from a distance, were stunned

Theodore was one of the most talented martial artists among people his age and though he was known as a playboy, there was almost no one else who could hold a candle to his strength. Even if Anson and Jacob teamed together to fight Theodore, they would not stand a chance of winning, yet Leon managed to defeat and injure Theodore.

His jaw dropped. Knowing what he knew about Leon, he thought that Leon was merely a good-for-nothing orphan and did not possibly be a threat to Leon either. With that considered, it would not be an overstatement to say that Leon was the top of the youngest generation of martial artists at the core as he watched

"Leon, you were great!" Iris was too worried and once she was finally able to relax, she could no longer contain her excitement and threw herself into Leon's arms.

Theodore was one of the best martial artists of his age and Iris was stunned by the fact that Leon managed to defeat Theodore.

She suddenly realized that Leon was far more capable than she imagined and felt more confident than ever about being with him. With time, Leon would surely get the approval of the Young Family.

Leon clenched his fists at the sight of his daughter throwing herself into Leon's arms. He reminded himself that at least Leon did the Young Family a favor and suppressed his

Since she already agreed to become Leon's girlfriend, there was no reason for her to hide their relationship and she decided to tell Ashwin the truth to stop him from complaining about Leon again.

"What? He's your boyfriend? How, how's that possible?!" Shaken to the core, Ashwin froze.

Ashwin was one of Iris's most loyal pursuers who tried to win her heart for over two years. He always thought that Iris would eventually fall for him as long as he continued trying, only to learn that the woman of his dreams was taken by Leon.

Iris blushed and nodded. Ariel was her best friend and she saw no point in hiding her relationship with Leon.

"What?" Ariel gaped. Everything happened so fast that though she overheard the conversation outside the door, she was still shaken to the core to hear it from Iris.

“Is it because Leon saved your life before?” Ariel asked thoughtfully.

“Thank you. I hope that you find someone you love soon, too,” Iris said with a smile.

“Fate plays a great part in these sorts of things. It’s not that easy to find someone.” Ariel muttered, her mind filled with images of Leon’s face and the memories of him shielding her behind his back.

It took her years to finally find a man that she liked, and he became the boyfriend of her best friend. Ariel could not help but feel mocked by fate.

Noticing the odd expression on Ariel’s face, Iris asked, “Ariel, what’s wrong? What are you thinking about?”

“Oh, nothing. Just thinking about work. Let’s get back to it.” Ariel sobered and changed the subject.

Since the first batch of Energy Nurturing Pills were limited, countless families returned home empty-handed and Mason knew that he would not have stood a chance even if he was invited to the ceremony. He heard that Fane managed to make a bulk purchase of Energy Nurturing Pills, but since Mason did not work for the Southern King, he would have no means of obtaining the pills from the Southern King either.

Mason's only hope was to wait until the second batch of Energy Nurturing Pills were produced so that he might have the chance to purchase them.

"Don't worry. I've reserved some for you!" Leon said, before handing Mason a flask of Energy Nurturing Pills.

"Mister Wolf, is this? The Energy Nurturing Pill?" Mason opened the flask and stared at the white pills inside with awe.

In Vincent's perspective, Fane spent millions on something useless and he was worried that Fane would soon spend all his money on nothing.

"Dad, don't get mad just yet. Let me finish. I told you that the Energy Nurturing Pills Cynthion Group works wonders. All families invited to the ceremony were fighting over the pills and I only managed to purchase before anyone did because Mister Wolf told me about it ahead of time." Fane explained.

"You're saying that the other families were fighting over the pills? Really?" Vincent was shocked.

Adding Elegante Group's potential to the equation, the Young Family would soon be able to rise to the top of Springfield City.

It was the biggest ambition for the Young Family and the other families as well.

Little did Elder Young and Gilbert know, the person who produced the alchemical pills was Leon.

Leon himself did not expect such success either. He just wanted to make a profit from selling the pills, not realizing that the pills became a crucial element of power in the eyes of all major families in Springfield City. If he knew the Young Family would place such importance on the Energy Nurturing Pills, he would have worked with them instead and used it as an advantage to secure his relationship with Iris.

Confused, Gilbert said, "Dad, Leon's just an orphan, who doesn't have the support of a powerful family and has been married once. He isn't worthy of Iris! We can't let Iris be with him!"

"All heroes start from nowhere! If he can rise to the top, why should it matter that he is an orphan? As for the part where he was married once, it's not that big of a deal in modern society!" Elder Young said calmly.
