The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 641

"That's right!"

"Iris, just think about it in detail. During the sales drive, the other families kept on offering so many different conditions to Leon, but he rejected all of them without any hesitation."

"Yet, he started to hesitate when I did it!"

"Do you still remember that?" Elder Young said with a smile.

"Yes, I remember. He seemed to hesitate a bit back then," Iris said after some thought.

"Exactly! I think he hesitated because he still likes you. It's just that he did not want to be someone who would abandon his principles, so he chose to work with the Shears in the end!" Elder Young said.

"That might be true," Iris felt much better.

She realized that she was the one Leon liked, and Leon did not choose Cynthia, so she felt much more relieved.

“On top of that, I was the one who didn’t trust Leon enough. I can’t say I’m not responsible for it at all.”

Iris took a deep breath, and she seemed to have decided as she said, “It’s already too late today. I’ll go look for Leon tomorrow morning and ask him to get back together...”

“That sounds good.”

Elder Young and Gilbert both let out sighs of relief.

“Iris, we were the ones at fault this time. When you meet Leon, tell him that we’re sorry. I hope we’ll be able to forgive us,” Elder Young said.

The last time, they really crossed the line when they kicked Leon out of the house.

Even though she did not go to the sales drive, she still knew how important alchemy was to the major families of Springfield City.

On top of that, Leon managed to become so strong at such a young age. He was an incredibly rare martial arts genius among the younger generation of Springfield City!

She could not help but feel relieved that she managed to seize her chance and make Elder Young break up with Iris and Leon.

Otherwise, if Leon married into the Youngs, Leon would be a tremendous threat to her son taking over the family business!

“Iris broke up with Leon in large part because of the two of us. However, dad already convinced Iris to ask Leon to get back together tomorrow. I hope this thing goes smoothly, or it won’t be good for the two of us,” Gilbert said with a sigh.

There was a cold glint in Daisy’s eyes, but she quickly hid it.

The next morning, Iris drove to Cynthion Group alone.

She thought of giving Leon a call to ask Leon out, but she felt like it would be more sincere if she went to look for Leon herself. After all, she hurt Leon too much.

Outside Cynthion Group, Iris felt quite unsettled.

Even though she already determined to come here to try and get back with Leon, she was getting anxious thinking about how she would meet Leon soon. She was also afraid, worried that Leon would reject her.

She hesitated for a moment.

In the end, she summoned up the courage to walk into Cynthion Group.

In the president's office, there was a knock on the door. The secretary walked in after Cynthia's approval .

"Where is Leon?" Iris broke the silence first.

She thought about turning around to leave when she saw that Leon was not there.

However, it was not easy for her to summon up the courage to come here, so she was a bit reluctant to leave just like that.

"You don't need to care about where Leon is. I just want to know what you're doing here when you've already broken up," Cynthia said with a steely look on her face.

"Why do you care about why I'm looking for him?" Iris said coldly, regaining her noble and cold demeanor.

"Iris, don't think I don't know why you're here. If I'm not wrong, you're probably here to get back together with Leon, right?" Cynthia said coldly.

A lot of the major families fought over Leon during the sales drive, including the Youngs. Elder Young even offered Iris's hand to Leon.

Leon was not already there looking for Leon. Barring anything else, she was either there to recruit Leon or tell me where to bother Cynthia, so she changed. She started to know of Leon's feelings for Iris. If Iris called Leon and asked to get back together, Leon already getting closer and closer to Leon. It was so difficult for her to get even a sliver of hope. She could not allow Iris to do something she could not do. "Boyfriend! You're just his ex-girlfriend, things are already over between you two! You're still the heiress of the Youngs. You're someone's boyfriend?" Iris stopped in her tracks. She did not accept the situation in front of everyone.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 646

To dispel any notions Iris had of getting back together with Leon, and to have Iris completely give up, she gave Leon a call.

When the call went through, she turned on the speaker.

"Hello, Cynthia, do you need me for something?"

Leon's voice was heard from the other end.

"Leon, do you still remember how we got a room at the hotel in Seacove City and spent the night there together?" Cynthia deliberately asked vaguely. She emphasized the words spending the night together to make sure Iris heard them.

"I remember. Why are you suddenly asking about that?" Leon was surprised.

He was refining the Dragon Pill at the back of the Shears's residence, but Cynthia's question caught him off guard. He did not know what to say.

“I-I wish you two happiness.”

Iris was on the verge of collapsing, but she forced herself to keep the tears in her eyes.

No matter what, she was the head of the four great beauties of Springfield City, and she was the heiress of the Youngs. She had her pride and dignity.

With her pride, even if she lost to Cynthia, she would not reveal any weakness in front of Cynthia.

As for Leon, feelings could not be forced. Since Leon was already with Cynthia, she had no other choice but to give up.

As Cynthia said, she could not do anything so immoral.

There was no way she would be a mistress and ruin a relationship. She was of too noble birth for that. O

Even more regretful was the fact that he was not at the company that day. He missed Iris!

Fate was truly toying with him!

At Blue Moon Bar, Leon met Mason in one of the rooms.

"Mister Wolf, why are you here?"

"Please, take a seat."

Mason was shocked as he hurriedly greeted Leon.

"Mister Wolf, I already heard about yesterday's sales drive from Mister Poole. So you're the chairman of Cynthion Group. You even defeated Haroon and the expert of the Fields. You're amazing! I respect you so much!" Mason said excitedly.

He was already at the Intermediate Innate State. If he managed to obtain a Basic or Advanced Progressive class method, it would be much easier for him to become a Supreme Master in the future.

To him, becoming a Supreme Master was his greatest wish in life!

"Listen well!"

Leon had his hands behind his back as he recited Demon Execution to Mason.

Mason was fully focused as he quickly remembered it all.

"Alright, try it out right now. I'll guide you by your side. If there are any problems, I'll make sure to help you correct them in time," Leon said.

It was Mason's first time using Demon Execution, it would be much easier with Leon there.

He knew that there was no way Leon was lying to him. He felt Demon Execution in his body as well. With the speed and effect of the method, it was at least a Basic Power class method!

It was enough to prove that Demon Execution was in the Advanced Power class!
