The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 61

Even Hilmar was no exception. The slight dissatisfaction he had toward Leon earlier had all but changed into admiration for Leon's incredible medical skills and ethics.

After hesitating for a bit, he eventually walked up to Leon and bowed deeply. "Mister Wolf, I have repeatedly called your medical skills into question and I wish to express my heartfelt apologies for my rudeness! I've never had a high opinion of alternative medicine, and I believed that it was inferior to modern medicine. You've taught me a very vivid lesson today, and I was able to learn a lot from you, so thank you!"

"You think too highly of me, Doctor Schwabe. You're a well-known senior figure in the field of medicine, and I still have a long way to go to reach your level," Leon downplayed the praise and did not take Hilmar's previous actions to heart.

"Here's my business card, Mister Wolf. Feel free to call me anytime if you need help in the future."

Bernard took out his business card and handed it to Leon; he also made a point to ask for Leon's contact information.

Leon looked at the business card in his hand, which wrote: [Bernard Wick – Chairman of the Wick Group'. Stunned by what he read, Leon finally realized that Bernard's background was not as simple as it seemed. It was no wonder that the old man could offer to fork out such a huge sum of money just to pay him.]
