The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 751

Elder Young's expression was cold.

"Leon? Old man, are you actually shameless? The Youngs kicked Leon out even after all he did for you, and you even agreed to help me deal with the Shears so we can deal with Leon just now! Now you're hoping that he'll help you get revenge? You really are shameless!"

Harold had a look of mocking on his face as he started to laugh.

"That's right! Leon probably already hates you and Gilbert to the bone. If he found out what happened to you, he'd probably be laughing and clapping his hands. How could he bother getting revenge for you?! What a joke!" Daisy mocked, rubbing salt into Elder Young's wounds.

It did not sound possible at all! Suddenly, he was filled with regret. He regretted how ruthless he had been. Even if he had wanted to break Leon and Iris apart, he should not have kicked Leon out. Otherwise, the Youngs would have stood a chance if Leon was still around.

"Harold, why are you talking to this old man so much? Just kill him!" Daisy said coldly, sending a fist at Elder Young's vital spot.

"Wait!" Harold reached out and stopped Daisy's attack. After that, he hit Elder Young at the back of the head, knocking Elder Young unconscious. When he fell unconscious, Elder Young was not worried about his own life, but the family.

The family was on the brink of disaster. His only hope was that Iris would be smart enough to discover Daisy and Harold's plot. After that, he hoped that Iris would do everything she could to get back together with Leon for the sake of the family. Then, for Iris' sake, Leon might help the family survive.

gave Daisy a hug before he left the place without a trace. In truth, Daisy had secretly let him in for this visit, so no one knew he had been to visit the Youngs at all. There was no way anyone would find out what he did to Elder Young.

After

Harold left, Daisy composed herself before she quickly rushed to notify the older generation of the Youngs. She told them that Elder Young's old illness suddenly resurfaced, and he had fainted in the room.

In the past few years, Elder Young's body had not been in a good state. He had fainted once before, and Leon had saved him. It was something everyone in the family knew. When Daisy said that Elder Young's illness was back, they had no reason to suspect Daisy.

"Graham, don't be alarmed! I just have a few things to tell you. When you treat Elder Young later, there are a few things I hope you can say, but there are a few things you can't!" the masked man said calmly, but the threatening tone in his voice was clear.

"What? Are you threatening me?" Graham's expression darkened, wondering who that person was and what his intentions were!

"What if I am?" the masked man said coldly as he unleashed an incredibly strong wave of power at Graham.

"Overlord State!"

Graham was shocked when he realized that that person was an Overlord State expert!

The Eliots might be one of the powerful families in Springfield City, but the strongest among them was only a Semi Overlord State!

Iris, Gilbert, and the others fell silent.

The Youngs had not only blamed Leon wrongly in the past, but they also kicked Leon out.

Their relationship was in an awkward spot at that moment, and there was no way they could ask Leon to help treat Elder Young!

Graham did not know what happened between them, so he paid it no mind.

He had already led the Youngs to the answer. The Youngs could decide if they wanted Leon's help, and it would have nothing to do with him!

"Mister Young, I'll prescribe some medicine for Elder Young. Make sure he has it on time every day. It might have some effects," Graham said after some hesitation.

It was not just Elder Young's brain that had been injured, but his chest as well. He could not wake Elder Young up, but he could still treat Elder Young's internal injuries, so they did not get worse.

However, the Youngs were still in a bad state despite that. If nothing surprising happened, the Youngs would be at their end if the Young Group was done for!

At Cynthion Group, Leon and Cynthia shared an office to make it easy for him to learn the ropes, but that was not the long-term plan.

He was already familiar with company matters, so he was moved to a different office from Cynthia.

In the chairman's office, Leon was earnestly working at his desk.

At that moment, the door was opened, and Cynthia walked inside.

"Cynthia, do you need me for something?" Leon asked curiously, dropping his work for the moment.

Cynthion Group was rapidly expanding. He had been busy dealing with work matters and did not know about what happened with the Youngs!

"Leon, Elder Young fell sick..." Cynthia said after some hesitation.

Ever since Iris and the Youngs looked down on him, he had no reason to try to do anything!

Of course, he did not know that Iris and the Youngs did not look down on him. They were just too embarrassed to ask him for help!

"That's good. Cynthion Group might be somewhat influential in the city, but we still lack economic power. We can't help them at all!"

Cynthia let out a sigh of relief.

Cynthion Group's pills were the lifeblood of martial artists. When it came to the major families, they had a lot of influence.

However, in terms of economic power, Cynthion Group's total assets did not even amount to a billion.

The Young Group's losses were already way more than that. Even if Leon sold Cynthion Group, it would not be enough to cover their losses!

Iris fell silent for a moment before she clenched her teeth and got up to head out.

“Iris, where are you going?” Gilbert asked.

“I’m going to look for Leon. I’ll ask him for help. He’s a very talented doctor. He might be able to save grandfather!” Iris said with a sigh.

She already knew that Elder Young’s illness would affect the family, but she never expected it to be so major!

The Youngs were in an incredibly dangerous position. She could no longer care about her pride!

Leon had a grudge against the Youngs and was a part of the Shears. How could the Youngs leave their fates in the hands of an enemy?

It was just suicide!

“That...” Iris had nothing else to say.

She knew that what they said was reasonable. Leon was already Cynthia's boyfriend, so he had nothing to do with her!

With Leon's relationship with the Youngs, it was already amazing that Leon did not take the chance to sabotage them. How could he be willing to help them!

It would be useless even if Leon was willing to help them!

She had put so much of her efforts into Elegante Group to bring it up, but Daisy wanted to take it away just like that, even trying to sell the whole company!

It was too shameless!

"Why not? Elegante belonged to the Youngs anyway. The elder merely gave it to you temporarily! The Young Group is in trouble. Why can't we sell Elegante Group to protect the Young Group?" Daisy sneered.

She never got along with Iris. It was a rare chance, so she planned on forcing Iris to sell the company, leaving Iris with nothing!

That was the consequence of Iris going against her!

“Yes, that’s a good idea! Elegante Group is currently worth about 650 million. With the company’s future potential, we should be able to sell it for a good price, possibly more than that!”
