The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 861

Iris was no longer a part of the Youngs, so he could pursue Iris without any worries. His chances of success were very high as well, so how could he just watch on as Jacob used despicable means to take Iris away?!

"Mister Collins, she's just a woman. It's nothing that amazing! We're both friends. Are you really going to turn against me for a woman?" Jacob said coldly.

"I should be the one asking you that!" Jacob, are you sure you want to make an enemy out of me and the Collins?!" Anson said coldly.

"You!"

Facing Anson's threats, Jacob suddenly felt incredibly uncertain.

The Lowes might not be able to face the Collins, who were one of the four great families, head on, but his father already seized control of the Youngs.

With the Youngs' help, he would not be afraid of the Collins at all, nor would he be afraid of Anson!

However, thinking about his father's grand plans, he hesitated.

He came to help them in such a dire moment. Right when Iris and Gilbert needed help the most, he planned on taking the chance to help Iris in hopes of winning her favor!

It happened precisely as he wanted to. He came in like a knight in shining armor to save Iris, and Iris's impression of him improved a lot.

"You came to help us?"

Gilbert was surprised.

The Collins

were one of the four great families. They had incredible power and wealth. If he could secure Anson and the family's help, it would be much easier for him and Iris to get back to their family or even seize control of the family!

"That's right! Mister Young, if you need my help in any way, I'll definitely do my best for you!" Anson said.

"Basically I'm going to explain everything to him right now. I might be able to get him back!" Iris said firmly.

As she said that, she turned around and walked out.

"No, you can't go! Leon is already something of the past. You should keep looking forward. Anson is your best choice at the moment!" Gilbert pushed his wheelchair and hurriedly tried to stop IRIS.

In truth, he stopped Iris in one part because Leon was about to get engaged to Cynthia, but the other part was because of Anson's pursuit of Iris.

Even though Leon was incredibly capable, Leon was still an orphan in the end. Even if Leon was willing to get back together with Iris, Leon would not be able to help him return to the family that much.

However, Anson was different. If Iris could accept Anson, then with the power and wealth of the Collins, it would not be that difficult for him to regain control of the family!

"Dad, you kept on forcibly interfering with me and Leon for the sake of the family in the past, causing me to hurt Leon over and over again. Now, are you going to do the same thing for the sake of your own benefits?!" Iris said coldly, immediately seeing through Gilbert's true goal.

Leon was his greatest love rival. As long as Leon and Iris failed to get back together this time, he could take the opportunity to fill Iris's broken heart!

Just thinking about it made him happy!

At the Shear Mansion, one of Leon's hands was wrapped in bandages as he recuperated on the bed.

Since he took a Dragon Pill when he was at the Youngs, he was in a period of weakness, and felt powerless.

By his side, Cynthia was taking care of Leon. She had some medicine meant for helping with replenishing blood in her hand, feeding Leon as she showed a happy smile on her face.

She waited for Leon for so long, and her hard work finally paid off. She was finally with Leon.

It was obvious how happy she was!

Her smile never left her face from the moment she got back.

At that moment, footsteps were heard. One of the guards quickly walked over from outside.

Leon smiled calmly.

Even though things between him and Iris did not end that happily, he was still close to Ariel and Louisa. They were his two good friends.

He felt very warm in his heart at their concern.

“Leon, I’m sorry. I hurt you so much,” Iris said regretfully.

“It’s fine, I did it all willingly,” Leon smiled in a nonchalant manner.

Love was something where one did not expect anything in return anyway. He sacrificed so much for Iris willingly. He could not blame any one else for it.

“Miss Young, did you need me for something?” Leon asked in a straightforward manner, even changing what he called Iris.

At that moment, it was incredibly hard for him to keep calm. His firm will start to sway a little.

“Leon, you can’t say yes!”

Cynthia paled as she looked at Leon with worry.

She knew of Leon's feelings for Iris, and she could tell that Leon was starting to sway as well. If there were no surprises, Leon would probably leave her and return to Iris's side.

Just thinking about that made her incredibly sad.

Seeing Cynthia so sad was like a wake up call for Leon.

If it was before, he would probably have agreed to get back together with Iris.

However, he already agreed to get engaged to Cynthia. It was just not too long ago that he made Cynthia a lifelong promise as well.

If he went back on his words, it would definitely hurt Cynthia immensely!

"Of course you wouldn't know! Last time, Iris went to Cynthia Group to ask you to get back together, but she was tricked and lied to by Cynthia, and ended up thinking that you were already together with Cy

Louisa was incredibly frustrated as she explained everything.

When he heard all of that, Leon looked incredibly uncertain. After that, he turned to look at Cynthia, asking, "Cynthia, is what Louisa said true?"

He was already riddled with wounds, and his heart was completely damaged. He even planned on giving up on his feelings for Iris and starting a new life.

How could he accept Iris's feelings again?!

“Leon, are you really going to be so heartless to me?” Iris bit her lips as she looked at Leon sadly, forcing herself to hold her tears in.

“It’s not being heartless, things are just over between us! If you’re willing, we can still be friends in the future, but when it comes to love, we should just stop here!” Leon said calmly.

“Alright, you said this yourself. Don’t regret it!”

Iris was just too sad facing Leon’s cold demeanor. She no longer had the courage to stay there as she turned However, Harold was already far above him at that moment. It would be very difficult for him to face Harold head on in the future!

He suddenly felt like he was in grave danger, but there was nothing he could do.

Leon had a sudden thought in mind, and seemed to understand something.

When they were with the Youngs, he suspected that Harold managed to get to the Overlord State so easily in part thanks to him robbing Quinton. Otherwise, Harold would not have made an enemy of the Hunts for just three Pure Energy Pills!

It was very possible that Harold used those three Pure Energy Pills

His ancestors left him so much information. There were some secret methods meant to stimulate the potential of the human body. All of those secret methods were related to medical skills, and they were compiled in great detail.

As for the Pure Energy Pills, he had a few with him that could be used at that moment.

He already had everything he needed, so it would not be hard for him to help Harold get to the Overlord State

“Mister Poole, I’ll be honest with you. Even though I can’t guarantee you’ll get to the Overlord State, I can do my best to try. The chances for success should be very high,” Leon said earnestly.

“Try? How could you recklessly try with something like this. If anything happens, the results would be disastrous!” Vincent was even more shocked.
