

Revenge 981

Chapter 981

Not long after, he began to vomit out mouthfuls of blood as he bordered on the verge of death, as a result of George's attacks.

"Uncle, elders, please go help our beloved Northern King, quick!" Daisy ordered, seeing that Harold was barely holding on.

"Um," Melvin and the rest of the elders hesitated for a moment. Then, realizing that the Youngs and the Lowes already agreed to form an alliance, they then led the rest of the masters and charged forward in combat.

Not only that, but Jackson, Marco, and the rest followed.

Seeing that the Youngs and the Lowes got involved, the Collins, too, joined in the battle.

"We've come to help you, O' Northern King!" Melvin declared as he and the rest of the elders joined the combat, placing themselves in between Harold and George to help him fend off George's attacks.

“Will do! Let’s go, Ruth!” Leon did not hesitate at all and instead grabbed hold of Ruth and sprinted away.

“Jackson, don’t let that bugger get away!” Harold yelled. He spent so much time and effort trying to trap Leon and was just moments away from killing him, so how could he let Leon go so easily?

Unfortunately, with George holding him off, he could not chase after Leon himself and instead had to send Jackson and the rest of the Lowes to do this.

“Yes, sir!” Jackson shouted in response. Then, he, Marco, and some of the Lowes zipped away, darting toward Leon.

“You’ll have to go through us first!” The two Collins who were at the Semi Overlord State scoffed and darted forward, blocking their way. They stirred up powerful blasts and charge toward Jackson and smacked her across the back of her neck, and she fell unconscious.

Royce, who was a martial artist, was far quicker than she was and managed to dodge Leon's attack just in time.

However, he was only at the Initial Innate State and was a far cry from Leon's Peak

Supreme State. Before he could even get up, Leon grabbed hold of his neck and lifted him like he weighed nothing.

“It’s you, Leon Wolf!” Royce gasped in horror when he realized who it was. He remembered Leon from the Youngs’ ceremony when Leon attempted to sabotage Iris and Jacob’s arranged marriage. He recognized him instantly.

However, this was not the point. The point was, from his knowledge, his mother Daisy and Harold were carrying out their plans to kill Leon once and for all, and if things

“But if you insist on crossing me, I’ll make you pay the price for this! Daisy and the rest of the Youngs have crossed me many times and even almost killed me, and if you refuse to do as I say, I’ll start by killing you first!” Leon declared coldly, a glimmer of malice flashing through his eyes. The truth was, he was just trying to scare Royce. He did not know of Harold and Daisy’s history and thus always thought Royce was Iris’s half-brother, with the two of them sharing the same father. Therefore, even though Daisy and Royce were constantly on opposing sides with Iris, Leon would never try to hurt her brother at all!

However, even though he was not as ruthless as Harold was, Royce was no match against him at all!

“No-” the color drained from Royce’s face, and he was terrified by Leon’s claims. He was worried that Leon would indeed hurt him!

"Stop! Who goes there?" The two guards were on high alert and immediately turned in their direction when they sensed movement.

"Are you blind? Do you not recognize your own master?" Royce scoffed but did not pause in his footsteps and continued leading Leon forward.

"Oh, it's Master Young." The two guards froze, then quickly bowed toward Royce.

"May we know what you're doing here in the middle of the night, Master Young?" asked the guards. With Leon obscuring his face as much as he could, the two guards could not make out his features and instead thought he was one of Royce's personal bodyguards.

"What's wrong? Can't I come visit my own grandfather?" Royce asked curtly.

“You’re right, but an hour has gone by, and Leon is not home yet. What could’ve happened?” Iris asked worriedly. She knew that Louisa was right and that George and the rest of the Collins would be able to protect Leon, but nothing was certain—the Youngs were at an advantage over them, and one could not possibly overpower so many people. Leon and George were significantly outnumbered, and it would not be easy to escape the Youngs and the Lowes’ forces combined!

Seeing that Leon was yet to return, Iris could not help feeling more and more concerned.

“Um, perhaps Leon and Elder Collins were delayed somehow,” Louisa replied rather vaguely.

“What could that be? Who could’ve delayed them in the middle of the night?” Iris was to despair, and then, all of a sudden, a thought popped into voice began to shake. “Louisa, do you think something Leon?”

"It was because you didn't listen to Leon's advice that led us to fall victim to Jonah and Harold's trick! Now that Leon is in danger as a result of protecting us, how can you stand by and watch?" Iris demanded with a hint of blame in her tone.

"I-" Gilbert was rendered speechless by this. "Iris, I admit that I shouldn't have trusted Jonah, but Leon was the one who insisted on coming; I didn't ask him to go at all, so why are you blaming me for this? Besides, it has been a long time now, and it will be too late even if we go to the Youngs now! in my opinion, we should just let him be!" Gilbert replied nonchalantly.

After Leon regained his shares of Elegante Group and his refusal to continue his alchemy work, Gilbert had since then been mad at him, and the truth was, he always Anson as his future son-in-law and thus did not care much for Leon at

Gilbert and Louisa were both equally shocked, and neither of them could believe their

"Iris, this is not the place to talk. Let's go inside first." Leon took Iris's hand and let them back into the house.

They arrived at a bedroom on the first floor, where Leon placed Albert in the middle of

Even though she did not know the true extent of Leon’s powers, she witnessed him in

Knowing that Gilbert was only at the Intermediate Supreme State, she guessed that Leon could probably defeat him easily.

“You-” Gilbert’s face flushed scarlet in embarrassment, but he knew Louisa was right.

“Leon, I’m not sure what my grandfather’s sick with. Even until now, he’s stuck in his coma and doesn’t seem to be improving. You’re such a good doctor-do you think you can take a look and possibly cure him?” Iris asked expectantly.

“No, I can’t do that right now,” Leon shook his head. It was almost two hours since he
