The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 90

"You're... Leon's girlfriend? Is that true?" The shock that came over Iris left her mouth wide agape. She clearly remembered that Ariel did not really like Leon when they met two days ago, and Ariel even went so far as to keep calling him a sissy.

Little did she expect that Ariel and Leon would get closer within just two days, and even more remarkable was that their relationship proceeded at a near-Godspeed pace!

"I'm not his girlfriend..." Ariel glared at Iris angrily and thought to herself, 'It's all because I took the blame for you after you fired Joseph!'

no, not at all... She's not my girlfriend, Iri- Uhh... Miss Young. We have nothing to do with each other, please believe me!"

Leon waved his hands again and again in a show of genuineness as he did not want Iris to misunderstand his relationship with Ariel!

Ariel fumed in anger and could not understand what Leon tried to convey with his actions. He seemed so eager to clear up the misunderstanding in front
