The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 93

Ariel glared at him angrily. She clenched her fists tightly, and she was already on the brink of exploding with rage.

"I..."

Leon gulped after sensing Ariel's murderous gaze and glancing down at Ariel's clenched fist.

His intuition told him that he might get a severe beating from her if he so much as dared to say a single word.

Getting punched by her was the last thing he wanted!

"Okay, okay. I'll go with you..."

Leon smiled meekly.

A wise man would know better than to fight when the odds are stacked against him. In any case, the cooperation was already struck, so Ariel could do whatever she wanted!
