

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2251

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2251-Three days later, David left Sole for Wier, taking Pebbles, Beanie, Thor, Princess Evie, the Elf women, and the remaining elite guards of the Nacht family with him.

As for the mansion he had just bought, he planned to leave it there.

However, Beanie decided to sell it.

In her opinion, while it was true that David had money, he should not waste it like this.

She also paid and dismissed all the servants that she had just recruited.

The team bought three carriages.

David and Pebbles in one, Beanie in another with the Elf women, and Thor in the last with the Nacht guards.

The three carriages moved quickly.

The biggest advantage of the foal beast was not its speed, but its stability. The passenger inside would not feel the bumpiness. Moreover, the foal beasts could go for days and nights without rest.

Since they were in a hurry and this was not a leisure trip, the sooner they reached Weir, the better.

Half a month passed.

They did not stop on the way.

They would only stop when the foal beasts were tired.

David and the team arrived at a third-tier city.

David planned to stay in this city for a day, buy some supplies, and let Thor buy some treasures by the way.

As a businessman, Thor used to come here often to buy goods, so he was quite familiar with the place.

Upon entering the city, the team stopped in front of a relatively luxurious inn while walking along the streets.

Immediately, the attendant of the inn stepped forward to greet the team.

David got out of the carriage first with Pebbles in his arms.

Then, Beanie came down with Evie and the Elf women.

However, Evie and the Elf women were all in disguise. They wore veils to hide their faces so that their pointy ears could not be seen.

This was to avoid trouble.

If they did not disguise themselves, the appearance of the five Elf women would surely cause a sensation.

“Milord, do you want to eat or stay here?” The inn attendant asked respectfully.

“We’re going to dine and stay here. First, arrange tables of the most expensive food and then arrange a dozen or so of your best rooms,” David said.

When the attendant heard this, surprise appeared on his face.

Even the servants got to stay in the best room?

It was so rare to see such a generous boss.

At first glance, the attendant could tell that this young man was not an ordinary person.

He hastily said flatteringly, "Of course! After you, Milord."

David walked ahead with Pebbles in his arms, followed by the others.

When they entered the inn, the first floor was very noisy and many people were eating. David and others were taken to the second floor to sit and wait for the food.

They were divided into two tables. David, Beanie, Princess Evie, and the Elf women sat at one.

Meanwhile, Thor was at a table with the Nacht family guards.

Initially, David wanted Thor to sit with him, but Thor refused.

What a joke!

Thor had been in the business world for a long time and he was discerning.

The people sitting with Master David were all his female friends. Wouldn't he be asking for trouble if he sat there?

Now, he had abandoned everything to follow David.

He needed huge courage to leave his descending point.

So, he needed to know his place and he could not make any mistakes.

Since Thor refused, David did not force him.

Anyway, there were only 8 of the Nacht guards left.

Including Thor, there were only 9 of them and they could not even fill the table.