

THE CONTRACT MARRIAGE

Chapter 15 Did Sarah Commit Suicide?

She knew Christian's personality well. A few people could change the things he decided!

"If my Big Brother really love you, he should know what it means to fulfill your wish! Don't worry, you are now pregnant with the flesh and blood of the Cooper family. Even if he dares to act recklessly, my parents won't agree to it. Treasure, as long as I'm here, no one can touch you!"

"Julian" When Vivian heard his words, tears immediately gushed out and she threw herself into him arms.

"Be good and wait here. I will definitely come back tonight." Julian lowered his head and kissed her forehead, then turned around and walked out the door.

His car soon arrived at Villa of Cooper Family. When Julian walked into the living room, he found that his parents and grandpa were sitting on the sofa with serious expressions. The atmosphere seemed a little depressing...

“Grandpa, Dad, Mom why did you call me back in such a hurry? Is there something important?” Julian walked over guiltily, maintaining a calm expression on his face.

Daphne was the first to see her precious son and stand up. She walked to his side and nervously held his arm. Seeing that his son’s face did not look good, she comforted him with heartache. “Son, don’t be sad. There are many good girls. Without Sarah, Mom will definitely find a better girl for you than her to be our family’s daughter-in-law.”

Julian heard that his mother's words did not contain Sarah's words. He felt a bang in his head and a chill rushed from his foot to his head. He nervously and fearfully grabbed his mother's hand.

"Mom, tell me quickly. Did something happen to Sarah? Did she commit suicide?"

What he was most afraid of was that whether Sarah would commit suicide. If that was the case, he really did not dare to think about it...

"What nonsense are you talking about? How could she commit suicide? She is living right now. It's much better!" Daphne looked at her son angrily and dragged him to sit down in front of the sofa.

When Julian heard his mother's words, he was still a little nervous. "Then what did you mean by there is no Sarah?"

Before Daphne could say anything, Benjamin, who was sitting on the other side of sofa, took over the conversation.

“Julian, it’s like this. Just now your Big Brother came back and told us that he and Sarah had registered for marriage. He said that you know the reason the most. We want to know what happened between you, Sarah and Christian. Isn’t Sarah your fiancée? Why did she register for marriage with your Big Brother?”

Hearing Benjamin’s words, Julian’s body suddenly froze. He looked at his grandpa in shock.

“Grandpa, You... You just said that my Big Brother and Sarah are married??”

Ethan, who was beside him, frowned when he saw his son’s reaction. “Yes! This is also the reason why I called you to come back. Sarah is now your sister-in-law! What is going on?"

When Daphne heard her husband's words, she unhappily retorted on the behalf of her son, "Hump, what else it can be? He snatched Julian's fiancée. I want to see how they will have the face to live in this house!"

Daphne gritted her teeth in hatred when she thought of Christian's attitude towards her.

Julian stood up from the sofa when he heard his parent's words. He clenched his fists and was a little excited.

"Impossible! Absolutely impossible! They don't have any feelings. How can they get married? They are trying to take revenge on me, no way! They absolutely can't get married!" Julian turned around and wanted to leave as he spoke.

“Stop right there!” Ethan was really angered to death by his two sons today. He stepped in front of his youngest son and raised his hand to point at Julian.

“If you want to leave, you have to make it clear to me first!”
