

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3135

Novel Chapter 3135 -Lucas: "Hazel, you don't need to come and get it yourself. I'll send it to your hotel. You can just come down and get it when the time comes."

Hazel was a little flattered: "Boss, I'm not used to you being so kind to me suddenly. It feels like a dream. You are so kind to me only in a dream."

Lucas was stunned by her words and made a sneer: "I don't seem to have bullied you before?"

From Lucas's point of view, he treated Hazel very well.

Hazel blushed and explained: "You never bullied me, but you never treated me so well. You even took the initiative to give me a gift...so touched."

Lucas's cheeks were slightly hot: "Didn't you say that you would bring me your cakes when you return to Aryadelle?"

Hazel: "My mooncakes haven't been brought to you yet!"

Lucas: "In that case, I'll give you a gift after you bring me the mooncakes."

Hazel immediately retorted: "No! Since you have prepared a gift for me, you should give it to me now! Otherwise, I will keep guessing what you bought me."

Lucas was silent for a few seconds: "It's not a gift you bought. Don't fantasize too much."

Hazel said 'Oh': "Then I want to know what the gift is. Boss, you can bring it to me now! When you arrive at the hotel, call me, and I will go down and get it."

After Lucas responded, he hung up the phone.

Lucas walked towards the bedroom, opened the closet, and took out the box containing the bracelet.

The reason why this bracelet was not left in the Hogan family, but kept with him all the time, was because he was afraid of being seen by the Hogan family.

He helped Siena redeem the bracelet, but Siena thought it was made by Cyrus.

He was wronged by this, and he was very angry.

It was also because of being angry with Siena that it was quite unpleasant when he and Siena finally separated.

Lucas put the box into his trouser pocket, then took the car keys and went out.

Lucas drove the car onto the main road.

The sky began to rain lightly.

The weather in Thopiavelle was always cloudy and cloudy.

The wiper swung in front of his eyes, and Siena's face appeared in Lucas's hallucination.

The wiper swung in front of his eyes again, and Hazel's face appeared in Lucas's hallucination.

The two of them had one thing in common: their smiles were similar.

Even the tone of speaking to him was becoming more and more similar.

When the car arrived at the hotel, Lucas got off at night and strode into the hotel. After leaving the box at the front desk of the hotel, Lucas walked out quickly and got into the car.

But he didn't drive the car away immediately.

He dialed Hazel's phone: "The gift is at the front desk, come down and get it!"

Hazel let out an 'ah' dissatisfied: "Are you leaving? Why didn't you give it to me yourself? Are you embarrassed?"

Lucas: "Maybe! I'm going to drive, so I won't talk about it."

Hazel: "Okay, it seems to be raining outside, please drive carefully and drive slowly." After a pause, she said, "Boss, no matter what gift you give me, I will like it very much. I will keep it well."

Lucas responded and hung up the phone.

Hazel looked at the interrupted call, but the smile on her face did not disappear.

Holding her mobile phone, she quickly left the room and walked towards the elevator.

After a while, she came to the front desk.

“Hello miss, my friend put a gift at the front desk, let me come down and get it.”

The front desk took out the box from the drawer, and before handing it to Hazel, asked: What’s your friend’s name?

Hazel’s gaze was attracted by the box in the front desk’s hand, and the smile on her face disappeared.

This box... was the box for the mother-in-law’s bracelet!
