

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 3032

"Hey, that's weird..."

David frowned and said!

"It seems that things are more complicated than we thought..."

the old man said slowly, with a gloomy voice!

David looked around. At this time, the old devil was indeed beheaded and dissipated into a cloud of black mist!

This old devil himself is a remnant soul, but after so many years, his remnant soul seems to have materialized!

As long as this guy swallows the Bingpo Pill, he can reshape his body!

But now, the wisp of old devil's remnant soul has been wiped out, it is impossible to survive!

"Senior, what's going on?"

David asked with a puzzled look on his face!

"I was run away by him. Although he is only a wisp of remnant soul, I didn't expect that he would escape with a part of his soul!" "

Even if he only has a remnant soul left at this time, his world will not collapse!”

“However, the remaining remnant soul is no longer a threat. Its strength will be greatly reduced, and it is impossible to survive for a long time!” The old man replied slowly!

When David heard this, he didn’t expect the old devil to be so meticulous that he even separated part of his remnant soul!

But just when David was about to breathe a sigh of relief, a cold voice sounded out!

“Brother, do you underestimate me? Do you really think I will run away?”

At this moment, Jin Sha took two steps forward with a sinister smile on his face!

The rest of the Five Elements Tiansha stared blankly at Jin Sha. Although they were a little surprised, they seemed to be prepared!

Just now when Jin Sha suddenly changed his face, others saw that something was wrong!

Now it seems that this Jin Sha is indeed possessed by the old devil!

In such a short time, it should be too late to fuse, so Jin Sha should be possessed!

Looking at Jin Sha, David frowned instantly!

“You are actually possessed by other people, but you have only a trace of remnant soul left, and you can’t show your strength at all when you are possessed by others .” Beat me?”

David said quietly!

“Possession?” The corner of the old devil’s mouth twitched, “I won’t be possessed, and now this is me...” The old devil’s words immediately surprised everyone!

Obviously, this old devil didn’t possess Jin Sha, but directly killed Jin Sha’s soul!

In this way, Jin Sha’s body is only controlled by the remnant soul of the old devil, and no one is fighting for the control of his body!

If the remnant soul of the old devil left, Jin Sha would be a corpse!

The rest of the Five Elements Tiansha were shocked and angry when they heard the old devil’s words, but they had no choice. Since they chose to cooperate with the old devil, they had to cooperate to the end!

In this situation, if the old devil can win in the end, they can still survive!

In this way, even if Jin Sha himself is sacrificed, it is not impossible!

Thinking of this, the rest of the Five Elements Heavenly Demon are relieved!

After all, people don’t kill heaven and earth for themselves, let alone people like them!

“Do you think that you can deal with me like this? How strong is your only remnant soul? Even if I don’t make a move, you have no chance of winning!” David’s eyes were full of disdain

Even if it is not possessed, the old devil’s only remnant soul may not even have one percent of his real strength, so there is nothing scary at all!

"You're right, my remnant soul is nothing to be afraid of, but don't forget that I still have it..."

said the old devil, and took out the Bing Po Pill directly!

There are still some black spots on the ice potion, but it will soon become pure white!

"I originally used him to reshape my body and restore my strength. Now it seems that I can only let it restore part of my strength." "

As for reshaping my body, I'm trying to think of a new way, but today, I have to kill him." You..."

After the old devil finished speaking, he swallowed the Ice Soul Pill in one gulp!

Seeing this, David slashed out with a sword to stop it, but it was too late, the old devil had already swallowed the Bingpo Pill!
