

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2404

Married at First Sight Chapter 2404-The aunt and nephew whispered as they walked.

One said that the sister was the real mrderer, and the other said that the mother was the real mrderer.

Liberty, who was walking behind the two, couldn't laugh or cry.

The eldest sister, Liberty, was like a mother. She replaced her parents and wanted to make her younger sister, Seren, marry in a prosperous manner.

"Young lady."

Zachary arranged for the senior makeup artist who came to help Serenity put on her makeup. When she saw Serenity going downstairs, she quickly got up and said hello with a smile.

Serenity smiled back, "Ms. Goulet, good morning. I went to bed late last night and got up late this morning. Ms. Goulet, I kept you waiting for a long time."

Ms. Goulet: "Let's take a break and then start again."

People outside may not have known that Serenity was pregnant, and because Ms. Goulet wanted to help Serenity apply makeup, Zachary instructed her to use skin care products that were safe for Serenity.

Serenity: "Ms. Goulet, let's go together."

Ms. Goulet declined with a smile: "I have eaten at home before I go out."

She was often invited to do makeup for the bride, and she had to leave when she went out, so she had a very short time for breakfast.

Serenity looked at the time, it was not yet seven o'clock, she said: "Ms. Goulet, have you had breakfast so early?"

"Well, I usually go out early, so I have breakfast early."

Ms. Goulet would just eat a little at the master's house.

After Ms. Goulet finished eating, Serenity ordered the servants to treat Ms. Goulet well, and she brought Sonny into the dining hall.

The Hunt family had been bustling since yesterday.

Zachary transferred someone from Wildridge Manor to help, and Mrs. Stone was also worried that Liberty would be tired due to lack of manpower, so she also arranged for someone to come over.

Then Duncan, who was pursuing Liberty wholeheartedly, not to be outdone, not only transferred all the servants from his private villa, but also transferred some servants from the Lewis family mansion to help.

Liberty could be the commander-in-chief.

Other things were done.

Just as Serenity entered the dining hall, Elisa, who was her bridesmaid, came.

In addition to Elisa, there were also several famous daughters who were invited to be bridesmaids for Serenity.

Elisa met those famous daughters at the door of Hunt house, and they came in together.

The dresses of the bridesmaids were all placed at Hunt house, waiting for Serenity to change on the day she went out, and they did their own makeup.

At the same time, Hunts hometown.

All the members of the Hunt family gathered in the house where the old Mr. Hunt and his wife lived. This house was also the inheritance of their parents that the Serenity sisters fought for.

After a hundred years from the old Mr. Hunt and his wife, the house would be returned to the Serenity sisters, and the rest of the Hunt family would voluntarily give up the share of the two elders.

In fact, the Serenity sisters were not worried about having no place to live now, but this house was built by their parents. The family lived here, and when they came back here, they would always think of the scene when their parents were still alive.

This was the place where the two sisters remembered, and it was also the home where the two of them tried their best to keep the shadow of their parents.

Even if they wouldn't come back to live, at least when they returned to the hometown in the future, they would have a place to stay, which meant that they still had a home.

"Grandpa, tell me something, should we go to Serenity's wedding?" Mike asked Old Mr. Hunt.

Before grandpa could speak, Noah hummed: "It's okay for grandpa and grandma to go. Sister Serenity won't drive grandma out. If you go, I don't know if you will be kicked out."

Mike stared at Noah and said: "How can we say that we are also her natal family!"