Married at First Sight Chapter 2463-The door to the delivery room opened.

All the people waiting at the door gathered around.

A nurse held a child and asked Clive with a smile: "Are you Alice's family member?"

"I am her husband. Nurse, my wife gave birth? How is my wife? Can I go in and see her? ? When will she come out?" Clive asked repeatedly, never leaving his wife behind.

Liberty was squeezed to the back by the elders of the two families. Seeing how much Clive cared about Alice, she sighed in her heart that Alice was marrying the right person.

The nurse smiled and replied to Clive: "Your wife is in good condition. She gave birth to a son for you. Mother and child are safe. The baby is six pounds. Your wife will be out soon, and the baby will come out first."

After hearing that the mother and child were safe, Clive was relieved.

Everyone had smiles on their faces when they heard that Alice and her child were safe. For the new life that had just come into this world, everyone was in the mood to see the little one.

Clive took his son from the nurse's arms, and after looking at it twice, he handed the son to his mother-in-law, and said to her: "Mom, you take the baby back to the room first, I'll wait for Alice here. "

Mrs. Lafayette took her grandson in her arms and smiled happily. She felt that her grandson looked very much like her daughter. She said, "I'll wait for Alice here too."

Mrs. Lafayette's grandson came out, but her daughter was still inside.

Mrs. Lafayette handed her grandson to Audrey and Darrell, and asked them to hold the child back to the room and wait for Alice.

After the baby came out, the number of people guarding the door of the delivery room was reduced by half.

However, Audrey and Liberty quickly went to the door of the delivery room to wait for Alice to come out.

Elisa, Darrell, and Remy were in the room guarding the baby.

Zachary arrived with Serenity.

“Auntie, sister.” Serenity asked, “Did my cousin give birth?”

“Serenity, why are you here? You are pregnant and on your honeymoon. Your cousin gave birth to a son. It weighs six pounds, and mother and child are safe.”

Audrey told Serenity the result with a smile. After having a grandson, She was in a particularly good mood.

Audrey also said Zachary: “Zachary, why did you bring Old Mrs. York here? Old Mrs. York is so old, and it is so troublesome to run around like this.”

Old Mrs. York smiled and said: “I am in good health. I just want to come and see, is it a male doll? Congratulations!”

Old Mrs. York wanted to know earlier whether the Stone family added a grandson or a granddaughter.

In fact, looking at Alice’s belly, Old Mrs. York guessed that Alice had given birth to a son.

“I’m fine, my cousin has given birth. I always come over to see her. Auntie, cousin, congratulations!” Serenity said with a smile.

Zachary also congratulated Clive.

Clive just smiled, still staring at the delivery room.

Audrey said to Zachary: “Your cousin is worried about Alice and doesn’t want to talk. Don’t argue with him too much.”

“Auntie, I can understand.” Zachary expressed his understanding.

Clive was notoriously doting on his wife. The couple decided to have a child after many years of marriage. After Alice became pregnant, she kept vomiting.

Clive was happy because he could finally look forward to the birth of his child, but he also felt bad for his beloved wife.
