

Mistaken Marriage, Unexpected Love

Chapter 128

Chapter 128 Painstaking Efforts

Trudy didn't give the lawyer the chance to do his job. She grabbed the document from his hand, opened it and started reading anxiously.

She was so excited and ready to see for herself that Marvin gave everything to her and her son

However, the more she read, the more her face paled

By the time she was done, all the colour had drained from her face

"No, it's impossible. Marvin wouldn't do this to me. This has to be a fake! Yes, it's a fake!" she shouted hysterically and tore up the document

Strangely, the lawyer didn't stop her. But that was because it was only a copy

He still had the original copy

"You must have conspired with these witches to set me up!" she continued, glaring at the lawyer. Then, she turned abruptly and pointed at Camila and Rowena. "Both of you... I know you're the ones behind this."

Camila really didn't have the time to argue with Trudy. So, she ignored her and asked the lawyer to go on

But Trudy wasn't having any of it. She was about to stop the reading again, but Aldrin stopped her. "Mom, dad trusted Mr. Abdul the most

when he was alive

Mr. Abdul wouldn't lie. Please, don't cause any trouble."

"Aldrin, I'm your mother..."

"I know that. But there's no need making a fuss now, is there?" Aldrin raised his eyebrows at her

Trudy was speechless

Left with no choice, she sat down and listened to the lawyer as he read the will

"Entrusted by Marvin Haynes, I'm here to announce his will on the distribution of his property. The Haynes family house, fund and savings of the family will all be handed over to Rowena Haynes, his wife. Aldrin will get half the shares of the company.

However, Aldrin is not allowed to interfere in the company's affairs unless Camila gives him the right to. As such, during this period, all the company's affairs will be handled by Camila. As already mentioned, Aldrin will own half of the company shares, but he won't have any say in it until Camila says he is entitled."

The expression on Aldrin's face didn't change

He wasn't even angry

Trudy on the other hand, was so angry that her beet red face almost looked distorted

The lawyer looked at Camila and gave a letter. "He also left something for you." Camila took the letter and looked at the lawyer with questions on her face

The lawyer just nodded at the letter in her hand and said, "He surely wanted to tell you something important."

Camila pursed her lips and opened the letter, apprehending what she was going to see inside

After reading through everything, she closed the letter

She looked back up at the lawyer and asked, "You know what to do, don't you?" Marvin trusted the lawyer a lot

He nodded. "I do. I can start right away. I just need your consent."

"You have it," she said simply without hesitation

"What are you going to do?" Rowena asked curiously

Camila looked at her mother and explained, "Trudy tried killing me but failed However, that is still a crime. Dad found the evidence of her guilt. Mr. Abdul will report it to the police and act as my lawyer too."

Trudy fell to the floor. That was just too much

Not only did Marvin not leave her anything, but he also wanted to send her to jail?

She hated him so much!

So she got nothing at the end of all these?

"Mom, did you really do that?" Aldrin asked in disbelief

He knew that his mother was up to something, but he could have never imagined that she would try to kill Camila!

Trudy was not reconciled. "Yes, I'm afraid that she will fight for the property with you. As expected, your father is biased toward her. He gave everything to them. He didn't take us two seriously at all!

Look, he wants to send me to jail!" Aldrin's eyes darkened

He pushed Trudy away and snarled, "How could you do that? Even if Camila is not your daughter, she is still my half-sister. How can you be so cruel? No wonder dad left you with nothing. You deserve to be punished!"

Trudy widened her eyes in disbelief. Even her son was against her now?

"Ah!" she screamed and started crying. "Why should I go on living then? A man has delayed me for a lifetime and now, my only son hates me. I should just die now!"

Trudy cried bitterly

Aldrin's words hurt

They hurt more than he could imagine

Camila stood up and said to Trudy indifferently, "You have to bear the consequences of what you have done. If it'll make you feel better, take it like something you are doing for your son."

She turned to Rowena and said, "Let's go, mom."

Rowena nodded, and they both left the Haynes house

Now that Marvin was dead, the Haynes house was bleak

"What did your father say in the letter?" Rowena asked curiously

She wanted to ask as soon as Camila read the letter, but Trudy and her son

were around too

"Dad pleaded with me to take care of Aldrin," Camila answered

Rowena scoffed. "What the hell was he thinking?

Entrusting you with Aldrin? Did he really think you'll agree to it? Even if you do, I won't agree or let you." Aldrin was brought up by Trudy. He should have grabbed all of her character

"Dad gave evidence to prove Trudy's guilt and in exchange, asked that I take care of Aldrin," Camila said.

Honestly, Camila felt like Marvin had been ruthless

Trudy had stayed with him since she was young and even gave birth to his son

How could he leave nothing for her?

She did feel very sad for the woman

Men could be cruel. Her father had shown how much that was true

Rowena nodded in understanding. "So he decided to avenge you just so you would take care of Aldrin?"

Camila nodded. Well, that was the way she saw it

"Mom, have you ever loved my dad?" she suddenly asked Rowena pursed her lips tightly!

After a pause, she said with a depressed sigh, "I'm sure I loved him at one point. If not I wouldn't have married him, right? I didn't divorce him when I found out he had a woman outside, but that was only because I still expected something from him."

"So, you hate him?"

"He's dead, Camila. There's nothing to hate. After my close call with death, I have thought it through." Rowena was more open-minded now

Maybe she hated him before with all he did, but now that he was gone, she decided to let the past rest

Mr. Abdul was very effective. In just a matter of days, he dealt with Trudy easily. It was even easier with the evidence of her guilt and because she was so disheartened, she didn't fight back

Camila grew up in the Haynes family house. Maybe

Marvin gave the house to Rowena hoping that it would remain in the family and would never be sold

With this in mind, Camila decided to move in with Rowena and Joe

It was a solution to her housing problem. She no longer had to buy a house

The only problem she had now was that she didn't know how to do business

Marvin didn't make the right choice leaving the company in her hands

However, he was gone and she couldn't contest his decision. She could only try to live up to his expectations.

Once Aldrin could make it on his own, she would hand it over to him and continue with her profession as a doctor

Actually, it worked out for the best since Marvin did this because he wanted to hand over the company to Adrin once he was grown up

Now, Aldrin just needed to be trained and do well

Marvin had given his all for this company. As his daughter, she had to fulfil his last wish

Isaac was the only one that came to her mind when she thought of someone that was good at business. But he was very busy and she didn't want to bother him. So, she thought of Willie

She went to the Paramount Corporation

She wanted to ask Willie for advice

"Let's go to my office,' Willie said

Camila nodded and followed him

When they were both in the elevator, Willie asked, "What brings you here? Isn't it better for you to see Mr.

Johnson?"

Camila hadn't mentioned the divorce yet, but she hadn't forgotten what Robin said that day

She tried her best not to spend time with Isaac. If not, the feelings she had for him would only grow, and it would hurt more when they

finally separated

The elevator stopped with a 'ding'

Camila followed behind Willie and went out

As soon as she looked up, she saw Isaac standing not far away. There was another person standing next to him

Camila squinted her eyes. She knew who that person was
