I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2261

The fact that the young man in front of him could take out a soul weed and give it to the little girl in his arms as a snack showed that he was not ordinary.

At least, Brutus and his friends could not do this.

Even though the forces behind them were the rule makers of the city under their feet, they could still not take out a treasure of heaven and earth at the level of a soul weed.

The identity of this person was definitely not simple.

Brutus and others might get into trouble this time.

“Since you insist on waiting here, then there is nothing I can do about this. If there is anything you need, I will try my best to satisfy you. As a bystander, in fact, I also hope that you can teach Brutus and the others a lesson so that they will control themselves in the future and stop being so arrogant and domineering.”

Knowing that David’s identity was not simple, the owner did not continue to persuade him to leave.

Secretly, he was looking forward to the moment when the two sides collided.

“What do I need? I just want to have a quiet meal.”

“Sir, follow me to the third floor! The environment there will be better,” the owner suggested.

The third floor was where VIPs dine.

“No, it’s fine here.” David refused.

“Sir, enjoy your meal then. I won’t bother you anymore, just ask if you need anything. I’ll be at your service any time.”

After finishing speaking, he bowed, stepped back, and left the second floor.

At the same time, the waiter asked the customers in the entire inn to leave for the time being.

If there was a fight later, the consequences would be unpredictable.

It would be bad if they injured a customer.

The boss was quite responsible too.

After the meal, David and the others did not leave but waited patiently.

Soon there was movement outside the inn.

A crowd of hundreds of people surrounded the inn so much that it was impenetrable.

Fortunately, the owner asked all the guests to evacuate earlier.

Otherwise, they would not be able to leave after it was surrounded like this.

David and others stayed on the second floor.

Outside were the guards of several major families in the area.

Beyond that were the onlookers.

Everyone looked in front of them curiously while discussing amongst themselves. Those who did not understand what was going on would ask the people next to them.

Brutus and others did not drive these onlookers away either.

They had embarrassed themselves so naturally, they wanted to regain their prestige as everyone watched.

They had to show everyone how powerful they were today.

Then, a group of people walked into the inn.

The leaders were the men who lost and left earlier.

Yet this time, in addition to bringing hundreds of guards, there were more than 20 powerhouses from their respective families.

A team of about thirty people walked into the inn and went to the second floor where David was.

Everyone outside quietly waited.

Suddenly...

Bang! Bang! Bang!

“Ah!”

All kinds of noises could be heard.

Immediately, all the windows on the second floor of the inn were broken and people started to fly out of the shattered windows.

The people below quickly made way for a clearing.

Then, the people who flew out of the second-floor windows landed in the clearing.

Everyone looked.

They had no idea if the people on the ground were dead or alive. They were Brutus and his friends, along with the powerhouses they brought with them.

Then David’s voice boomed. “I need a reasonable explanation today. If not, your families won’t need to exist anymore. Scram!”

The last word sounded like it came from heaven. His voice caused the hundred-plus guards surrounding the inn to fly ten meters back.

The strange thing was that the onlookers were not affected at all.

Everyone was very shocked.

‘Who is this person? He’s so strong!’
