

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2376

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2376-She felt that she was too sensitive.

David was not weak. After all, he was still young, so he would not be heaven-defyingly strong.

If David wanted to discover his current self, he needed to have at least the soul power of Overlord Realm level.

'He is still so young, so does he have the soul power of Overlord Realm?'

'It was just a coincidence.'

'David was only looking at me unconsciously.'

Elora stared at David a little longer, as if wanting to imprint his face into her heart.

After bidding farewell to David today, she did not know if she would still see him again.

Even if she could, she did not know when.

The battle between Leila and the Robotias and the Soul Devourers would not end in a day or two, or even a year or two.

A war of aggression between level 9 civilizations like this could take a hundred years, or even tens of thousands of years to determine the outcome.

'Time to say goodbye,' Elora murmured.

Then a green light appeared on her body.

Her originally mature body turned into a little girl in her teens.

If David was here, he would be able to recognize her at a glance. Who else if not Pebbles?

'Davey, I have to go. Important things are waiting for me and it is a matter of Leila's life and death, so I must leave. I hope we will meet again in the future. I will tell you everything when the time comes. If it doesn't happen, let us forget each other and treat these two years as a dream!"

Pebbles was saying her last goodbye to David, but she did not dare to say it to his face.

Then, the green light faded away.

The small body disappeared completely and left The Spirit Cage forcibly.

Relying on the system, a product of the God Tier Civilization, David could ignore the rules of The Spirit Cage and shuttle back and forth between the real world and The Spirit Cage, anytime and anywhere.

Meanwhile, Elora relied on her powerful soul power to forcibly break away from The Spirit Cage.

The two seemed different but had the same effect.

They did not need a descending point to leave The Spirit Cage.

At this moment, David's heart shook.

Instinctively, he felt as if something important had left him.

At the same time, the powerful energy locked on him disappeared.

David turned his head hastily and looked in the direction of the figure. There was nothing there. As if it had never been.

'Who could that be?'

He was 100% sure that he had never encountered such a powerful person, whether in Star Kingdom or The Spirit Cage.

That hidden figure felt familiar, which confused him.

Faced with this stronger person but unsure if friend or foe, David did not dare interact rashly. Therefore, he could only use the system to hide obediently to avoid any unnecessary accidents.

He believed in the ability of the system. No one could discover his actual strength without him intentionally exposing it.

If David was not so cautious, he would have exposed his strength and confronted Elora.

'Since you're watching me and sounding me out, I would like to see who you are.'

If that was the case, Elora would not be in such a hurry to leave.

What did the soul power of an Overlord represent?

As one of the five Leila rulers, how could Empress Elora not know?

David was someone powerful and destined to break through to Overlord Realm.

Even if not now, he would definitely become a real Overlord in the future.

Such a person would be a great help to Leila, who was currently in a crisis.

It might be too much to say that he could turn the situation around, but he could, at the very least, greatly increase the odds of winning rate.

A real Overlord was more effective than dozens of partial Overlords in a battle between level 9 civilizations.

If Elora knew that David had the soul power of an Overlord, there was a high probability that Elora would convince David to participate in the next battle to defend his homeland!