I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2385-As Alba was focused on reading the secret scrolls in the Fellowes family's secret room on the Central Sacred Continent, she suddenly heard a voice.

"Long time no see, Miss Fellowes!"

The owner of the voice was naturally David.

The Fellowes family's secret room could not stop an Overlord like him.

If David wanted to go anywhere in Star Kingdom, it would only take him seconds.

If he completely released his soul power without reservation, Star Kingdom would not be able to hide any secrets from him.

However, David did not want to do that.

Everyone had their secrets. Furthermore, it was immoral to probe other people's secrets without permission.

Alba was shocked.

She was familiar with this voice.

It was not an exaggeration to say that she was yearning for it day and night.

However, this was the secret room of the Fellowes family, how did he get in?

Turning her head slowly, she saw that familiar face appearing in her eyes.

"M-Master David, you... why are you here?" Alba's eyes widened in disbelief.

"What? Miss Fellowes, do you not welcome your old friend?" David asked with a smile.

"I do! Of course, I do! Why would I not welcome you? Your arrival is such a huge blessing for my entire family," Alba said, flustered.

She would never imagine that David would come to find her.

When they parted ways at the Iridescent Sect, she thought that it would be difficult for them to meet again in the future.

So, she never thought that after only a year, David would be here on his own initiative.

Alba was flattered.

She felt even more thrilled and excited than when she took over her family.

“Miss Fellowes, you don’t have to be so polite with me. We are old friends. When I was in trouble back then, it was all thanks to you that I was able to save myself from danger and recover to where I am today. I, David Lidell, am not ungrateful. Miss Fellowes, I will always remember your kindness.” David’s expression became serious.

He was sincerely grateful to Alba.

If she hadn’t helped him at the critical moment, he had no idea where he would be right now.

Therefore, he had to reserve two clones for Alba for selfdefense.

As long as she did not leave Star Kingdom, a clone with an Overlord’s strength was enough to deal with all crises.

“Master David, stop teasing me. Even without me, I believe that you can easily solve all the troubles. I only took care of the trivial things for you.” Alba had a wry smile on her face.

David’s words made her feel ashamed.

Alba felt that she genuinely did not help David much and that she was just doing odd jobs.

However, she had no idea that helping David spend money, persuading the Fellowes family to let him take a stake in the Treasure Trove, and allowing David to get a large number of lavish points was the greatest help to him.

Lavish points were the foundation for David becoming stronger.

Without lavish points, how could David get to where he was now?

“No, no, no! Miss Fellowes, you have done more than enough. It’s inappropriate to say more but in short, you’ve helped me a lot. The purpose of my coming to you this time is to give you something for self-defense. When you encounter danger in the future, you can untie this and it will definitely help you resolve the crisis.”

As David spoke, he took out two wooden boxes and handed them to Alba.

After Alba took the boxes, she observed them and asked, “Master David, what are these and how should I use them?”

Since they were from David, she surely believe him.

With David’s strength and status, there was no need for him to play her for a fool.

“There is a clone of me sealed inside the boxes. When you encounter danger, you can untie the seal and release him.”

“Master David’s clones?” Alba’s eyes lit up.

“Yes, my clones, but after they leave me, they can’t think independently. Their only function is to execute the order of the person who lifted the seal. Moreover, they will only exist for one hour. After that, they will automatically dissipate as soon as the time is up.”
