I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2395-Elora answered Sylvio's three questions with three 'Yes' responses.

After Sylvio got the answer he wanted, he was silent for a while. Then, he continued to ask, "Elora, have you ever thought about what would happen if Lufian knew about this matter?"

"I know Lufian will not be able to accept it, so I'm not going to tell him for the time being. I'll just delay this for as long as I can," Elora replied helplessly.

She could not think of a solution for this matter. The only thing she could do was to procrastinate.

Anyway, she would never meet David unless she had settled her affairs with Lufian.

Otherwise, if Lufian knew of David's existence, he would find and kill David regardless.

"If Lufian finds out about this, it's not a question of whether he can accept it, but it will trigger the other personality in him. As for not telling him, he will find out about your attitude sooner or later."

"Sylvio, if Lufian found out about this and his other personality got triggered, I hope you can control him like last time and suppress him. Don't let him run amok in Leila, otherwise, he will cause countless deaths and injuries," Elora pleaded.

"You're thinking about this too simply. Lufian is very good at hiding and his talent is far beyond your imagination. Plus, he is also very strong. If his other personality comes out, I may not be able to suppress him." Sylvio shook his head with a bitter smile.

Sylvio was the most optimistic about Lufian amongst the other four of Leila's Overlords.

He was quite talented, and his perseverance was also so strong that it was terrifying.

Otherwise, he would not have pursued Elora for hundreds of thousands of epochs without giving up.

In addition, he had a pretty high power of understanding too.

If he was cultivated properly, he would surely become Leila's pillar and a huge force of deterrence.

Unfortunately, Lufian had a dual personality and they were completely different.

It was almost like they were polar opposites.

Once it was triggered and if his other personality got the upper hand, it would have serious consequences.

It happened once and he was forcibly suppressed by Sylvio.

However, if it happened again, Sylvio had no idea if he could suppress Lufian again.

That was what he was really worried about.

"What? Sylvio, are you kidding me? You can't suppress Lufian anymore? How is this possible? If you can't suppress him, who else in Star Kingdom can?" Elora exclaimed.

She, who had always been as calm as water, finally experienced violent mood swings.

It seemed that she could not believe what Sylvio was saying.

She was hoping that Sylvio could help him if David was exposed.

If even Sylvio could not do anything, did that mean that no one in Leila would be able to suppress Lufian?

"I won't say that I definitely can't. It's just that Lufian is hiding very deeply so I can't guarantee anything."

"W-What should I do then?" Elora asked anxiously. She was still in disbelief.

“Elora, if you want to hide this from Lufian, you must first change your attitude. You can’t act like you did just now. With Lufian’s suspicious character, he may have noticed something is wrong. If you want to buy time, you must restore your previous attitude towards him and give him a little illusion. No matter what, you have to wait until after we get through the crisis with the Robotias and the Soul Devourers. There must be no accidents at this juncture,” Sylvio patiently explained.

“I understand, Sylvio! Don’t worry! I will change and I will never let Lufian find anything abnormal again.” Elora calmed down and nodded.

She knew what Sylvio meant and she also knew Lufian.

If Lufian discovered David’s existence and knew how she felt, there was no doubt that his other violent personality would be triggered.
