I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2477-When Lufian heard Sylvio telling him not to go to Elora for the time being, he did not know Sylvio's intention.

So, he asked anxiously, "Sylvio, what is the meaning of this? Are you seriously telling me not to go to Elora for the time being? Her soul has been severely damaged and she needs me. If I don't go, what will happen to her?"

Valentin and Drogo also cast puzzled glances at them.

"Lufian, don't panic! Listen to me," Sylvio replied patiently.

"How can I not panic? We don't know if Elora is alive or dead and I can't do anything here. Now, you're telling me not to go to her! How can I not panic? Did something happen to Elora? Sylvio, tell me the truth, did something happen to Elora? Is that why you're asking me to not go to her?"

As Lufian said that, his face became contorted as if he could not suppress the violent personality in his body again.

"Lufian, pull yourself together! Listen to me!" Sylvio shouted when he saw this.

This roar pulled Lufian back from the brink of a rampage.

When it came to matters related to Elora, he would be easily agitated. When he got agitated, the violent personality in his body would take over.

"Hiss... Huff... Hiss..."

Lufian took a few deep breaths. After gradually calming himself down, he asked, "Sylvio, I'm sorry, I was too emotional just now. Tell me, I'm all ears."

Only then did Sylvio explain, "Elora's soul did suffer a lot of trauma, but after she was swallowed by the super black hole produced by the self-destruction of the Robotia Lv 6, she went to another place. According to the hexagrams of Zwei Arithmetics, Elora will encounter her opportunity in that place. If you go to her now, it will ruin her opportunity and make her lose the chance to break through. Are you sure you want to do this?"

"S-Sylvio, a-are you telling the truth?" Lufian asked in disbelief.

“Of course! Ever since we met, when have I ever lied to you? I believe that soon, you will see a brand new Elora when she returns. All you need to do now is to heal your injuries as soon as possible so that we can deal with the Soul Devourers and the Robotias’s collaboration and wait for Elora to return,” Sylvio said affirmatively.

Lufian was silent for a while. He was wondering whether he should believe Sylvio’s words.

In theory, he should believe Sylvio.

Zwei Arithmetics should not be wrong after all, unless it met a forbidden technique of the same level or someone stronger than the person using the technique.

Stark of the Soul Devourers should have obtained a forbidden technique of the same level as Zwei Arithmetics from the remains of a God Tier Civilization.

As for someone stronger than Sylvio, there might not be many in this vast universe.

However, Lufian was also a little selfish.

He wanted to help Elora when she needed it most so he could overcome Elora’s resistance in one fell swoop and win herover.

If Sylvio was telling the truth, wouldn’t it be counterproductive if he went to find Elora and destroy her chance?

After some contemplation, Lufian finally chose to believe Sylvio and decided not to look for Elora for the time being, but to heal his injury first.

“Since you say so, of course, I believe you! I will not do anything that will hurt Elora.”

“That’s good! Lufian, don’t worry, I will keep an eye on Elora. If there is any new situation, I will notify you immediately. Now, your main task is to recover from your injuries. We still have a tough battle to fight.”

Sylvio also secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

He was afraid that Lufian would be stubborn and insisted on finding Elora. That would be troublesome.

There could be no mistakes at this point.

“Alright! Sylvio, Valentin, Drogo, I’ll go and recover from my injuries now.”

“Goodbye! Keep in touch!” Sylvio nodded.
