I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2554-Valentin and Drogo did not speak.

They waited for Sylvio to finish.

“Do you remember that when Lufian went mad, he caused the death of countless creatures?” Sylvio asked, looking at the two.

“Of course, I remember! That scene was like hell and I will never forget it.” Valentin recalled.

At the same time, there was a trace of fear on his face.

It could be seen how he was traumatized by Lufian going mad the last time.

One must know that Valentin was an Overlord.

Anyone who reached this stage would have gone through a lot.

How gory and cruel would it have to be to traumatize him so much?

The same went for Drogo next to him.

He also recalled the scene at that time.

Immediately, the two of them suddenly thought of something. Their bodies shook as they asked in unison, ” Sylvio, has Lufian gone mad again?”

After Lufian went crazy, Sylvio kept him under control. Both Valentin and Drogo suggested then that Lufian should be completely wiped out.

In the end, Sylvio promised that Lufian would not do this again, so they dismissed the idea and Lufian did not go crazy again. Until now.

Was it happening again?

“It’s more serious than going crazy,” Sylvio replied.

Immediately, he began to explain.

Lufian had the extremely rare dual souls in the universe.

One was his original normal personality, while the other was the violent personality that lost reason.

When Lufian was triggered, the berserk personality would emerge and take control of the body.

The body's strength would soar, but at the same time, he would also lose his mind. He would kill crazily and destroy everything in sight.

Originally, Lufian had managed to completely suppress the violent personality.

However, because Elora failed to restore her body and Lufian thought it was due to his lack of strength, he forced himself to achieve Heavenly Overlord Rank. He was about to fail at the end.

At this moment, Lufian's violent personality jumped out and merged with Lufian's normal personality. Then, they successfully broke through to Heavenly Overlord in one fell swoop.

As Sylvio described it, Valentin and Drogo's eyes were wide and their mouths gaped. Their eyes were also full of disbelief.

Both of them now realized that there was a more terrible crisis than the Robotias and the Soul Devourers joining forces.

"S-Sylvio! Y-You mean that Lufian's personalities were fused and he may go berserk at any time? Not only that, but he also attained Heavenly Overlord Rank?" asked a stammering Drogo.

"Exactly!"

"W-Well, Lufian has become a Heavenly Overlord now, so if he goes berserk, who can suppress him?" Valentin also asked aloud.

"No one. Not even me. It can even be said that we're just cannon fodder if we attack a Heavenly Overlord like him together." Sylvio shook his head.

"W-What should we do then? I said at the beginning that we should resolve Lufian as the uncertain factor once and for all. You didn't listen, saying that Lufian is extremely talented and that he's useful to Leila if he's used well. Now look! The whole of Leila may be destroyed in his hands," Valentin could not stop himself from complaining.

“That’s enough, Valentin, what’s the point of talking about it now? The most important thing now is to find a solution to the problem,” Drogo said.

“Lufian has become a Heavenly Overlord. What else can we do aside from waiting for death? Should we kneel in front of him and pray that he won’t go berserk?”

“Stop arguing. I didn’t think carefully enough about this matter! I thought that with my strength and the blessing of Zwei Arithmetics, I could completely control Lufian, but I didn’t expect this kid to grow up so fast that he has far surpassed me,” Sylvio sighed.

If he knew this would happen, he would have dealt with Lufian immediately to avoid future trouble.

In the end, Sylvio was too confident in himself.

He did not think a kid would be able to achieve too much. As a result, he was almost killed by that kid just now.
