

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2371

Chapter 2371

"Leon beat the Demon Lord and the Southern Boss!" "How's that possible?!"

Arthur, Angus, and all the Hiltons and Spears were stunned.

They all gaped at Leon in disbelief. Though Leon was capable of taking the Demon Lord and the Southern Boss on, they all brushed it off as arrogance.

None of them ever expected Leon to be right and to eliminate the Demon Lord all by himself.

It was so surreal that none of them could believe what they just witnessed.

"Great!"

"Mister Wolf, you're amazing!"

Arthur and Angus all snapped out of it in excitement.

They all thought that Leon was surely going to perish and would drag the Thompsons down along with him for refusing to retreat.

It was not until this moment that they finally understood that Leon was capable of accomplishing what happened; they all underestimated Leon.

The Demon Lord, who was the most powerful individual on the battlefield, and even the Southern Boss were severely injured.

It seemed highly likely for the Thompsons to win and they were all thrilled.

"Oh no!" Contrary to their joy, the Hiltons and Spears were all stunned.

They never imagined that the Demon Lord and the Southern Boss would lose to a young man like Leon, so this caught them by surprise.

None of them understood how Leon conjured such a powerful Potential Energy Force, so none of them could accept what just happened. To make matters worse, with the Demon Lord dead and the Southern Boss badly injured, their advantage over the Thompsons vanished for the most part.

They could all tell that they had no means to fight Leon and the Thompsons, let alone eliminate them, so there was no doubt that they would soon be defeated.

"As expected of the Potential Energy Force Master Haslewood gave me!" Leon sighed a breath of relief.

He was initially worried that the Potential Energy Force might not be sufficient to take the Demon Lord and the Southern Boss down.

The reality proved that the Potential Energy Force was far more powerful than Leon originally pictured; though the Southern Boss was not killed on the spot, Leon was satisfied that the Demon Lord was taken down.

With the Demon Lord gone, the Southern Boss was powerless.
