The Secret Heir Return To Wealth And Love Chapter 1231

Chapter 1231

At first, George thought it was Wayne and Rosalynn who were messing things up behind his back

But then a friend of his who worked in a top law firm let him in on the secret the reason why he was being rejected by several big law firms was actually quite simple “They think you’re bullying kids, so they’re dead set against representing you!”

George was gobsmacked. Him, bullying kids?.

Take a look at the current situation, who’s bullying who here!

Two days later, George finally snapped out of it. He regretted his tweet that day and a series of things that followed, but it was too late now

Worse still before he could find a lawyer, he first received a legal notice from Wayne’s lawyer.

Wayne’s lawyer skipped the lawyer’s letter step and directly filed a lawsuit.

The lawsuit was based on George’s sarcastic comments online and liking posts about his feud with Wayne

These actions constituted defamation and slander

Of course, in Wayne’s usual style, this matter would not end so easily

But his wife had already said she wanted to listen to the kids.

Since his daughter’s art exhibition was about to begin, he didn’t have much time to care about these boring people’s life or death, he decided to leave the matter entirely to his legal team.

The venue for Ivy's art exhibition was decided several months ago.

The exhibition started promoting two months ago.

Although Ivy didn't have much standing in the art circle, quite a few people still really liked her paintings

So there were quite a few people booking to see the exhibition, and quite a few people asked whether there were paintings available for purchase at this exhibition. The day before the exhibition started. Wayne and Rosalynn went to do the final check together.

The whole exhibition venue was decorated in Ivy's painting style.

From a distance, the exhibition venue was colorful, and people felt as if they had come to a different dimension.

"Ma: Jared!" Calvin saw Rosalynn and Wayne and immediately ran over, "Everything inside is arranged, the paintings to be exhibited have also been sent over, as soon as time comes [I'll have people hang them!]"

Rosalynn smiled "Alright"

"I have something else to do on my end, you guys have a look first." Calvin said, then hurried off.

Ever since Calvin lost his memory, apart from the day Ivy was kidnapped by Olivia, he seemed to be very happy every day.

Rosalynn and Wayne went into the inner venue together.

Although the paintings hadn't been put up yet, the cleaning had been thoroughly completed, compared to the bustle outside, this place was more simple and pure, Bundles of lights shone on the white walls, the illuminated places were all places to hang paintings.

"How wonderful, my daughter is really going to hold an art exhibition." Rosalynn said.

Wayne held her hand “This is just the beginning, in the future more people will see Ivy’s beautiful paintings.”

Rosalynn looked at Wayne and nodded with a smile.

Then, the two of them carefully checked all the details, after making sure nothing was missed, they prepared to leave.

As they passed the stage curtain, Rosalynn stopped

“What’s wrong? Wayne asked

Rosalynn looked up at the curtain, where a lamp was hanging.

There was no wind in the room, but Rosalynn felt the lamp seemed to be swaying.

Tomorrow, Ivy and all the guests attending the exhibition will give speeches here

Chapter 1232

“Calvin Rosalynn called out, turning her head.

“What’s up?” asked Calvin

“Can you take down this lamp? I think it doesn’t match the overall decor Rosalynn said,

Without questioning Calvin went to find someone to dismantle the lamp.

After a while, a tall skinny man came over.

“This lamp is really nice, why do you want to take it down? The man said with a smile, “We chose for a long time to find this lamp that the designer wanted: Rosalynn didn’t say she felt the lamp was unsafe.

She said. “I’m not a fan can you take it down, please?

The man wanted to say something more, but Calvin was already getting impatient.

“Taking down a lamp is no big deal. Go fetch a ladder, I’ll do it myself!”

“No, no, let me handle it, don’t bother yourself!”

The man quickly waved his hand, then hurriedly brought a ladder, and carefully took down the lamp.

“What a beautiful lamp..

He muttered and walked to the side, then found a dust cover to wrap the lamp

“You don’t like that lamp Wayne asked, “We have two in our house, I can have them replaced.”

Rosalynn and Calvin waved goodbye, then Rosalynn pulled Wayne away, saying as they walked, “I’m worried the lamp might fall and be dangerous.

Wayne nodded

He said, “It does look a bit unsafe, you’re thinking ahead?”

Afterwards, the two left together.

The man who just dismantled the lamp took it back to the warehouse, then he took out his phone and sent a message: “Plan failed. Rosalynn had me take down the lamp “Plan failed? What were you doing?” The reply came.

The man frowned. “I was being very careful, if I hadn’t reacted quickly, they would’ve found that the lamp had been tampered with!”

“Find another way!”

“There’s no other way, you’re not here, you don’t know how good their security is, they don’t even allow outside tools...

“I don’t care, one of the two kids has to die, to be buried with that kid!

The man was helpless, he hated tasks that involved killing children and pregnant women

It’s too cruel, No matter how much money he was offered, it would still make him uneasy

“Fine, I got it, I’ll do my best!”

“Don’t forget your kid is still in my hands. Hurry up, or I’ll send your kid down to accompany my wife and child

The man frowned deeply

Damn it! This guy’s ex-wife is already dead, and he’s still going mad over her

This guy’s madness is one thing.

He had decided not to kill anymore, to live a good life with the child he adopted. But this man kidnapped his child without warning, forcing him to kill again, and the two were young children!

“What are you doing here?” someone said.

The man seemed a bit impatient, he put down his phone, the smile no longer on his face.

“Calvin, I’m putting this lamp in the warehouse, I’ll be right there!”
