

Chapter 1439 Misunderstanding

A hint of shock flashed across Brandon's eyes

He never expected the situation to be blown out of proportion when it reached Janet's parents

Johanna and Beal believed that he delayed his search for Janet as he became entangled with Corrine
No wonder they were so angry. After all, no one would treat their son-in-law nicely when he abandoned their daughter

Brandon turned to Britton and immediately understood Britton's intentions

Britton had deliberately fabricated some news to sow discord between him and his in-laws. He wanted to drive them apart!

Naturally, Brandon refused to be caught up in Britton's schemes. He cleared his throat and said solemnly, "Johanna, Beal, please trust me. I am not involved with Corrine. I'm only staying here because the people in Darkmoon promised to lend a hand in finding Janet. As soon as we find her, I will leave immediately."

Brandon then glanced coldly at Britton, and continued bluntly, "As for why I'm staying at Darkmoon, I'm sure you already know, since you were there during our discussion."

Britton's face became darker as his intentions were exposed. However, he remained silent and smiled coldly

Brandon sneered and continued, "I'm staying at Darkmoon only because Britton promised that as long as I win the boxing game, he will lend me his men to find Janet." 2

Johanna took a tissue from Laney and wiped her tears. "Is it true that Corinne was responsible for Janet's disappearance?" she asked doubtfully

"Johanna, I will do a thorough investigation and give you a proper explanation after I find Janet. Please trust me," Brandon replied respectfully

Johanna and Beal exchanged glances and nodded. tell Brandon was genuinely concerned about Janet

"Fine, we will wait for your explanation when Janet is found," said Beal

Brandon breathed a sigh of relief

Brandon felt touched by their offer

While everyone was offering their help to find Janet, only Britton was frowning at the group

He watched them with a dark face as he clenched his fists resentfully

He had spent a lot of effort grooming Brandon to inherit the Darkmoon

However, Brandon not only betrayed the Darkmoon, but also humiliated him in front of so many people

Brandon was neither aware of Britton's thoughts nor did he c the others, he brought them to the accommodation he arranged

Britton watched them leave with hatred in his eyes. After thinking for a moment, he called for Corinne

Corinne was puzzled by the vagueness of his words. "Grandpa, what do you mean?" she asked cautiously

Britton eyes were gleaming as he chuckled sinisterly, king that you two should get married. What do you say?"

Corinne brightened up, but her mood graduall

Corinne looked at Britton in shock. "But Grandpa, Brandon would hate me for that!" she exclaimed

However, Corinne stubbornly refused, "I'm sorry, Grandpa. I cannot do that."

"Don't you like Brandon? Don't you want to be with him?" Britton asked in shock
