An understated Dominance – Dahlia and Dustin Chapter 1447

Duke's scrutinizing eyes made Dustin feel a surge of inexplicable pressure.

However, he had already expected such a scene, and although he was quite surprised, he remained calm on the surface.

"The younger generation has heard of the Duke's name for a long time, but has never seen it with his own eyes. Maybe the younger generation has a public face, so the Duke feels familiar." Dustin explained neither humble nor overbearing.

Ten years have passed, and he has undergone earth-shaking changes no matter his height, appearance, or temperament.

Even if it is a close friend from the past, it is impossible to recognize it at a glance.

"Yeah?"

Duke looked at it from beginning to end again, and said calmly: "Maybe."

"Grandpa, Dustin is amazing. He has both civil and military skills, and is proficient in medical skills. He has helped me many times before. Looking at the whole Stonia, it is difficult to find a young talent who is better than him." Natasha introduced braggingly.

She never spared no effort in promoting her own man.

"Hehe...You girl, you are exaggerating."

Duke shook his head and smiled: "Stonia has Hidden Dragon Crouching Tiger, there are countless powerful people. Even though this kid has some skills, he is still far behind those top talents."

"Grandpa, I know you don't believe it now, but you will understand soon." Natasha smiled mysteriously.

She didn't explain too much, because many things had to be seen with her own eyes before she could truly believe them.

She can be sure that Dustin will give her grandfather a big, big surprise one day sooner or later.

"Okay, okay, take a seat first."

Duke greeted, and sat down comfortably with several people.

The guards behind him stood on the left and right, alert to any abnormalities around them.

"Liam Bryant, you can start now."

Natasha smiled lightly, as if watching a play.

"start?"

Liam Bryant's eyes twitched.

How to start? Connor Bryant was defeated, fighting alone, no one is Dustin's opponent right now.

Unless Oscar Bryant arrived in time, he might be killed today.

"Fifth Bryant, what's the matter? Didn't you guys ask for a fight? Why didn't you respond? You don't want my grandpa to come here in a happy mood and return in a bad mood, right?" Natasha curled her lips.

"this....."

Liam Bryant's face was stiff and sweat began to form on his forehead.

Who would have thought that a match between the juniors would startle a big guy like Duke?

The current situation is beyond his control.

There is no way to retreat now, so I can only bite the bullet and push up.

“Which one of you wants to go up and compete with Dustin?”

Liam Bryant turned around and looked at a group of Bryant family disciples.

“...”

Everyone looked at him, and he looked at everyone, and for a moment they looked at each other, hesitant.

Connor Bryant has been defeated. If someone fights alone, who can be Dustin’s opponent?

Wouldn’t it be humiliating oneself to challenge him now?

“What? There are so many men in the Bryant family, don’t any of them have courage?”

Liam Bryant frowned slightly.

It’s one thing to lose, but it’s another thing not to dare.

The Bryant family hates failure, but they despise cowards even more.

“Ian Bryant! Come on!”

Liam Bryant was too lazy to talk nonsense and pointed at Ian Bryant next to him, intending to catch a scapegoat to make up for the loss.

“ah?”

Ian Bryantren was stupid.

His eyes widened, a little at a loss.

Damn it, I was beaten up by Dustin just a few days ago, and now I have to go up and get beaten again?

Is there still no excuse to send me away?

“Ah what? Come on!”
