

An understated Dominance – Dahlia and Dustin Chapter 1475

Chapter 1475

At this moment, everyone in the Torby and Stratford families was not calm.

They had calculated everything, but they never expected that the Langfords Family, the head of a wealthy family, would actually support the Lancaster Family.

You must know that the gap between the two sides is as different as clouds and mud. They are not at the same level at all.

Could it be that the backer behind the Lancaster Family is the Langfords Family?

“How, how is it possible? Why is the head of the Langfords Family here?!”

Isabela’s eyes widened in disbelief.

Who is Ethan Langford?

That was the head of the Langfords Family, a powerful official in the imperial court, with hands and eyes that could reach the sky.

Moreover, he has always been arrogant and never forms allies or pretends to be a person.

Not to mention Samuel Thompson, Dustin and his like, even her parents could not move the statue of Ethan Langford in person.

Who can make Ethan Langford come forward in person?

“Now we’re in trouble!”

Owen Stratford broke out in cold sweat and panicked.

A wealthy Thompson family is already enough to cause headaches, and now there is another Langfords Family, which will undoubtedly make it worse.

Among the eight wealthy families, the Langfords Family is the first and the Thompson family is the second. Both belong to the upper four families.

As for the Torby Family and the Stratford Family, they can only be regarded as the lower four, ranking at the bottom.

In terms of comprehensive strength, the Langfords and Thompson families are naturally far better than the Torby and Stratford families.

So in today's gamble, they have no advantage at all.

It has even turned into a disadvantage.

"How could this happen? Has the Thompson family already formed an alliance with the Langfords Family?"

Kevin frowned, his face serious.

The appearance of Ethan Langford directly affected the whole situation.

All the plans they had made before became uncertain at this moment.

"Clan Chief Mr. Ethan Langford is coming to my humble home. Come on, please come inside!"

Waylon Lancaster personally entertained and led Ethan Langford into the door.

There is no need for the Langfords Family to buy any Jade Dew Ointment. It is just a face-saving gesture, which is already a great help.

I believe that soon, all forces related to the Langfords Family will flock to the door to join them.

"Miss Isabela, how are you? Are you surprised?" Hazel Lancaster felt refreshed.

To be honest, she didn't expect Samuel Thompson to have such great face that he could invite Ethan Langford here.

With the help of the Langfords Family, their chances of winning today's game will be greatly increased.

“Why did Master Langford help you? What methods did you use?!”

Isabela frowned, her face became extremely ugly.

“That doesn’t bother Miss Isabela, you should think about it carefully, what should you do if you lose?” Hazel Lancaster smiled triumphantly.

“Hmph! Even if you have the help of the Langfords Family, we may not lose!” Isabela shouted in a deep voice.

Although the power of the Langfords and Thompson families is greater than that of the Torby and Stratford families.

But they can go all out and win this bet at any cost.

As for the Langfords Family and the Thompson family, it is obvious that they cannot do nothing.

This is the key to their victory.

“Look! Another convoy is coming!”

At this time, an exclamation suddenly sounded.

Everyone followed the sound and saw another luxury convoy appearing at the corner of the street.

The convoy is mighty, and the battle is more grand than before, obviously the background is not small.

“Looking at this posture, I guess it’s another group of big shots.”

“Guess who invited these big shots?”

“It’s hard to say. Now that the two sides are evenly matched, it’s possible to win or lose.”

“Listening to your words is better than just one word.”

Under the gaze of everyone, the luxury motorcade began to drive slowly across the street, and finally stopped at the entrance of the Rejuvenation Ointment Pharmaceutical Company.

Seeing this scene, Isabela instantly looked overjoyed: “Hahaha... It’s our people! It’s our reinforcements that have arrived!”

“Great! It’s finally time for us to feel proud!” Owen Stratford was also extremely happy.

Although the appearance of Ethan Langford caused some changes, fortunately they were well prepared and able to turn the tide.

“Who is the one?”

Kevin rubbed his chin and murmured to himself, with a little more expectation in his eyes.

The allies of the Torby and Stratford families have all arrived. Is there another surprise?

“Dustin! Hazel Lancaster! Samuel Thompson!”

Isabela called the names one by one and said arrogantly: “I told you a long time ago not to be too happy too early. How about now? Have you been slapped in the face? Hahaha...”

“I admit that you have something, but unfortunately, we are still better after all.” Owen Stratford’s face was full of pride.

Just when the two were ridiculing and laughing, something happened suddenly.

They saw that the convoy that had just stopped seemed to have discovered something, and suddenly moved again!

Immediately afterwards, luxury cars began to turn around, and finally arrived at the gate of Lancaster’s Medicine.

When the vehicle stopped, the well-dressed dignitaries walked out one after another and began to congratulate each other in an orderly manner.

“Oscar Bryant of the Bryant family and many of the Bryant family’s children came to support and congratulate Lancaster’s Medicine on its successful opening and prosperous business!”

Oscar Bryant, the leader, led the crowd forward and hugged Dustin and the others.

As soon as this remark came out, the audience was in an uproar.

“What? The royal family, the Bryant family, are all here? Am I right?”

“Oh my god! The opening of a small pharmaceutical company actually alarmed the Stonia royal family. What is going on?”

“ ... ”

Everyone was discussing and shocked.

The royal Bryant family is a level higher than the Langfords Family. It is a behemoth standing on the top of the Dragonmarsh Kingdom!

There are many famous generals in the family, and they have great power in both the government and the public. Their influence in the military department is so great that they can only cover the sky with one hand!

Such a giant family would actually congratulate the small Lancaster Family?

It’s simply unbelievable!

“Bryant...Bryant family? How is that possible?!”

At this moment, Isabela and others stood stunned on the spot as if struck by lightning.

Everyone’s eyes widened with disbelief on their faces.

Isn’t the convoy reinforcements from the Torby and Stratford families? How did he become a member of the Lancaster Family?

The most important thing is, how can a second-rate family hire a giant like the Bryant family?

Still haven’t recovered from the shock.

Another luxury motorcade appeared on the street corner.

This time, they did not go wrong. The luxury motorcade came straight to Lancaster's Medicine, and finally stopped steadily.

The car door opened, and Natasha, dressed in a red traditional dress, walked down with a group of dignitaries.

"The royal Duncan Family is here to congratulate you!"

"To show our sincerity, we will contribute tens of billions of orders, and I wish Lancaster pharmaceutical business a prosperous business, making every day a fortune!" Natasha said with a smile.

As soon as these words came out, the whole place exploded.

"Oh my god! Not only the Bryant family, but also the royal Duncan Family are here now. Am I not dreaming?"

"Who is it? Who can invite two royal families to appear at the same time?!"

"A wonder in the world! What a wonder in the world!"

There was a lot of discussion and excitement among the people.

The Bryant family alone is scary enough, and with the help of the Duncan Family, its influence is immeasurable!

In this bet, Lancaster's Medicine won a crushing victory.

There is no chance of a comeback for the Torby and Stratford families.

"thump!"

Isabela's legs went limp, and she slumped on the ground, her face ashen.

She is completely desperate!

Chapter 1477

At this moment, it's not just Isabela.

Including all the members of the Torby and Stratford families, they were deeply shocked.

They never dreamed that things would turn out like this.

If only the Langfords Family played, they might still have a glimmer of hope of winning.

But now, even the two royal families are involved.

Even if they have the ability to reach the sky, they can only bow their heads and stand quit.

You must know that the gap between the wealthy family and the royal family is simply a difference between clouds and mud, they are not at the same level at all.

A wealthy family is only rich, while a royal family represents power!

The rich are not worth mentioning in front of the powerful.

It is not an exaggeration to say that it only takes one night for the royal family to destroy the wealthy family.

This is the unbridgeable gap between the two sides.

“The Langfords Family, the Bryant family, the Duncan Family...how did this happen? What happened?”

Owen Stratford was stunned and terrified.

He really couldn't understand why the little Lancaster's medicine could get the support of the royal family.

“Don't say anything! Admit defeat immediately, or there will be endless troubles!”

After a brief shock, Kevin quickly reacted.

The appearance of the two royal families at the same time made him realize the seriousness of the problem, although he didn't know how Lancaster's medicine did it.

But it was obvious that they had lost.

If we resist to the end, not only will there be no benefit, but it will even anger the two royal families.

By then, the Torby and Stratford families will be in catastrophe!

In the end, under Kevin's urging, Isabela and Owen Stratford had to bow their heads and admit defeat.

"This time we lost, we are willing to bet and admit defeat!"

"From now on, we will no longer sell rejuvenation cream, and the company will be canceled immediately. Are you satisfied now?"

Isabela gritted her teeth and looked resentful.

Although she lost, she refused to accept it.

In her opinion, if the two royal families did not interfere, victory should belong to her.

"Miss Isabela, there is still a long time before the sun goes down. Is it too early to admit defeat now? Why don't you hold on for a while?" Hazel Lancaster said with a faint smile.

"Hmph! You're just lucky, what's the big deal? We can't change things!"

After saying the harsh words, Isabela left in anger.

"let's go."

Kevin made a gesture and quickly left with a group of people.

In just a few minutes, the Torby and Stratford families were completely empty.

The new company that had just opened closed down in an instant, and the rich and powerful people who had previously supported it also immediately dispersed.

In the end, Lancaster's Medicine won the victory.

However, the matter did not end there.

When the Langfords Family, Bryant family, and Duncan Family arrived one after another, more and more forces heard the news and began to come to congratulate the family and place a large number of orders for Jade Dew Ointment.

For a time, the entire Lancaster's Medicine industry became extremely popular, and the threshold was about to be broken through.

There is a steady flow of influence from one side to the next, and one rich man after another.

Luxury cars lined up from the street to the end of the street.

The name of Jade Dew Ointment spread everywhere with lightning speed, and in just one day, it resounded throughout Stonia.

The rejuvenation ointment of the Torby and Stratford families was completely suppressed to death.

Customers who had placed orders before had chosen to return the goods for refunds, causing the Torby and Stratford families to suffer heavy losses.

In order to promote it, the two companies have invested a huge amount of money and worked overtime to produce the rejuvenating cream overnight.

Chapter 1478

As a result, it was stillborn before it even started making money.

Not only are the ointments piling up and unable to be sold, but all the money invested previously has been wasted.

For a time, the Torby and Stratford families were experiencing constant internal and external troubles.

On the other hand, the Lancaster Family's side is exactly the opposite.

Because of the public support of the two royal families, the Lancaster Family jumped directly from the second line to the first line.

Not only did they make a lot of money, but they also caught up with wealthy families in terms of human resources.

According to this situation, within three months, the Lancaster Family can truly be promoted to a wealthy family!

At that time, there will be a grand occasion of nine giants in Stonia!

...

At night, in the Torby Family meeting hall.

As the head of the royal family, Kevin was discussing countermeasures with the head of the Stratford Family, Harold Stratford.

Only Isabela and Owen Stratford's immediate relatives were among the observers.

"Brother Kevin, what's going on?"

"Before you kept saying that as long as our Stratford Family joins, we can make a fortune together."

"It's good now. Our Stratford Family has invested a lot of money. As a result, the new company has just opened and closed down."

"The most important thing is that all the customers who placed the order asked for a refund. This way, our Stratford Family has suffered a lot!"

Harold Stratford kept vomiting bitterness, his tone full of complaints.

If they hadn't listened to Kevin's slander and invested in rejuvenation ointment, the Stratford Family would not have fallen to where it is today.

You must know that the production cost of rejuvenating ointment is extremely high, coupled with the large number of orders before, they are full of confidence, and they do not hesitate to spend a lot of money to collect medicinal materials.

I thought I could make a lot of money, but I didn't expect to lose so badly, it's already hurting my bones.

Now everyone in the Stratford Family is scolding.

“Brother Harold, I know you are in a hurry, but don’t worry.”

Kevin sighed softly and said, “Your Stratford Family has suffered a lot, so how can our Torby Family be any better? We are all in the same boat, and we have to bear the good and the bad together.”

“Although that’s the case, you’re doing too badly, right? You couldn’t even clean up a little Lancaster Family, and you even got yourself involved.” Harold Stratford shook his head.

“Brother Harold, what happened today was purely an accident. If the royal family hadn’t intervened, we would have won.” Kevin said.

“What? The royal family? What’s going on?” Harold Stratford was startled.

“Here’s the thing…”

Kevin did not hide anything, and simply explained what happened.

After listening to it, Harold Stratford immediately frowned, his face became extraordinarily serious: “It’s strange, how could the powerful royal family help the little Lancaster Family?”

“Dad, according to our speculation, this matter should be related to the Thompson family.” At this time, Owen Stratford suddenly spoke.

“Although the Thompson family is quite powerful, if they want to recruit the Bryant family and the Duncan Family, they probably don’t have the ability to do so, right?” Harold Stratford was a little suspicious.

The eight wealthy families basically all know their roots.

The Langfords Family is the most powerful and belongs to the only family.

The Thompson family ranked second, and if they were singled out, they would definitely be better than the Torby Family or the Stratford Family.

But it is obviously impossible to ask the royal family to come forward.

“Perhaps, the Thompson family spent a lot of money and lured them with a lot of money, so they persuaded the two royal families.” Owen Stratford guessed.

“Brother Kevin, what do you think?” Harold Stratford did not answer directly, but looked at Kevin.

“I also find this strange, but besides the Thompson family, I can’t think of anyone else.” Kevin shook his head.

The Lancaster Family represented by Hazel Lancaster is just a second-rate force, not even qualified to climb up the royal family, so naturally they don’t have the ability.

The Thompson family, represented by Samuel Thompson, is the most important and highest-status existence among the partners. Although it is difficult to achieve, at least there is still a glimmer of hope.

As for Dustin, he simply ignored it.

An unknown junior, who is not even worthy to carry shoes for a member of the royal family, how can he have such energy?

Chapter 1479

“Okay, there’s no point in discussing this now. Let’s think about how to get out of the current predicament.”

At this time, Sophia, who had been silent all this time, suddenly spoke.

She is a decisive and resolute person who never gives up easily.

If you fail this time, then find an opportunity to make up for it.

“Both royal families have shown up, and the business of rejuvenating ointment is obviously not going to work.”

Harold Stratford sighed, then raised his head and said, “Brother Kevin, you always have a lot of tricky ideas. Is there any good way to recover some losses?”

“What can I do for a while?” Kevin looked helpless.

If he had his way, he wouldn’t be sitting here worrying.

“Dad! I have an idea!”

As if thinking of something, Isabela next to him suddenly spoke.

“Oh? What’s your idea? Let’s hear it.”

Kevin immediately became interested.

The others looked over one after another, as if they were all listening.

“Dad, we got the prescription of Rejuvenation Ointment from Dustin. Is it possible that he has a similar top-quality prescription?” Isabela narrowed her eyes and said.

Kevin and Sophia looked at each other and immediately understood what their daughter meant.

But seeing through things without telling them is a disgraceful thing after all.

“Isabela, you mean to kidnap Dustin quietly and force him to hand over all the prescriptions?” Owen Stratford asked tentatively.

“That’s right!”

Isabela nodded heavily: “Dustin has a lot of secrets hidden in him. I believe that as long as he is captured and tortured, he will definitely get a lot of surprises!”

“Haha...good idea!”

Hearing this, Harold Stratford’s eyes lit up: “We only promised that we would no longer produce and sell rejuvenation ointment, and we didn’t say that we would not sell other medicines. If there is any magical prescription, we can not only recover the loss, but also make a lot of money!”

“good.”

Kevin smiled and nodded: “If there is one, there are two. There is a high probability that Dustin has other top-quality prescriptions.”

When dealing with the Torby Family before, Dustin had hidden a secret, which proved that this son was quite sophisticated and good at hiding his clumsiness.

“Isabela, now Dustin has boarded the Thompson family’s ship, it is too risky for us to touch him?” Owen Stratford thought.

The Thompson family and the Lancaster Family are now very popular, and they have two royal families as their backers.

Dustin has become friends with Samuel Thompson and Hazel Lancaster again. If he kidnaps someone, he might cause big trouble.

“You can’t catch tiger cubs if you don’t enter the tiger’s den. As long as you can recover your losses and turn defeat into victory, what’s the point of taking some risks?”

Isabela said indifferently: “Besides, Dustin is just a pawn being used and has lost its value now. How can the Thompson family and the Lancaster Family care about the life and death of such a person?”

“this.....”

Owen Stratford frowned in thought, a little undecided.

“Brother Owen, aren’t you so frightened that you don’t even have this courage anymore?”

Isabela said with some dissatisfaction: “You used to be unparalleled in wisdom, courage, and perseverance. Why do you seem to be a different person today?”

“It’s a matter of great importance. It’s always right to be cautious.” Owen Stratford smiled sarcastically.

Damn it, I charge into battle every time, and you cheer and shout from behind. Of course you don’t feel dangerous.

If something happened, wouldn’t I be unlucky first?

“Brother Owen, don’t worry, there will never be any danger in this matter.”

Isabela said with a serious face: “As long as we do it without anyone noticing and leaving no clues, who will suspect us? Don’t forget, we have a peerless expert to help us. Just ask this If an expert makes a move, it will definitely be foolproof!”

“Owen, you are just an unknown junior. Why are you so nervous? With our two giants supporting you, you just let go and do it. If something goes wrong, uncle will carry it for you!” Kevin said, patting his chest.

After hearing what the father and daughter said, Owen Stratford immediately felt confident and said boldly, “Okay! Then I’ll take a chance and catch Dustin back myself!”

At this moment, in the Imperial Building, in a luxurious private room

Chapter 1480

Dustin, Hazel Lancaster, and Samuel Thompson were gathering together to drink and chat.

The new company opened successfully today and ended perfectly. All three of them made a lot of money.

After finishing their work, they immediately went to the Imperial Tower to have a drink and celebrate.

“Hahaha... I feel so good today!”

“Owen Stratford and Isabela, that pair of losers, finally suffered a big loss. When I think of their expressions of eating shit, I can’t help but laugh.”

Samuel Thompson held up his wine glass and laughed.

He had long been displeased with Isabela and the two. A few days ago, they came to threaten his elder sister, but today he finally vented his anger.

“This is all thanks to Mr. Thompson’s wide connections and inviting the Bryant family and Duncan Family to support the scene. Otherwise, how could we be so prosperous today?”

“Come on, Mr. Thompson, let me toast you.”

Hazel Lancaster smiled and raised her wine glass.

“etc.....”

Samuel Thompson was startled and said in astonishment: “Aren’t the two royal families invited by your Lancaster Family? What does it have to do with our Thompson family?”

“ah?”

Hazel Lancaster’s face froze: “Young Mr. Thompson, are you kidding? Our Lancaster Family is just a second-rate family, how can we invite the royal family to come forward?”

“The problem is, our Thompson family can’t do it either!” Samuel Thompson looked weird.

Although he used his connections and invited many forces to support him, they definitely did not include the Bryant family and the Duncan Family.

In fact, he doesn’t have the ability.

Even if his father comes forward, the success rate is very slim.

The gap between wealthy families and royal families is really huge.

“It’s not our Lancaster Family, and it’s not your Thompson family, so who could it be?” Hazel Lancaster looked confused.

She always thought that the Thompson family spent a lot of money to invite the two royal families to take charge.

Now it seems that this is not the case.

“Xiao Rhys...it can’t be you, right?”

As if he thought of something, Samuel Thompson’s eyes suddenly turned, with a bit of surprise.

“I?”

Dustin smiled faintly and said ambiguously: “What even you can’t do, do I, a poor man, have the ability?”

“That’s true.”

Samuel Thompson nodded thoughtfully: “Anyone who can invite the royal family is either a relative of the emperor or a prince.”

“Okay, don’t worry about this anymore. Maybe the two royal families took a fancy to the potential of our Jade Dew Ointment, so they took advantage of it.”

Hazel Lancaster glanced at Dustin meaningfully, and then changed the topic.

She always felt that there was some secret hidden in the other party, but now, it was not time to reveal the secret.

“Come on, let’s drink!”

Samuel Thompson was too lazy to think, so he picked up the wine glass and started drinking again.

After a while, he drank up a bottle of wine.

“Come here! Two more bottles of good wine!”

Samuel Thompson yelled towards the door.

Soon, a waitress came in with two bottles of wine and her head lowered.

“Come! Let’s drink!”

Samuel Thompson poured three glasses of wine respectively, touched them lightly, and was ready to drink them all in one gulp.

But halfway through raising the glass, Dustin raised his hand to stop him.

“This wine is weird, don’t drink it!”
